

Ancient History

About the Course

Drawing on material culture, primary sources, and wider overviews, this course delves into the time period from 100 BC to 350 AD.

This topic is included in the following course(s): History: Grades 10-12 (U.S.), History: Grade 10 (Canada), History: Grades 11-12 (Canada)

Placement & Combining Tips

Inquisitive 9th graders could enjoy this course, but the main texts have an advanced reading level, so students would likely want to move at a slower pace.

Ancient History: Grades 10-12

How To Approach

Recap

- Take a second to recall what you read previously in the same book or topic.
- If the previous passage is difficult to remember, try looking back at any chapter/section headings or illustrations or reading the first paragraph to jog the memory.

Read

- Read the selection assigned OR read for the number of minutes allocated, leaving time for narration and mapwork. Use whichever guide (i.e., pages or minutes) works best for you. You want to read enough to be interesting, but not so much that you feel overwhelmed.
- If a book is challenging for you as a student, try stopping to narrate to yourself silently for a minute every now and then to make sure you are tracking. You might also want to read aloud to yourself. Or you might want to listen to an audiobook version of the text and read along with it.
- If a book is an easy read, enjoy the ride!
- Keep an eye out for quotes to put in your commonplace book or events or characters to put down in your Book of Centuries.

Narrate

- Process and integrate your reading by narrating either orally or in writing. Some lesson plans will give you a suggestion of how best to narrate.
- To keep yourself on track, you might want to set a timer, so you stop reading with enough time to narrate.

Connect

- After your narration, think about how what you read connects to other subjects, other books, and other things you've read, watched, or seen in the past or present.
- Share any ideas that are particularly interesting to you with your fellow classmates, teachers, parents, friends, or others. You might even want to do a bit more reading or research on something on your own time in the afternoon or evenings.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to the student, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

Those educating at home might pick one or two history lessons to read aloud with their students to keep up the habit of oral narration and foster conversation and relationship, and then simply give students these lesson plans and the rest of the books and check in with them throughout the term for conversation, support, and accountability.

It is valuable for those in a classroom setting to also have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrated together. Classroom settings lend themselves well to additional discussion and sharing at the end of lessons, after everyone has narrated either together or independently in writing.

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m Ancient History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 1

Welcome to the Empire

Materials: Ancient Empires

→ INTRO

What comes to your mind when you hear the word "empire?" Historians disagree on many things including times and dates, translations, and terminology. One of the terms that is debated is the word "empire" and its meaning. As you read through the introduction to Ancient Empires, what definition do you agree with? Why do you agree with it? You're invited to answer these questions aloud or write them down.

→ ANNOTATE

Ancient Empires is a non-fiction book which makes it a good candidate for annotation. While you are reading through the text you may encounter an interesting point or main idea that you want to underline. You could put a question mark next to a statement you find unclear. You may place sticky notes on a page that you want to return too. Experiment with different ways to engage with the information in the book. Some students will record themselves reading or talking about the reading. Others may start a discussion with an acquaintance about the material. Try different ways and see what works and what doesn't work for you. You can discuss your findings with your teacher.

→ READ & NARRATE

Introduction: "What is an (Ancient) Empire?" p.1-9

If you have already read this resource, just review the Introduction section assigned here.

→ WRITE

Explain the IEMP model and its importance in 1-2 paragraphs.

• STUDENT TIP

Be sure to add some people, events, and drawings of artifacts to your Book of Centuries. Mark potential items with a Post-it note as you read so you remember where to find something when you sit down to work in your book.

WEEK 1 40m Ancient History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 2

The Late Republic

Materials: Ancient Empires

→ INTRO

Rome had been founded in 753 BC and it became a Republic in 509 BC. The Roman Republic had been involved in many wars. The most famous of these wars are known as the three Punic Wars. The Third Punic War was fought around 149-146 BC. During the Third Punic War, Rome would clash with a sovereign territory known as Carthage and ultimately would raze it to the ground. Rome would kill most of its male inhabitants and sell its women and children into slavery. With the defeat of Carthage, it would seem that Roman power was complete as no other nation could stand in the way of its expansion.

However, the Roman Republic had internal issues. Its political and military leaders were corrupt and despite its incredible growth, the Republic found itself in trouble. These political and military leaders were grasping for more power afforded them by their Republic governmental system. There were also internal struggles from people groups who still hadn't adapted to life under their new conquerors.

→ READ & NARRATE

Ancient History: Grades 10-12

Examination

Term 1

- In what ways does the Roman Republic remind you of your own country? In what ways is it different?
- The Aeneid: Describe the character of Aeneas. What do you think are his defining traits? Give a few concrete examples of where you see them in the Aeneid.
- Draw two pieces of art that you remember seeing this term. Briefly say what they are and describe them. What do you think they say about the cultures that they were a part of?
- Ancient Empires: What does the IEMP model use for an approach to studying Ancient History?

Term 2

- Based on your readings in Ancient Empires this term, how do you think that the Roman Empire was able to hold together such a large group of people? How was the empire different from other empires you have studied, or from the Roman Republic that preceded it?
- Choose one:
 - In book six of the Aeneid, Vergil describes Aeneas' journey into the underworld. How does he describe the underworld? What does it tell you about the Roman view of the afterlife and how is that description similar or different from your beliefs about life after death?
 - Draw two pieces of art that you remember seeing this term. Briefly say what they are and describe them. What do you think they say about the cultures that they were a part of?
 - Early Christian Writings & "Martyrdom of Ignatius" online resource: Compare the martyrdom stories that you read of Polycarp and Ignatius of Antioch. What do they have in common? How are they different? What character traits do both men share?

Term 3

- Choose one:
 - The most common adjective that Vergil uses to describe Aeneas is "pious." Is this the adjective you would have used to describe his character? From the books of the Aeneid you have read, tell what ways this piety is exemplified and why you think this was important to Vergil.
 - Early Christian Writings: Based on the writings of the early church fathers that you have read this term, what were some of the primary concerns of the early church? What are the most common themes? Are the concerns of the early church the same as or different than the concerns of the Christian church today?
 - Describe some of the accusations that the Romans made against the early Christians and how they are clarified or refuted by the apologist Justin Martyr.
 - Ancient Empires: How did Diocletian and Constantine help to resolve the crises of the 3rd century? What role did Christianity play in both creating and resolving some of the problems in the late Roman Empire?
