

Ethics

Part 3

About the Course

Students will explore characteristics shared by all Image-Bearers and learn how to guard against good servants becoming bad masters by continuing Charlotte Mason's text written directly to students. Students finish Book I of Ourselves by the end of the course.

This topic is included in the following course(s): Citizenship: Grade 9 (U.S.), Citizenship: Grade 9 (Canada)

Placement & Combining Tips

Ourselves by Charlotte Mason is scheduled over five years. In a multi-age context, students can jump into the book wherever the class is reading. Otherwise, students should begin the book in Part 1.

How To Approach

Prepare

Teachers may find it helpful to pre-read all or part of the selection from Plutarch studied and choose which news sites to offer students.

If you, the student, are learning at home, work to schedule a time when you can complete the lessons from Ourselves and Plutarch with your teacher, as these lessons are much richer when shared and discussed.

Recap

Connect back to the previous lesson. (Optional for Current Events).

Introduce

For news sources: Scan the headlines first to get an overview, and then choose a story to read.

For Citizenship books (optional): Use a picture, a map, or an engaging question to get yourselves interested in the lesson. If necessary, you may talk about one or two unfamiliar words that will be crucial to understanding. It is not necessary to cover all unfamiliar words.

Read

Read the selection assigned or the news story chosen. For rich, dense, or more challenging books such as Ourselves and Plutarch, it is a good idea to read them aloud. Have students keep an eye out for things to add to their Citizenship Notebook, Book of Centuries, and/or Commonplace book.

Narrate

Narrate orally or in writing.

Discuss

Share your thoughts on the story and any connections made. For current events, look up where events occurred on a map and ask questions together to discern the quality of the piece. (e.g., Are there sources cited? Is there an obvious bias? If so, what do other authors have to say on this subject? Are arguments supported by evidence? Is that evidence credible?) Consider reading an alternative perspective.

Citizenship Notebook

Record important ideas in your Citizenship Notebooks. Make a calendar of current events.
