First Citizen Stories
Community Read Alouds

About the Course

This course includes the following topic(s): First Citizen Stories, Community Read Alouds: Grades 1-12

About First Citizen Stories

Students will read engaging and accessible stories from Roman history that introduce big ideas about what it means to be a citizen. This provides a foundation for further study in Plutarch.

About Community Read Alouds: Grades 1-12

This is meant to be a read-aloud for all ages to enjoy together in the afternoon at least 1 time a week. We encourage you to choose a book that is specific to your region. However, we will offer some suggestions in the Grades 1-3 Literature lessons and Grades 4+ Citizenship lessons. The suggested book titles will be available June 1st in the lesson plans.

Placement & Combining Tips

First Citizen Stories

Sensitive students may wait a year to begin Citizen Stories. (The book used in this course contains some violent scenes.)

Responsibility for previewing all links rests with the teacher. All links were checked at the time of publication; however, websites change frequently and may contain objectionable content. Please report broken links by contacting us through our website.

First Citizen Stories

☐ You may want to preread stories so that you are familiar with the pronunciation of the names, and you may also want to preview the content for sensitive students.

☐ As desired, plan for a read-aloud time. Suggestions are provided in the Community Read Aloud Quick Link, but local favorites are highly recommended whenever possible.

How To Teach

Prepare

Read through the lesson and gather any materials or find any necessary links. If you have not already read the book, you may want to read the selected pages in advance.

Recap

Connect back to the previous lesson. Ask students to give a summary of what they remember. (Full narration is not necessary.)

Introduce

Use a picture, a map, or an engaging question to pique the student's interest in the day's lesson. If necessary, you may talk about one or two unfamiliar words that will be crucial to understanding.

Read

Read the day's passage out loud or have the student read independently.

Narrate

Have students retell the passage either orally or in writing.

Discuss

Give the student an opportunity to share thoughts on the lesson and any connections made. You could ask them what they thought about the passage or ask an open-ended question.

Connect

Optional: Add to the Citizenship Notebook, Century Chart, and/or Book of Centuries.
