About the Course

This course includes the following topic(s): Canadian History: Grades 9-10, World History: Grade 9, Ancient History: Grades 7-9

About Canadian History: Grades 9-10

Read about Canadian history from 1800-1900 through books that immerse students in the time period and allow them to see the world through the eyes of those who lived it. Through engaging narratives, biographies, history spines, primary source documents, oral histories, historical fiction, and books that show different perspectives, students come to see history as more than dates and events and develop relationships with people from the past. Viewing images, looking at maps, and working on one's Book of Centuries are also part of developing this relationship.

About Ancient History: Grades 7-9

Read about ancient history from 100 BC-350 AD through biographies, primary source documents, and history spines. Students will view images, reference maps, and update their Book of Centuries as part of the lessons.

About World History: Grade 9

Reading about the lives of people and events from the time period in many different parts of the world gives students a sense of the growing interconnectedness of the world at this time. A Little Book for New Historians in the third term casts a vision for what it means to think Christianly and historically as a student of history. It raises important questions of complexity, nuance, perspective, empathy, and humility as students enter the HS years.

Placement & Combining Tips

World History: Grade 9

All the books are appropriate for any HS student. If a HS student is new to the Alveary, especially consider assigning the third term book, A Little Book for New Historians, no matter their grade.

How To Approach

Recap

- Take a second to recall what you read previously in the same book or topic.
- If the previous passage is difficult to remember, try looking back at any chapter/section headings or illustrations or reading the first paragraph to jog the memory.

Read

- Read the selection assigned OR read for the number of minutes allocated, leaving time for narration and mapwork. Use whichever guide (i.e., pages or minutes) works best for you. You want to read enough to be interesting, but not so much that you feel overwhelmed.
- If a book is challenging for you as a student, try stopping to narrate to yourself silently for a minute every now and then to make sure you are tracking. You might also want to read aloud to yourself. Or you might want to listen to an audiobook version of the text and read along with it.
- If a book is an easy read, enjoy the ride!
- Keep an eye out for quotes to put in your commonplace book or events or characters to put down in your Book of Centuries.

Narrate

- Process and integrate your reading by narrating either orally or in writing. Some lesson plans will give you a suggestion of how best to narrate.
- To keep yourself on track, you might want to set a timer, so you stop reading with enough time to narrate.

Connect

- After your narration, think about how what you read connects to other subjects, other books, and other things you've read, watched, or seen in the past or present.
- Share any ideas that are particularly interesting to you with your fellow classmates, teachers, parents, friends, or others. You might even want to do a bit more reading or research on something on your own time in the afternoon or evenings.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to the student, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

Those educating at home might pick one or two history lessons to read aloud with their students to keep up the habit of oral narration and foster conversation and relationship, and then simply give students these lesson plans and the rest of the books and check in with them throughout the term for conversation, support, and accountability.

It is valuable for those in a classroom setting to also have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrated together. Classroom settings lend themselves well to additional discussion and sharing at the end of lessons, after everyone has narrated either together or independently in writing.

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m World History: Grade 9 - Lesson 1

Materials: A Little Book for New Historians

→ INTRO

History is more than just a study of the "past." The purpose of our first term reading of the book A Little Book of New Historians is to help you engage with the importance of not just knowing dates and places, but also engaging with what Robert Tracy McKenzie calls "the flesh and blood on the other side of the evidence."

As you read through Dr. McKenzie's history book, be on the lookout for interesting quotes or ideas that stand out to you, and be sure to mark whatever pages you find interesting. These are places you can return to and copy down in your notebook.

→ READ, NARRATE, & WRITE

Ch.1 p.11-18

Narrate silently to yourself. If this is a new practice for you, start by quietly talking aloud to yourself about what you just read in the chapter.

- In one paragraph, share your previous expectations of history as a subject and what the reading has challenged or changed.

WEEK 1 40m Canadian History: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 1

Materials: Underground Railroad

→ INTRO

How do historians make discoveries about the past? The first book we will read this year - The Underground Railroad: Next Stop, Toronto! - explores what Toronto was like for African Americans seeking freedom in a new life in Canada. One aspect that makes this book so fascinating is that the authors show how they are able to learn about this period of history: there are lots of old photographs and newspaper articles from historical archives, but there was also an archaeological dig in downtown Toronto in 2015 that revealed a lot about who lived in Toronto during this period and how they lived. When we think of archaeology, we often think of discovering ruins from thousands of years ago, but archaeology also has a lot to teach us about our more recent past!

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.1-13 "The colored people" - "to live with them in Canada."

- How was Toronto involved in the larger story of the abolitionist movement?
- What did you learn about the life of Deborah Brown?

WEEK 1 30m Ancient History: Grades 7-9 - Lesson 1

Meeting Sulla

Materials: A Short History of Ancient Rome, Historical Atlas of the World

→ INTRO

This year, you are learning about ancient Rome. We are not starting at the beginning with the legend of Romulus and Remus in 753 B.C. We are jumping ahead to 88 BC. The Roman Republic has become a world power. It has marched through the Greek world, razed cities like Carthage, and unseated powerful people. As Pascal Hughes says, "the march of Rome appears unstoppable."

However, what had once been a republic, which enabled certain people to vote in their leadership, was quickly becoming more of a dictatorship,

• STUDENT TIP

Be sure to add some people, events, and drawings of artifacts to your book of centuries. Mark potential items with a Post-it note as you read so you remember to find something when you sit down to work in your book.

• IMPORTANT DATES

which is where one person assumes absolute power. There were a number of factors that led to Sulla becoming the first dictator in the Roman Republic. He assumed power through political violence, manipulation of land and resources, and military coups. In 88 BC, the Republic found itself in danger.

Sulla's story doesn't start at the beginning of his dictatorship. As you read through Sulla's story, make sure to note any questions that come up from the reading. You can either discuss these questions with someone or write them down.

WEEK 1 📅 30m Canadian History: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 2

Sophie's Rebellion

📁 Materials: Sophie's Rebellion

→ RECAP

What do you remember from the last reading about the discontent and rebellions in Lower Canada (now Quebec)?

→ INTRO

Sophie's Rebellion is a fictional account of one American girl's experience of the 1837-1838 Rebellions, as she is caught up in the Battle of Beauharnois. Through Sophie's eyes, the reader is able to see multiple perspectives of this conflict and is introduced to a number of notable historical figures. The novel also provides an authentically detailed account of Upper and Lower Canada in the mid-nineteenth century.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.7-23 "The Rebellion of 1838" - "to have them."

- The book opens with a mysterious character named Luc. What do you know about him, and what questions do you still have?
- Who are the characters you meet as the novel opens? How are they related to each other? What are they like? What historical events have they been involved in, and where do their loyalties lie? You may choose to keep a character list with some notes.

→ VIEW

Look at the map below to see just how close Burlington, VT and Lake Champlain are to the Canadian border and Montreal.

WEEK 2 📅 30m World History: Grade 9 - Lesson 2

📁 Materials: A Little Book for New Historians

→ INTRO

So why should we care about the past? Why is it important that we know these people, places, and ideas that have gone before us? I invite you to think about these two questions for a moment before diving into the reading.

→ READ, NARRATE, & WRITE

Ch.2

Narrate quietly to yourself.

p.30-45 "Two couples who made a trip" - "people's homes for a living."

- What were some of the ways newly arrived refugees in Toronto received help?
- How are the photographs and images in this book helping you learn more about this time period? Have any of them especially stood out to you so far?

WEEK 3 30m Ancient History: Grades 7-9 - Lesson 3

Spartacus and a Revolt

📄 Materials: A Short History of Ancient Rome, Historical Atlas of the World

→ INTRO

Rome was built on slavery. In 73 BC, there were more than a million people enslaved in Rome's Italian lands. As Pascal Hughes says, "Some have been bought from foreign merchants, others taken by military conquest, or enslaved as a punishment for criminality. Then there are the unfortunates who were born into bondage, or who are the victims of kidnap by slavers, or who could see no other option in life than to sell themselves into servitude."

However, revolution came to Rome, and it was led by a slave named Spartacus. There are modern-day movies that praise the bravery of this man and those who rose up with him against the powers that shackled them. Spartacus' story is fraught with bravery and peril, yet it left him a legend in the history books. As you read through Spartacus' story, what sticks out to you? Make sure to note any questions that come up from the reading. You can either discuss these questions with someone or write them down.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.7 p.110-118 - stop at "Third Servile War"

Ch.3

Narrate silently.

- The following quote is from this week's reading. Dr. McKenzie writes, "I'm going to say something that may surprise you to hear a history professor say, but I also hope you'll find it freeing: by themselves, historical facts are not just mind numbing. They're meaningless. Wrench a historical fact from its context and it instantly becomes insignificant." Respond to this idea in two paragraphs. What do you think he means?

WEEK 5 30m Ancient History: Grades 7-9 - Lesson 5

Introducing Caesar

Materials: A Short History of Ancient Rome, Historical Atlas of the World

→ INTRO

Around the end of the 15th century, William Shakespeare wrote a tragedy titled Julius Caesar. The story of Julius Caesar captured audiences' attention then, and it remains prominent in our modern-day culture. The blood, betrayal, and scandal of the story is what has led to this story's permanence. But as you will read, there is more to this story. Julius Caesar becomes a famous leader for a number of reasons. As you read through the story retold by Pascal Hughes, consider the many reasons Julius Caesar's story might attract so much attention.

WEEK 9 30m Ancient History: Grades 7-9 - Lesson 9

Nero

Materials: A Short History of Ancient Rome, Historical Atlas of the World

→ INTRO

Emperor Nero is another famous ruler, but his notoriety comes from the evil that he did as Emperor of Rome. Nero was most known for his murder of anyone who opposed or threatened him. And as Jesus' popularity had increased and his teachings had spread, Nero picked out a new target for his ire: the Christians. Martyrdom under Nero would become infamously horrendous. It is from Nero's time that we have many stories of men and women who died for Christ.

WEEK 1 30m World History: Grade 9 - Lesson 13

Materials: Erebus

→ INTRO

What happens when nations find themselves with war vessels, but no wars? For 1800s Britain, the answer was to send its ships on exploration missions. The Erebus was just one of the ships that made the transition from military vessel to a vessel used for research and exploration. The captains and crew of the vessel changed over the many years it spent on the seas.

In Erebus, you will read a book about a legendary ship. However, there is another benefit to Michael Palin's book, which makes it a helpful read as well as an enjoyable one. Erebus does not just share the story of the ship itself, but of the world in which this ship sailed. As you read through Erebus, take note of the names being mentioned in each chapter.

I also invite you to adventure with the people on Erebus and on the HMS Terror. Pay attention to the letters and journals that are being mentioned and remember that these were real people who experienced a world very unlike our own. And yet, you'll also see a world that is very familiar too.

→ ANNOTATE

Erebus is a non-fiction book, which makes it a good candidate for annotation. While you are reading through the text, you may encounter an interesting point or main idea that you want to underline. You could put a question mark next to a statement you find unclear. You may place sticky notes on a page that you want to return to. Experiment with different ways to engage with the information in the book. Some students will record themselves reading or talking about the reading. Others may start a discussion with an acquaintance about the material. Try different ways and see what works and what doesn't work for you. You can discuss your findings with your teacher.

→ READ & NARRATE

Prologue-Ch.1 p.1-16

→ WRITE

Write two paragraphs about the world figures and the events that you've read about in chapter one of Erebus. Who has appeared in the chapter? Why are they important? What is the historical setting of the book?

Pre-Confederation Years

Materials: The Charlottetown Conference

→ INTRO

You may have heard of Canada's "Fathers of Confederation" and that Charlottetown, PEI, is sometimes called the "Birthplace of Confederation," but what really happened in the 1860s that led to Canada becoming a country? The next book we will read, The Charlottetown Conference and the Birth of Confederation, is a detailed account of the historical factors, issues, political players, and conferences that eventually led to Canada's Confederation in 1867. The book brings this historical period to life with numerous photographs, paintings, archival documents, and other primary sources, so be sure to spend some of your lesson time looking at the photos.

WEEK 1 30m Canadian History: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 26

Introduction - Vanished Beyond the Map

Materials: Vanished Beyond the Map

→ INTRO

Vanished Beyond the Map is an account of Adam Shoalts's quest to solve the mystery of what happened to Hubert Darrell, a long-forgotten explorer, trapper, guide, and mapmaker, who disappeared in the Arctic in 1910. Shoalts's narrative shows a historian at work: using archival research, historical documents, and interviews with elderly individuals who may have long-ago connections to Darrell's family, Shoalts pieces together Darrell's life and travels. But it is just as much a geographical story: Darrell immigrated from England to Manitoba, then journeyed to the Arctic following the Gold Rush. His life intersected with that of other great explorers, namely Roald Amundsen and Vilhjalmur Stefansson, and he travelled alone across vast distances in the Arctic.

WEEK 1 30m Ancient History: Grades 7-9 - Lesson 25

The Christian Revolution

Materials: The Witness of Early Christian Women: Mothers of the Church

→ INTRO

How revolutionary was Christianity in the Roman Empire? Jesus' teachings challenged a lot of different ideas that had come to be accepted as truths, such as the belief that women were inferior. Mike Aquilina writes, "Males were superior (a man would say) because women were inferior. It was obvious — so obvious that it hardly needed an argument. Fire is hot, water is wet, and women are inferior to men. This unquestioned and unquestionable truth was the basis of all human society."

So what happens when one of Christianity's most prolific writers challenges this idea in his letters? Think about Galatians 3:28, which reads, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus." Paul's words would have registered as an attack on Rome's family values. Paul promotes the idea that women have a place in society, a place in the Bible, and a place in the early church. As you read through this book, we encourage you to take note of anything that stands out, anything you agree with, and anything you disagree with.

Meeting Women in the Early Church

Materials: The Witness of Early Christian Women: Mothers of the Church

→ INTRO

At the beginning of this chapter, Mike Aquilina writes, "Jesus of Nazareth specialized in shocking the sensibilities of the religious establishment of his day. It was easy to do, because the establishment was easily shocked. Heal a blind man on the Sabbath, and you've turned the world upside down. But there was hardly anything more shocking than the way he treated women." WEEK 7 30m World History: Grade 9 - Lesson 31

Materials: Blood and Iron

→ INTRO

Two significant things happened in 1815. First was the Battle of Waterloo, where Napoleon was finally defeated. The second was the birth of a man named Otto Von Bismarck. Katja Hoyer writes, "His childhood, just like that of most Germans growing up at the time, was heavily coloured by stories of the struggle against the French." Otto Von Bismarck would become essential to the rise of the German Empire.

As you read through this account of Germany's history, make note of names and dates that seem important to you. Also, make note of any events that are happening alongside the events in Germany.

→ ANNOTATE

Blood and Iron is a non-fiction book, which makes it a good candidate for annotation. While you are reading through the text, you may encounter an interesting point or main idea that you want to underline. You could put a question mark next to a statement you find unclear. You may place sticky notes on a page that you want to return to. Experiment with different ways to engage with the information in the book. Some students will record themselves reading or talking about the reading. Others may start a discussion with an acquaintance about the material. Try different ways and see what works and what doesn't work for you. You can discuss your findings with your teacher.

WEEK 9 30m Ancient History: Grades 7-9 - Lesson 33

The Poets and Thinkers

Materials: The Witness of Early Christian Women: Mothers of the Church

→ INTRO

Mike Aquilina writes at the beginning of the chapter, "There were a few pagan women who earned fame as poets or philosophers, but they were very few. We can't say that women were commonly poets and philosophers among the Christians either, but the number seems to have been significantly higher." In the next section, you'll learn about St. Macrina, St. Marcella, St. Paula, St. Eustochium, and St. Monica. All of these women were poets and thinkers. As you read through it, what kind of questions do you have for these women?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Examination

Term 1

Ancient History: Grades 7-9

- From A Short History of Ancient Rome: How did the Roman Republic fall?
- From A Short History of Ancient Rome: Which of the emperors you read about had the most impact on Ancient Rome? Explain your answer with three examples of their accomplishments.

World History: Grade 9

- What have you learned from A Little Book for New Historians? What stood out that you want to remember? What questions do you have about the topic? Why is the topic important? What difference does it make in how we think about history?

Canadian History: Grades 9-10

- The Underground Railroad: Describe some of the ways historians have been able to learn about what life was like for freedom seekers who settled in Toronto. Include some specific details if possible. OR Tell all you know about one of the individuals or families you learned about from this book.
- Sophie's Rebellion: The novel features French Canadian, British, American, and English Canadian characters. Describe the attitudes and interactions of some of these groups towards each other, as depicted in the novel. OR Write a letter from Sophie to her father, describing all that happened in Beauharnois.

Term 2

Ancient History: Grades 7-9

- From A Short History of Ancient Rome: How did conquered nations react to Rome? Use examples from the reading.
- From A Short History of Ancient Rome: What led to the decline of the Roman Empire?

World History: Grade 9

- Erebus: Life on exploration was never easy. Yet, many people chose to pursue lives of exploration. What were the many reasons for people to pursue this lifestyle? Use examples from different characters to support your answer.
- Erebus: Choose one person from the narrative who fascinated you and summarize his or her story.

Canadian History: Grades 9-10

- The Charlottetown Conference: Describe how the Charlottetown Conference and the meetings that came after led to the founding of Canada in 1867. OR Choose one prominent figure you learned about who attended the Charlottetown Conference, and explain why their contribution to Canada's history was important.
- Vanished Beyond the Map: Imagine you are Hubert Darrell, packing for a journey, and can only take what you can pull on a sled. What do you pack? OR What does what you have learned about Darrell so far tell you about some of the challenges facing those who immigrated to the Canadian prairies in the late nineteenth century?

Term 3

Ancient History: Grades 7-9

- The Witness of Early Christian Women: Choose a woman in the New Testament and explain how she benefited the church and how she maneuvered through a culture that devalued her.
- The Witness of Early Christian Women: Choose a woman from either the martyrs and heroines or poets and thinkers section and summarize her story.

World History: Grade 9

- Blood and Iron: What were the events leading up to the establishment of the German Empire?
- Blood and Iron: Summarize Bismarck's Reich (1871-1888).

Canadian History: Grades 9-10

- Red Wolf: Write several paragraphs about how this story affected you. What will you take with you from reading it? Also, ponder the question: How does the messenger affect the sharing of the truths of the Gospel? Write a paragraph sharing your thoughts.
- Vanished Beyond the Map: Explain why explorers like Darrell, Hanbury, and Amundsen could successfully survive in the Arctic climate while others before them (like the Franklin Expedition) failed.
