Poetry Study: Grade 10

How To Approach

Read

The lesson plans will guide you through what to read over the terms. Take a moment before reading to remember where you left off last time.

Narrate

The lesson plans will give you specific instructions or tell you to choose a way to narrate that helps you interact with the ideas.

Discuss

The lesson plans will guide you with questions or instructions to share your ideas or what you are reading with others.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to students, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are occasionally added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

It is also valuable for those in a classroom setting to have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrate together. Literature lessons lend themselves well to a larger discussion time at the end of the lesson where student can share their ideas.

Term 1

WEEK 1

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 1

Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ INTRO

Do you enjoy poetry? Wonderful! This book will give you new ways to get to know and enjoy poems even more deeply. Do you dislike poetry? Perfect! This book will give you a new perspective and hopefully help you to decide simply to put \*some\* poems aside for now. There is no need to give up on poetry altogether.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Foreword p.ix-xiii

- Think back over your life. What poems have shaped you? Did you listen to nursery rhymes when you were little? Have you memorized poems over the years? How would you describe your relationship with poetry?

• EXTRA HELPINGS

The back of the book has some excellent ideas on how to use the book with a group and includes extra discussion questions for each of the chapters if you're interested!

WEEK 1

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 2

Materials: Journal

→ INTRO

One lesson each week will focus on reading and discussing our way through The Word Made Fresh. The second lesson will focus on reading poetry or engaging with it in some way. Keep a journal on hand! Sometimes specific poems are assigned, but sometimes you will need to choose a poem to read yourself (with some guidance). Make sure to have a good poetry anthology on hand. Some options are linked in Extra Helpings.

→ REFLECT

What habits have helped or hindered your capacity to spend time with wonder? What moments in your life made the world feel bigger? What caused it?

WEEK 2

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 3

Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

WEEK 2

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 4

Materials: Bible

→ READ & REFLECT

Read a poem from the Bible (the Psalms are an easy place to start, but almost a third of the Bible is poetry, so you'll run into it everywhere). Why do you think God has written to us in poetry?

WEEK 3

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 5

Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Term 1

WEEK 4

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 8

Materials: Bible

→ READ & REFLECT

Read another biblical poem today and reflect on how the Bible would be different if God had given that piece of scripture to us as prose rather than a poem.

WEEK 5

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 9

Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.11-12 "Wilbur's poem" - "make things fresh."

- Think about the idea that we live by metaphor. What metaphors do you use regularly? Have you noticed how ideas "strike" or "seize" or "capture" us, and thought about the violent battle imagery we use to talk about ideas?

WEEK 5

15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 10

Materials: Journal

→ REFLECT

What metaphors do you live by? Think about these common ones and then reflect on whether they are helpful ways to think about each of these things, and what other metaphors we might be unconsciously acting on.

- Time is Money: We understand time as a finite resource that can be saved, spent, wasted, or invested.
- Love is a Physical Force: We experience love as a force of attraction or magnetism.
- Life is a Journey: We see life as a path with destinations, detours, and crossroads.
- Arguments are War: We engage in arguments by attacking, defending, and making counterattacks.
