

New Testament

About the Course

Each year, students in Grades 3-6 read one of the gospels. For 2026-2027 they read John. Lesson plans include map work and assigned selections of The New Manners and Customs of Bible Times for teachers to read with their students before or after Bible reading to help give context and insight into the culture and geography of Israel during Jesus' life.

This topic is included in the following course(s): Bible: Grade 3, Bible: Grades 4-6

Placement & Combining Tips

Suitable for older students if combining lessons, and ideal for older students just getting familiar with the Bible.

New Testament: Grades 3-6

How To Teach

Recap

- Connect to previous lessons by asking students to recall where they left off.
- If students have difficulty recalling, teachers might try showing them a picture from the reading, sharing something the teacher remembers, or prompting them with the first sentence of the last reading. This will often refresh their memory enough to allow them to recall.
- If students still cannot recall anything from the last reading, teachers might consider continuing anyway (with a shorter reading this time) or repeating the previous lesson, depending on the reading and the nature of the book.

Read

- Read the chapter or selection aloud. When reading to pre-readers, point to the words as you read, even if it seems they aren't paying attention.
- Move at the students' pace during the lesson, rather than feeling that a particular number of pages must be completed. It is vitally important that teachers not overload students with more material than they can absorb in one sitting.
- Students who have difficulty sitting still or listening may benefit from a fidget of their choice, such as a piece of putty or clay or an afghan; flexible positioning, such as a wobble seat or inverted sitting; or sensory modulation, such as a weighted vest or blanket or adjustment of light, temperature, or sound.
- Students with regular difficulty engaging often benefit from having a picture to associate with the story WHILE listening. Feel free to view the artwork during the reading rather than after the narration.

Narrate

- Have students retell the passage orally.
- Alternatively, learners may use words, pictures, Legos, dolls, etc., to process and convey ideas in the manner most natural to them.
- Teachers may take turns to model.
- Narration is a complex skill requiring the coordination of several parts of the brain. If a student struggles to narrate in general, with a specific subject or book, or on one day but not others, then this is an opportunity to learn. Observe when they struggle with this or any other activity today. Notice facial expressions and body language; listen to what they say about why it is hard or how they feel about it. Take note of these observations for later, tell them that you see how hard they are working, and then offer whatever support they need to end on a positive note. If necessary, take a break for the day.

View

- Optional: Share a piece of fine art that illustrates the story.

Discuss

- Give students an opportunity to share their thoughts on the lesson and any connections made.

WEEK 1 20m New Testament: Grades 3-6 - Lesson 1

Intro to the Gospel of John

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible; Notebook

PREP:

Teachers may wish to view the Bible Project video on the first half of John in preparation for teaching and may optionally choose to show this to their students as well.

∞ Video Link: Bible Project: John (Covers first half of book)

→ INTRO

For our New Testament reading this year, we will be looking at the fourth Gospel in the New Testament which is named John as it is named after the man who wrote it. While the book talks about John the Baptist right at the beginning, this is not the same John - instead, this is the disciple John who ministered alongside Jesus.

Think about the other books of the New Testament (or look in the table of contents of your Bible), are there any other books that look as though they were written by John? (1st, 2nd, and 3rd John.) He also wrote the book of Revelation.

The book of John was written somewhere between 85-95 A.D., which makes it the last of the four gospels written and he includes some details the others left out and skips over some events that the other three gospel writers included. He writes to both Jews and Gentiles. (A Gentile is anyone who is not Jewish.)

→ READ & NARRATE

Today we will look at a few verses to set a foundation for our reading this year.

We do not have to guess why John wanted to write his gospel, because he states that reasoning very clearly in his gospel.

Read John 20:30-31

•Why does John say he wrote his gospel?

Read John 13:23, 20:2; 21:7, 20

•How does John (the author) refer to himself?

→ NOTEBOOK

As you read through the book of John, you will keep a notebook. Today, you will begin this notebook by making a title page.

On your title page, write the name of the book, the author, and the approximate date the book was written, 85-95 A.D. On your title page, copy down John 20:31, the verse stating the purpose of the book. (Students may write as little or as much as time and ability allow. You could also time to complete this task in lesson 2, if needed.)

WEEK 1 20m New Testament: Grades 3-6 - Lesson 2

The Word Was God

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible; notebook (optional)

NOTE: Today's lesson has a video that is a helpful explanation of the opening of John's gospel. Although some of the concepts may be a bit intricate for younger students, the overall look at this passage gives helpful context to John's opening words.

Baptist as the other three gospels do, John begins his gospel with showing that Jesus is the Son of God, and is 100% God and 100% human.

→ READ & NARRATE

John 1:1-13

- The book of John starts with "In the beginning." Can you think of another verse in the Bible that uses that exact phrase? (Genesis 1:1).
- John the Baptist is mentioned in vs. 6-8. What is John the Baptist's role (job) according to the author, the Apostle John? (To bring witness to the light.) Who is the light? (Jesus)

If additional time was needed to copy down verse 20:31, you may complete that today.

- For younger students: Begin with the fourth paragraph "Not only did the Word..."-end
- Older students: Read the entire answer starting with "In John 1:14"

Younger students may draw a picture of what we have read so far in John, or write a short summary. Older students may write a longer summary, or write down what they have learned about Jesus dwelling or being "tabernacled" among us.

Behold!

📖 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible; notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

→ INTRO

The next verses continue speaking about John the Baptist and his testimony regarding his baptizing of Jesus. He testifies to Jesus, and the people who hear him begin following Jesus. As the Bible Project states, "One by one as people encounter Jesus, they say out loud who they think he is. In this one chapter, Jesus is given seven titles: the Lamb of God, Son of God, Rabbi, Messiah, King of Israel, Jesus of Nazareth, and the Son of Man."

Throughout John, there are lists of sevens. Seven signs, seven "I Am" statements and seven titles given to Jesus in this first chapter. Today we will read the first of the seven titles people give when they see Jesus, in our next reading, we will read the rest of these titles. These seven titles claim Jesus as the Messiah and Savior of the world.

Secondly, we see Jesus call his first two disciples. In New Testament times it was not unusual for Rabbis - or Teachers - to have disciples who would follow and learn from these teachers.

→ READ & NARRATE

John 1:28-39

- As Simon Peter and Andrew did, what would it be like to drop everything and begin following Jesus as his disciple?

→ NOTEBOOK

Younger students, draw a picture either of John the Baptist speaking about Jesus OR of Simon Peter and Andrew following after Jesus. Older students may write a summary, or begin a list of the seven names given to Jesus in this chapter. (The three from today's reading would be: Lamb of God, Rabbi (Teacher) and Messiah (Christ).) Write the name and the verse reference where the title is found.

Younger students may add on to the picture of Simon Peter and Andrew following Jesus by adding Philip and Nathanael OR they may write a short summary of the passage. Older students, continue your list of titles or names Jesus is given by those who behold him. Include the reference where each title is found. (The titles would be: Jesus of Nazareth, Son of God, King of Israel, Son of Man.)

Wedding at Cana

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible

→ RECAP

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

→ INTRO

Today we will read about the first sign that John includes in his gospel to help show who Jesus is. Another word for sign is a miracle. In John's purpose statement for his gospel, he stated that Jesus did many signs during his ministry on earth, but that he included some so that people would believe Jesus was the Messiah. Let's look at his purpose statement again: John 20:30-31 states, "Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name." What does John say about how many signs Jesus did? (There were many; he included only some.) What is John's purpose in including these signs? (So people may believe he is the Messiah, the Son of God)
