|----------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| Dos cabras orgullosas se encontraron   | Two proud goats met                  |
| por casualidad en acantilados opuestos | by chance on cliffs opposite         |
| de una alta cordillera.                | of a high mountain range.            |
| Por debajo, entre las rocas del valle, | Below, among the rocks of the valley |

Story Lines - Set 22

|                                       |                                                |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| pasaba un río turbulento y peligroso. | flowed a turbulent and dangerous river. |
| El único puente para cruzar           | The only bridge for crossing            |
| el abismo era un árbol caído,         | the abyss was a fallen tree,            |
| tan estrecho que dos ratones          | so narrow that two mice                 |

Story Lines - Set 23

|                                                |                                                     |
|------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| se habrían asustado si hubieran intentado      | would have been frightened if they had tried |
| cruzarlo al mismo tiempo.                      | to cross it at the same time.                |
| Ambas cabras, testarudas,                      | Both goats, stubborn,                        |
| se sintieron con el derecho de cruzar primero. | felt the right to cross first.               |

Story Lines - Set 24

|                                             |                                             |
|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| Así que, poniendo una pezuña a la vez,      | So, putting a hoof at a time,        |
| empezaron a caminar sobre el delgado tronco | they began to walk on the thin trunk |
| hasta que se encontraron frente a frente    | until they met face to face          |
| en medio del puente.                        | in the middle of the bridge.         |

|                                  |                                             |
|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| Ninguna quiso ceder el paso,     | Neither of them wanted to give way,  |
| y al final, ambas cayeron        | and in the end, both fell            |
| de cabeza a las rugientes aguas. | headfirst into the roaring waters.   |
| Es mejor ceder que caer          | It is better to give in than to fall |
| en la desgracia por terquedad.   | into misfortune out of stubbornness. |

Story Lines - Set 26

|                                               |                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Un lobo encontró a un cordero                 | A wolf found a lamb                           |
| que se había extraviado del rebaño            | that had strayed from the flock               |
| sintió cierta reticencia sobre quitar la vida | he felt a certain reluctance to take the life |
| a una criatura tan indefensa                  | of such a defenseless creature                |

Story Lines - Set 27

|                                               |                                                        |
|-----------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| sin alguna excusa plausible.                  | without any plausible excuse.                   |
| Entonces le dijo:                             | So he said to him:                              |
| -¿Recuerdas cómo me insultaste el año pasado? | -Do you remember how you insulted me last year? |
| El cordero replicó:                           | The lamb replied:                               |

Story Lines - Set 28

|                                                                                    |                                                                                      |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| -Disculpe, pero eso no es posible porque el año pasado yo todavía no había nacido. | -Excuse me, but that's not possible because last year I hadn't been born yet. |
| -Bueno-objetó el lobo-,te alimentas en mis pastizales.                         | "Well," objected the wolf,"You feed in my pastures."                     |
| -Eso no puede ser-respondió el cordero-,                                           | "That can't be," replied the lamb,                                            |

Story Lines - Set 29

|                                                                                                          |                                                                                                       |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| porque nunca he probado la hierba.                                                                       | "because I've never tried grass."                                                              |
| -Entonces bebes de mi manantial-continuó el lobo.                                                        | "Then you drink from my spring," continued the wolf.                                           |
| -De hecho, señor-dijo el pobre cordero-,hasta el día de hoy,solo he bebido la leche de mi madre. | "In fact, sir," said the poor lamb,"To this day,I have only drank my mother's milk." |

|                                                                     |                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| -Bueno, de todos modos-dijo el lobo-,no me quedará sin mi cena. | "Well, anyway," said the wolf,"I won't go without my dinner." |
| Se lanzó sobre el corderoy lo devoró enseguida.                 | He pounced on the lamband devoured him right away.            |
| Las palabras engañosas fácilmente salen a la luz.                   | Deceptive words easily come to light.                              |
