

Plutarch/Government

U.S.

About the Course

Students study a life by Plutarch for two terms and then spend the rest of the year exploring topics of government through historical documents and decisions from this rotation.

This topic is included in the following course(s): Citizenship: Grade 9 (U.S.)

Placement & Combining Tips

Plutarch lessons are shared with Grades 6-8, and the final term of government lessons is shared with Grades 10-11, and are also suitable for inquisitive 8th graders.

How To Approach

Prepare

Teachers may find it helpful to pre-read all or part of the selection from Plutarch studied and choose which news sites to offer students.

If you, the student, are learning at home, work to schedule a time with your teacher when you can complete the lessons from Ourselves and Plutarch together, as these lessons are much richer when shared and discussed.

Recap

Connect back to the previous lesson. (Optional for Current Events).

Introduce

For news sources: Scan the headlines first to get an overview, and then choose a story to read.

For Citizenship books (optional): Use a picture, a map, or an engaging question to get yourselves interested in the lesson. If necessary, you may talk about one or two unfamiliar words that will be crucial to understanding. It is not necessary to cover all unfamiliar words.

Read

Read the selection assigned or the news story chosen. For rich, dense, or more challenging books such as Ourselves and Plutarch, it is a good idea to read them aloud. Have students keep an eye out for things to add to their Citizenship Notebook, Book of Centuries, and/or Commonplace book.

Narrate

Narrate orally or in writing.

Discuss

Share your thoughts on the story and any connections made. For current events, look up where events occurred on a map and ask questions together to discern the quality of the piece. (e.g., Are there sources cited? Is there an obvious bias? If so, what do other authors have to say on this subject? Are arguments supported by evidence? Is that evidence credible?) Consider reading an alternative perspective.

Citizenship Notebook

Record important ideas in your Citizenship Notebooks. Make a calendar of current events.

Term 1

WEEK 1

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 1

Introduction and Lesson 1 Julius Caesar p. 1-12

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas

PREP: We highly recommend reading a retelling so you can be familiar with the story. This is for your understanding and should not be read to the students. Read introduction, review vocabulary, and preread the lesson.

∞ Link: Retelling of Caesar (from Our Young Folks' Plutarch)

→INTRO HAVE YOU EVER HEARD OF JULIUS CAESAR? IF SO, WHAT DO YOU KNOW ABOUT HIM?

→VIEW

∞ Image Link: Julius Caesar

Map Resource: Historical Atlas, p.14-15

→LOCATE

Take 1-2 minutes to look over the map of The Roman Republic and the surrounding "world" in Caesar's time. Find Rome in Italy. Find the Aegean Sea between the province of Asia and Achaea. This is the coastline where the pirates operated. Find Bithynia on the southern shore of the Black Sea where Caesar went after his release. These are the places where a teenager on the wrong side of Roman politics spent his first years away from home.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson One, Parts One - Three, p.9-12. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

In the introduction of Lesson One, we learn that "young Julius Caesar was on the wrong side. Most people in that position would have stayed hidden or at least tried to live quietly." (p. 7) In a situation where staying silent means comfort and safety, what factors of beliefs might make a person decide that standing up is worth the risk?

→ WRITE

If you found yourself on the 'wrong side' of a big decision at school or with your friends, and staying quiet was the only way to stay safe and comfortable, how would you decide which ideas are worth being 'exiled' for and which ones are just you being stubborn?

★ TEACHER TIP

∞ Link: To keep track of all of the characters in the story, it may be helpful for your student to sketch a chart or list of some kind in their citizenship notebook.

WEEK 2

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 2

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 2 Julius Caesar p. 12-17

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What did we learn so far about Caesar from the first reading?

→LOCATE

Find Hither Spain and Farther Spain on the western edge of the map. Both are already "Roman Pink." Find the Alps. This is the route Caesar traveled when he passed through a tiny village and said, "For my part, I had rather be the chiefest man here, than the second person in Rome." (p. 15, The Plutarch Project)

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Two, Parts One - Three, p.14-17. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are a young officer who rode with Caesar when he passed through a tiny village in the Alps and said he would rather be the first man there than the second in Rome. What do you think about that comment?

→ WRITE

Explain how you might distinguish between a person who wants to do great things and a person who simply wants to be the greatest.

★ TEACHER NOTE

The map shows the world in 31 B.C., shortly after Caesar's time. You will notice Italy is shaded pink; while it was the Roman Homeland and not a province, it is colored here to show it was under central Roman control.

While all of Gaul is pink on this map, remember that when Caesar began his command, only the southern tip belonged to Rome. His campaigns are what eventually brought the rest of that territory into the Empire.

• DEFINITIONS

Pontifex Maximus: There were numerous levels and types of priesthood in Rome and throughout the rest of Italy; and these positions carried political as well as spiritual authority.

WEEK 3

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 3

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 3 Julius Caesar p. 17-24

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas p. 14-15

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find Transalpine Gaul and the Rhine River marking the boundary between Gaul and

★ TEACHER NOTE

Germania was entirely outside Roman control.

- The Rhine was the line Caesar pushed against, even crossing it twice (in 55 and 53 BC) to build famous bridges and conduct show of force expeditions.

- Despite these incursions, Rome never successfully turned the main body of Germania into a Germania. Notice that Germania is entirely outside the Roman pink. This is the boundary Caesar was about to push.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Three, Parts One - Three, p.19-23. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of Caesar's soldiers who has watched him for days while ill and exhausted. Tonight he is sick again. What do you think about his choices while chronically ill? (p. 22)

permanent province, even in the centuries following Caesar

• CULTURAL CONNECTION

Sweet Ointment: also translated "oil of perfume" or "myrrh." It appears that Valerius Leo hadn't just pulled out the wrong bottle of salad dressing, rather that he was trying to show off his wealth. The reference to the host's want of breeding seems to confirm that.

WEEK 4

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 4

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 4 Julius Caesar p. 24-30

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find the Rhine separating Gaul from Germania. Find Cisalpine Gaul south of the Alps. Trace north from Cisalpine Gaul all the way to the Rhine. This is the distance those men were willing to march.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Four, Parts One - Four, p.26-30. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

Caesar "never failed to dismiss all with present pledges of his kindness in hand, and further hopes for the future." (p. 29) As one of his soldiers, you've just watched him march over a bridge of fallen soldiers. Now, he stands before you, gives you gold, and speaks of the future with hope. How do you make sense of the leader you saw at the river and the generous, hopeful man standing in front of you now?

→ WRITE

Caesar "commanded them that were afraid, that they should depart home, and not put themselves in danger against their wills." (p. 27-28) How would you respond if you were one of the "young gentlemen of noble houses of Rome, who thought to have gone to the wars with him as only for their pleasure and gain" and Caesar was sending you home? (p. 27)

WEEK 5

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 5

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 5 Julius Caesar p. 30-36

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find Arverni where Vercingetorix and the Arverni lived. Find Alesia. Notice the rivers and terrain and consider why Caesar chose to build where he did.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Five, Parts One - Two, p.32-36. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are Vercingetorix, riding out of the gates of Alesia in full armor to give yourself up. What do you think about the choice you are making?

→ WRITE

Look closely at the rivers surrounding Alesia. How might these help a general trying to keep an army from escaping?

WEEK 6

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 6

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 6 Julius Caesar p. 36-42

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find the Rubicon. Locate Brundisium on the Adriatic coast. Find Dyrrhachium across the Ionian Sea and notice the distance Caesar was asking his army to cross. Consider the risk of moving a massive force across that stretch of the Ionian Sea while being hunted by an enemy fleet.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Six, Parts One - Two, p. 38-42. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are Asinius Pollio, standing beside Caesar at the Rubicon while he talks through what crossing will mean. What do you think as you listen to him? (p. 41-42)

→ WRITE

On the banks of the Rubicon, Caesar's abstract plain shifts to the reality of the action. Describe what he sees and feels in that moment of doubt as he considers the "desperateness of his attempt." (p. 41)

WEEK 7

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 7

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 7 Julius Caesar p. 42-50

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Trace the route Caesar used to move through Italy in sixty days without a major battle. Find Corfinium where Domitius surrendered. Locate Brundisium where Pompey escaped by sea.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Seven, Parts One - Four, p.45-49. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are Labienus, Caesar's most trusted general for ten years, the night you walked out of his camp for the last time. What do you think about the man you are leaving? (p. 46)

→ WRITE

Caesar said, "Time of war and law are two things." (p. 47) What does he mean?

WEEK 8

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 8

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 8 Julius Caesar p. 50-56

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find the city of Rome in Italy and cross the Adriatic Sea to the province of Macedonia, the rugged region where the Battle of Pharsalus was fought. Find Pharsalus. Trace the coastline south to Alexandria and the Kingdom of the Ptolemies, where the defeated Pompey eventually fled for refuge. These are the locations where the future of the Roman world was decided as Caesar pursued his rival across the Mediterranean.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Eight, Parts One - Three, p.51-56. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of Caesar's soldiers who ran to meet him when he returned to shore, and you are angry. Your general just risked his life sneaking across a war zone in a twelve-oar boat dressed as a slave, without telling anyone. What specifically bothers you about what he did, and what does your reaction say about what you believe a leader owes the people who follow him?

→ WRITE

Caesar's plan to aim at the faces of the young cavalymen worked because he thought carefully about who they actually were, not just what they were doing on the battlefield. Describe a conflict or disagreement you have had where understanding the other person's specific fears or weaknesses would have changed how you approached the situation.

★ TEACHER NOTE
The writing prompt is slightly uncomfortable by design, because understanding someone's fears in order to respond more effectively sits right on the edge between wisdom and manipulation

WEEK 9

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 9

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 9 Julius Caesar p. 57-62

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find Alexandria on its Mediterranean coast. This is where Caesar spent months managing a dangerous court, a burning library, a treacherous eunuch, and a queen smuggled in through a castle gate in a bundle. He nearly drowned here. Move northeast into Syria, which Caesar passed through on his way to deal with the next problem before the Egyptian one was fully settled. Find Pontus on the southern shore of the Black Sea. This is where Pharnaces had overrun Roman territory while Caesar was occupied in Alexandria. Caesar arrived, fought, and sent a three-word letter back to Rome. The whole thing was over before the letter arrived.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Nine, Parts One - Three, p.58-61. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of Pompey's soldiers who has just been taken prisoner and is now being folded into Caesar's legions. Yesterday you were fighting against this man. Today, he is your general. What do you do with that, and what would you need to see from him before you trusted him? (p. 58-59)

→ WRITE: PICK 1

Caesar "daily saved the lives of some of his countrymen that bore arms against him" and considered this the greatest pleasure of his victory. Think of a conflict, whether between people, groups, or ideas, where the most meaningful thing a winner could do afterward was show restraint or generosity. What makes that kind of choice hard, and what makes it worth it? (p. 59)

"Veni, Vidi, Vici" worked because it was short, precise, and matched the reality of what had actually happened. Think of a time when you had to report something, explain yourself, or sum up a complicated situation for someone else. What is lost when we say too much, and what is lost when we say too little? (p. 61)

WEEK 10

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 10

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 10 Julius Caesar p. 62-69

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find Sicily, where Caesar camped on the seashore in winter to cut off any thought of delay, then trace his crossing south to the African coast and the battle at Thapsus, where three camps fell in a single day. Follow him back to Rome for the triumphs and the honors, then west to Spain and the battle at Munda, where Pompey's sons nearly killed him, and back to Rome again. He covered all of it inside two years.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Ten, Parts One - Three, p. 64-68. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of Caesar's friends who has just urged him to accept a personal bodyguard, and he has refused, saying it is "better to die once than always to be afraid of death." You believe there are real plots against him. How would you respond to his answer? (p. 68)

→ WRITE

Caesar put a man of the right family name at the head of his troops specifically to counter an oracle his enemies believed in. He may have been mocking it or he may have been sincere; Plutarch says it is hard to tell. Think about a time when you did something that could have been interpreted two very different ways depending on who was watching. Do your intentions fully determine the meaning of an action, or does it matter how others read it? (p. 65)

WEEK 11

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 11

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 11 Julius Caesar p. 69-75

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find Rome. Now stay there, because that is where all of Lesson 11 takes place. After a life of crossing seas and marching through impassable terrain, the whole lesson fits inside a single city.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Eleven, Parts One - Three, p. 70-74. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are a senator who walked out when Caesar refused to stand up to greet you. You said nothing. You just left. What were you communicating, and do you think he understood it?

You have served Caesar since his early campaigns. You have watched him win in Gaul, survive civil war, defeat Pompey, and return to Rome in triumph. He is now planning new campaigns as if none of it happened. What does it feel like to follow a man who cannot stop? What do you think he is still looking for?

WEEK 12

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 12

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 12 Julius Caesar p. 75-82

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas, p. 14-15

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→ LOCATE

Find Rome, where Caesar was killed in the Senate chamber on the Ides of March, and where the city burned three days later. Find Philippi in Macedonia, where Brutus and Cassius died by their own hands. Trace the distance between those two points.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Twelve, Parts One - Epilogue, p. 77-82. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are Caesar in the moment before you cover your face and give up. You have fought off the others. You are still standing. And then you see Brutus. Something finally stops all the fight in you. You have outrun everything your whole life. What is it that you are finally deciding to stop outrunning? (p. 78)

→ WRITE

The crowd killed Cinna the poet because he had the same name as Cinna the conspirator. He tried to tell them who he was and it made no difference. Think about a situation where a person was judged entirely by something they had no control over. What does that kind of mistake reveal about what happens to people's judgment when they are driven by grief or rage? (p. 80)

Have you ever heard of Sparta? If so, what do you know about it? What do you think made Sparta different from other ancient Greek cities?

Map Resource: Historical Atlas, p.7

→LOCATE

Find Sparta in the southern part of Greece, tucked between the Laconian Gulf to the east and the Messenian Gulf to the west. Now find Laconia, the region surrounding Sparta, and Messenia to its west. Find Corinth at the narrow neck of land connecting the southern peninsula to the rest of Greece. Agis's story takes place in this region.

→ READ, NARRATE

Introduction and Lesson One, Parts One - Two, p. 84-93. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

Agis is not yet twenty years old. He has grown up with wealth and comfort provided by his mother and grandmother, the richest women in Sparta. Plutarch says he "began to spurn against these womanish delights and pleasures" and chose the plain Spartan life instead. Nobody made him do this. What do you think happened inside him, and what does his choice tell you about what kind of person he was becoming? (p. 91)

→ WRITE

Agis "openly boasted besides, that he would not desire to be king, but only for the hope he had to restore the ancient Laconian life by his authority." (p. 91) What do you think he meant?

→LOCATE

Find Athens to the northeast of Sparta, across the Saronic Gulf (not labeled - the body of water located between the regions of Attica and the Argolis peninsula). Find Corinth. The wealth that corrupted Sparta came through trade routes that passed through these cities after the conquest of Athens.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Two, Parts One - Three, p. 96-99. Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

Agis's mother and grandmother were the richest women in Sparta and had the most to lose from his reforms. They opposed him at first. Then something changed, and they not only consented but became his most vocal supporters, willing to give up their own wealth for his cause. What do you think changed their minds? What does their behavior tell you about those women? (p. 96)

→ WRITE

Agesilaus persuaded Agis to cancel the debts first and divide the land later, arguing that doing both at once might cause dangerous commotion. Then, Plutarch reveals his motives, "Agesilaus...having the best lands of any man in the country, and owing a great sum of money besides, would neither pay his debts, not let go his land." (p. 99) Think about the difference between counsel and manipulation. How do you learn to tell the difference when someone gives you advice?

Term 2

Find Megara and Corinth. The narrow strip of land between them is the Isthmus of Corinth, where the sea presses in from both sides (The Saronic Gulf and the Gulf of Corinth). The large peninsula below Corinth is the Peloponnese. Neither label appears on this map, but you can see the shape clearly. Sparta is in the Southern Peloponnese region. This is the route Agis marched north with his young army to assist the Achaeans.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Three, Parts One through Three, p. 102-106. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

Agis was led to his death by men pretending to be his friends. When the moment came, he saw a sergeant weeping for him and said, "Good fellow, I pray thee weep not for me, for I am honestest man than they that so shamefully put me to death." (p. 106) He was twenty years old. What do you notice about that moment?

→ WRITE

When the ephor asked if Agis repented of what he had done, he answered that "he would never repent him of so wise and virtuous an enterprise, though he ventured his life for it." (p. 105-106) What do you think about that answer?

WEEK 4

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 16

Lesson Four, Parts One through Three, p. 109-111. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

Cleomenes married Agiatis against her will, yet "immediately after he was married unto her, fell greatly in fancy with her, and for compassion's sake he thanked her for the love she bore unto her first husband." (p. 109) What does that tell you about him?

→ WRITE

Plutarch says Cleomenes and Agis were alike in many ways, but that Cleomenes had "something of heat and passion always goading him on, and an impetuosity and violence in his eagerness to pursue anything which he thought good and just." (p. 109) Do you think that is a strength or a weakness? Explain your answer.

Find Arcadia, the highland region in the center of the peninsula. Find Argos to its east and Mantineia within it. This is the terrain Cleomenes is moving through in Lesson 5.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Five, Parts One through Four, p. 114-117 Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

Plutarch says that when Archidamus was murdered, Cleomenes and his friends "were most blamed, as having forced his consent." (p. 115) What do you think that means?

→ WRITE

After killing Lydiadas in battle, Cleomenes "caused it to be brought unto him, and putting a purple robe upon it, and a crown on his head, sent it in this array unto the very gates of the city of Megalopolis." (p. XX) What does that tell you about Cleomenes?

Find Sparta. Now find the surrounding region of Laconia. To the north is Arcadia, to the east is Argolis, to the west is Messenia. These are the regions Cleomenes must hold together as king.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Six, Parts One through Two, p. 119-122. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are a citizen of Sparta watching Cleomenes give his speech and then immediately give up all his own wealth before asking anyone else to. "Himself first, with his step-father, Megistonus, and his friends, gave up all their wealth into one public stock, and all the other citizens followed the example." (p. 120) What do you think about that?

→ WRITE

Cleomenes believed "there was no other difference betwixt a friend and a mercenary: but that the one is won with money, and the other with civility and good entertainment." (p. 122) Do you agree?

What happened in the last reading?

→LOCATE

Find Corinth at the top of the Peloponnese. Find Argos to its south. Find the Isthmus of Corinth (see Lesson 15). Cleomenes is moving across the northern Peloponnese, winning city after city, until the question of the Isthmus becomes the question of Greece.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Seven, Parts One through Two, p. 124-127. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

Plutarch pauses the story to say he writes about Aratus's failure "not out of any design to disgrace Aratus, for in many things he showed himself a true lover of Greece, and a great man; but to make us see the frailty and weakness of man's nature." (p. 126) He is telling you directly how to read what just happened. What does it mean when the biographer steps into the story and tells you what to think? Does it change how you receive it?

→ WRITE

You are a Greek citizen watching Aratus bring Antigonus and the Macedonians into the Peloponnese. Plutarch calls it "a practice far dishonest for a Grecian, very infamous for himself, but most dishonourable for the former noble acts he had done." (p. 126) What do you think about that?

Find Corinth, Sicyon, and Argos. Now trace south to Sparta. Cleomenes had made himself "master of all Peloponnesus, and now lost all again in as short a time." (p. 132)

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Eight, Parts One through Four, p. 129-133. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of the men retreating with Cleomenes when news arrives that his wife has died. Plutarch says "he gave not place unto his sorrow, neither did grief overcome his noble courage, but he used the selfsame voice, apparel, and countenance, that he did before." (p. 133) What do you think about that?

→ WRITE

You are in Argos when the city revolts against Cleomenes because he was "not releasing them from their debts as they expected." (p. 132) What do you think about that?

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas p. 7

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→ LOCATE

Find Megalopolis in Arcadia. Now find the middle prong of the peninsula between the Messenian Gulf and the Laconian Gulf. The tip of that prong, not labeled on this map, is Taenarus, where Cratesiclea boarded a ship for Egypt. Find Cythera, the small island just off that tip.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Nine, Parts One through Two, p. 135-138. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of the soldiers who watched Cleomenes take Megalopolis. He had "taken strict care that the city should not be plundered" before offering it back to its citizens. When they refused, he destroyed it. (p. 138) What do you think about what you witnessed?

→ WRITE

You are standing at the temple door watching Cratesiclea say goodbye to her son before boarding a ship for Egypt as a hostage. She tells him, "O King of Lacedaemon, let no man see for shame, when we come out of the temple, that we have wept and dishonoured Sparta. For that only is in our power, and for the rest, as it pleaseth the gods, so let it be." (p. 135) What do you think about what she chose to say?

★ TEACHER NOTE

"Ptolemy (#1)...promised him aid, but upon demand to have his mother and children in pledge."

in pledge: as hostages.

1. They were collateral: They were the price for ships and money.

2. They were high-ranking: Only the King's own mother and children were valuable enough to secure the alliance.

3. They were voluntary (in spirit): Cratesiclea views herself not as a victim, but as a Spartan citizen fulfilling a mission that is "profitable for Sparta."

WEEK 10

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 22

30m Plutarch: Grade 9 - Lesson 10 Agis and Cleomenes p. 138-143

→ RECAP

What happened in the last reading?

→ LOCATE

Find Argos and the territory around it, where Cleomenes marched twice to shame Antigonus into fighting or force him to lose face. Now find Sellasia, just north of Sparta. This is where the final battle took place, almost within sight of home.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Ten, Parts One through Three, p. 139-143. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are fighting beside Cleomenes at Sellasia when his brother's flank collapses. You hear him cry out, "Alas, good brother, thou art but slain, yet thou diest valiantly, and honestly, and thy death shall be a worthy example unto all posterity." (p. 142) He is still fighting when he says it. Why do you think Plutarch chose to record his exact words?

→ WRITE

You are one of the men who retreated with Cleomenes from Sellasia. You watched him walk back into Sparta, advise the citizens to yield, lean against a pillar to collect his thoughts, and then sail away. What do you think about the man you followed? (p. 143)

WEEK 11

Find the Peloponnesus (p. 10, Alexander's Empire). From the southeastern tip of that peninsula, trace a line southeast across the open Mediterranean Sea, passing just to the west of the island of Crete, until you reach Libya and Alexandria on the coast of Egypt. This is the voyage Cleomenes made after his final defeat at Sellasia. He left behind everything he knew to arrive at a foreign court in Alexandria to ask for help from a king who owed him nothing.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Eleven, Parts One through Three, p. 145-148. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

★ TEACHER NOTE

Therycion's speech and Cleomenes's reply are a genuine philosophical debate, not a simple case of one man being right and one wrong. Therycion is not a coward; he is making an argument about honor and the limits of hope. Cleomenes is not dismissing death; he is making an argument about the difference between dying with purpose and dying to escape. Let students sit with the difficulty of that before asking who they think is right.

is lost. Your home is occupied. Therycion turns to you, hand on his sword, and argues that living as a "fugitive" in Egypt is a fate worse than death. Cleomenes disagrees, calling suicide a "cowardly" escape from the hard work of hope. Discuss both sides of the argument. Do you think one of these men is correct? (p. 145-146)

→ WRITE

"King Ptolemy (#1), at his first coming, gave Cleomenes no special good, but indifferent entertainment. But when, upon trial, he found him a man of deep sense and great reason...conversation carried with it a noble and becoming grace...he was ashamed, and repented that he had neglected so great a man." (p. 146-147) Is firsthand experience the only way to judge a person's character? Does our character only count when we communicate it well to others?

WEEK 12

30m Plutarch/Government: Grade 9 (U.S.) - Lesson 24

Find Alexandria in Egypt. This is where the entire final lesson takes place.

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Twelve, Parts One through Three, p. 149-153. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of the thirteen Spartans. Why would you choose to "die like a man" in a foreign street rather than surrender and try to live? (p. 152) What did Cleomenes understand in this moment about the difference between giving someone liberty and that person being capable of being free? Can a person be given freedom if they are already commanded by their own love of ease and safety?

→ WRITE

Panteus was the last to die. Cleomenes had commanded him to check each fallen man and die last of all. He did exactly that: walked among his friends, tested each one, and then fell on Cleomenes and slew himself. Think about what it means to be given one last duty by someone you loved and to carry it out after they are already gone. What does faithfulness look like at the very end of everything?

★ TEACHER NOTE

This is the end of two lives, Agis's half of the story ended in Lesson Three. Now Cleomenes's ends here. Ask students to look back across both men before discussing: what did they share, where did they differ, and what does Plutarch seem to think each man's story teaches?

→ READ, NARRATE

Lesson Two, Part One through Part Two, p. 165-167. Once finished, ask, 'What do you remember?' + 'What else?' Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are a Roman soldier trapped in the mountains of Numantia. Your Consul has failed, and you are surrounded. The enemies refuse to speak to anyone but Tiberius Gracchus. How does it feel to have your life depend on the reputation of one young officer? (p. 165)

→ WRITE

You are a Numantine governor. You have just captured the Roman army's entire payroll and the young officer's records. Your people hate Rome. Why do you treat this specific young man like a guest of honor instead of a prisoner of war? (p. 166)

Examination

Term 1

- You have followed Caesar from his early campaigns through every battle, every crisis, every triumph, and into Rome at the end. You have watched him grab sailors, swim through fire, feed horses seaweed, pardon enemies, refuse bodyguards, and finally cover his face and stop when he saw Brutus. Looking at the whole of what you witnessed: what did this man actually want, and did he ever get it?
- You are a Roman citizen who lived through all of it. Caesar was on the wrong side as a young man, nearly drowned escaping, nearly starved at Pharsalus, made himself dictator for life, died in the Senate chamber, and was declared a god three days later. The city burned. The men who killed him were hunted to their deaths. Now it is quiet. Was Rome better or worse for having had him? Why?
- You are someone who admired Caesar deeply and also someone who could see clearly what he was becoming. Those two things were both true at the same time for most of the people closest to him. Think about a person in your own life, or a figure in history, or a character from a story, in whom you can see greatness and destructive behavior running alongside each other. What do you do with admiration that you cannot separate from concern?
