☐ For Term 1, read the translator's Preface (p.I-XXIII) to Celebrated Cases of Judge Dee and the Introduction (p.3-21) to Scarlet Letter to have enough context for the story to engage in discussion with your student(s) even if you are not able to read the full books. Reading Like a

Serpent (linked in Extra Helpings) is also an excellent resource for students and teachers wishing to dive deeper into The Scarlet Letter.

□ A Tale of Two Cities (Term 3) is a long novel, and to allow students to digest, write narrations, and enjoy the story, only about half of it is scheduled over the term. If you wish students to finish it, consider starting the book in Term 2 after the Gulliver's Travels lessons OR allowing students to read the book on their own time if interested (during or after the end of the term).

How To Approach

Read

The lesson plans will guide you through what to read over the terms. Take a moment before reading to remember where you left off last time.

Narrate

The lesson plans will give you specific instructions or tell you to choose a way to narrate that helps you interact with the ideas.

Discuss

The lesson plans will guide you with questions or instructions to share your ideas or what you are reading with others.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to students, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are occasionally added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

It is also valuable for those in a classroom setting to have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrate together. Literature lessons lend themselves well to a larger discussion time at the end of the lesson where student can share their ideas.
