About the Course

This course includes the following topic(s): Canadian History: Grades 9-10, World History: Grades 10-12, Ancient History: Grades 10-12

About Canadian History: Grades 9-10

Read about Canadian history from 1800-1900 through books that immerse students in the time period and allow them to see the world through the eyes of those who lived it. Through engaging narratives, biographies, history spines, primary source documents, oral histories, historical fiction, and books that show different perspectives, students come to see history as more than dates and events and develop relationships with people from the past. Viewing images, looking at maps, and working on one's Book of Centuries are also part of developing this relationship.

About World History: Grades 10-12

Read about world history from 1800-1900. View images and reference atlases and maps to set the people and events in their time and place. Update History Charts and Book of Centuries.

About Ancient History: Grades 10-12

Drawing on material culture, primary sources, and wider overviews, this course delves into the time period from 100 BC to 350 AD.

Placement & Combining Tips

Ancient History: Grades 10-12

Inquisitive 9th graders could enjoy this course, but the main texts have an advanced reading level, so students would likely want to move at a slower pace.

How To Approach

Recap

- Take a second to recall what you read previously in the same book or topic.
- If the previous passage is difficult to remember, try looking back at any chapter/section headings or illustrations or reading the first paragraph to jog the memory.

Read

- Read the selection assigned OR read for the number of minutes allocated, leaving time for narration and mapwork. Use whichever guide (i.e., pages or minutes) works best for you. You want to read enough to be interesting, but not so much that you feel overwhelmed.
- If a book is challenging for you as a student, try stopping to narrate to yourself silently for a minute every now and then to make sure you are tracking. You might also want to read aloud to yourself. Or you might want to listen to an audiobook version of the text and read along with it.
- If a book is an easy read, enjoy the ride!
- Keep an eye out for quotes to put in your commonplace book or events or characters to put down in your Book of Centuries.

Narrate

- Process and integrate your reading by narrating either orally or in writing. Some lesson plans will give you a suggestion of how best to narrate.
- To keep yourself on track, you might want to set a timer, so you stop reading with enough time to narrate.

Connect

- After your narration, think about how what you read connects to other subjects, other books, and other things you've read, watched, or seen in the past or present.
- Share any ideas that are particularly interesting to you with your fellow classmates, teachers, parents, friends, or others. You might even want to do a bit more reading or research on something on your own time in the afternoon or evenings.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to the student, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

Those educating at home might pick one or two history lessons to read aloud with their students to keep up the habit of oral narration and foster conversation and relationship, and then simply give students these lesson plans and the rest of the books and check in with them throughout the term for conversation, support, and accountability.

It is valuable for those in a classroom setting to also have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrated together. Classroom settings lend themselves well to additional discussion and sharing at the end of lessons, after everyone has narrated either together or independently in writing.

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m World History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 1

Materials: When America First Met China

→ INTRO

One of the most important actions taken when creating a new nation is establishing trade with other countries. As a newly founded nation, that is exactly what the United States of America set out to do. The United States traded for things like silk, gold and tea while other nations traded for everything from sea otter and seal pelts, to sandalwood, to opium, to cotton, and tortoiseshell. As the United States navigated new waters--both literally and figuratively--they would come into contact with a mighty trade nation that had a lot to offer them including the ever-important tea. However, China had it's own rules and regulations as well as it's own system of justice that was very different to the United States.

As you read through the chapter, I invite you to ponder what it must have been like to navigate these new waters and to meet new peoples whose way of life was so different from yours? What are the things you see in the text that surprise you? What things challenged your way of thinking? You will reflect on these questions after the reading.

→ ANNOTATE

When America First Met China is a non-fiction book which makes it a good candidate for annotation. While you are reading through the text you may encounter an interesting point or main idea that you want to underline. You could put a question mark next to a statement you find unclear. You may place sticky notes on a page that you want to return too. Experiment with different ways to engage with the information in the book. Some students will record themselves reading or talking about the reading. Others may start a discussion with an acquaintance about the material. Try different ways and see what works and what doesn't work for you. You can discuss your findings with your teacher.

→ READ & NARRATE

Ch.6 p.146-160 - Stop at "exotic name 'bêche-de-mer',"

→ MAP WORK

Familiarize yourself with the map at the beginning of When America First Met China.

→ WRITE

Answer the following questions in 3 paragraphs: What are the things you see in the text that surprise you? What things challenged your way of thinking? What things made you uncomfortable and why?

WEEK 1 40m Canadian History: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 1

WEEK 1 30m Ancient History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 1

Welcome to the Empire

Materials: Ancient Empires

→ INTRO

What comes to your mind when you hear the word "empire?" Historians disagree on many things including times and dates, translations, and terminology. One of the terms that is debated is the word "empire" and its meaning. As you read through the introduction to Ancient Empires, what definition do you agree with? Why do you agree with it? You're invited to answer these questions aloud or write them down.

→ READ

Introduction: "What is an (Ancient) Empire?" p.1-9

★ STUDENT TIP

Use sticky notes to mark/note significant people, events, artifacts, etc. while reading to help you remember to put them in your Book of Centuries.

Term 1

If you have already read this resource, just review the Introduction section assigned here.

→ NARRATE

Narrate silently.

→ WRITE

Explain the IEMP model and it's importance in reading ancient history in 1-2 paragraphs.

WEEK 1 30m Canadian History: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 2

WEEK 1 40m Ancient History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 2

Materials: Ancient Empires

→ INTRO

Welcome to the Roman Empire! An empire that quickly expanded its territory for a number of reasons. But with more land, came more problems. As it invaded and absorbed other territories into its republic, there were as Plutarch writes, "an extraordinary diversity of habits and modes of living" and this could be a benefit and a curse.

→ READ

p. 210-217 start at "The Late Republic" and end at "Resulting shifts in the exercise"

→ NARRATE

Narrate silently.

→ WRITE

Summarize what you've read in two paragraphs.

• NOTE

An optional reading, Rubicon, is an engaging narrative covering this term's timeframe and topic. It does contain more mature themes at times and has some sensitive content. Please discuss with your parent if you choose to read this on your own.

WEEK 2 30m World History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 2

Materials: When America First Met China

→ INTRO

One of the ways we connect with history is through primary sources. A primary source is any first hand account history. These sources can be a journal, a map, a song, a picture and much more. A good historian will always rely heavily on primary sources when they are researching or writing history. Eric Jay Dolin has also relied heavily on these primary sources. As you through the next section, pay attention to the documents Eric Jay Dolin is mentioning. You will reflect on these primary sources after the reading.

For more about a primary source and secondary source, view the video provided in the extra helpings.

→ ANNOTATE

Don't forget to annotate as you read.

→ READ & NARRATE

Ch.6 p.161-176 - Start at "Bêche-De-Mer," stop at "select promising opportunities."

→ WRITE

Answer the following questions in two paragraphs: What are the primary sources Eric Jay Dolin is using to support his story telling? Why might these be good or bad primary sources to rely on?

Materials: When America First Met China

→ INTRO

In this chapter you will encounter a woman named Harriet Low who has recounted many of her adventures in journals. Harriet Low talked much about her time in an area of China that was a forbidden to women and her journals are insightful to anyone interested in history. Her journals are a primary source.

Throughout the coming chapters, Eric Jay Dolin will rely heavily upon primary sources to help his story telling, while keeping it factual and correct. As you read through the next section, pay attention to the documents Eric Jay Dolin is mentioning.

→ ANNOTATE

Don't forget to annotate as you read.

→ READ & NARRATE

Ch.6 p.176-192 - Start at "The American Community" to the end of the chapter

WEEK 4 30m World History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 4

Materials: When America First Met China

→ INTRO

In Chapter 7, Eric Jay Dolin will explore China through American eyes. Specifically, he will explore how the nation came to be perceived as one with rampant property, horrible treatment of women, odd food and drink, and a violent government system that killed innocents. But where any of these things rooted in truth? Or just the ramblings of one people group encountering another nation with foreign eyes? It really didn't matter in the end. These people's writings influenced the perception of the nation of China.

London realized that there was an opportunity to make money in the spice trade." The British East India Company would exist for over 200 years and ended up becoming one of the largest monopolies on trade. Additionally, it was known for having it's own armies. The army at time reached 260,000 soldiers strong. The British government began to see the company for the threat it was and eliminated it's monopoly in 1833. From then on trade would look very different. The parliament would appoint people into government positions and these men would be faced with many challenges as they sought to build ties with China amid a growing conflict. How long do you wait for your packages? Perhaps if you and your family have fast shipping you'll only have to wait one or two days for your order to arrive at the doorstep. In the 1800s, it would take weeks for one ship to get to the other side of the world and pick up the items and then weeks to return. So, as one can imagine, there was a need to be the fastest ship out there in order to get the items back home

WEEK 9 30m World History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 9

Materials: When America First Met China

→ INTRO

One of the horrible parts about reading through history is coming face-to-face with the reality of sinful humanity. John Fea writes, "Indeed, anyone who studies the past realizes that there are no heroes in history. While people may perform heroic acts, all humans are tainted by sin and are susceptible to acting in ways that preference themselves over others and God. Historians understand, perhaps better than most, the reality of the pain, suffering, injustice, anger, and vice brought on by sin. In other words, they understand the tragic dimensions of life."

Exploitation is just one of the many injustices taking place in the 1800s. As you read through the chapter, you are allowed to feel heartbroken, angry and disappointed at the treatment of those who are also made in God's image. Both are belief in Christ and in the depravity of humanity can help us better navigate history. As John Fea writes, "Similarly, a belief in depravity helps us to better explain the human condition—the restlessness, the search for meaning, and the prideful ambition that has defined much of the past, especially in the modern era. Augustine was quite correct when he opened his Confessions with the famous words, "Our hearts are restless until they rest in you."

Term 2

WEEK 1 30m World History: Grades 10-12 - Lesson 13

Materials: Erebus

→ INTRO

What happens when nations finds themselves with war vessels, but no wars? For 1800s Britain, the answer was to send its ships on exploration missions. The Erebus was just one of the ships that made the transition from military vessel to a vessel used for research and exploration. The captains and crew of the vessel changed over the many years it spent on the seas.

In Erebus, you will read a book about a legendary ship. However, there is another benefit to Michael Palin's book which makes it a helpful read as well as an enjoyable one. Erebus does not just share the story of the ship itself, but of the world in which this ship sailed. As you read through Erebus, take note of the names being mentioned in each chapter.

I also invite you to adventure with the people on Erebus and on the HMS terror. Pay attention to the letters and journals that are being mentioned and remember that these were real people who experienced a world very unlike our own. And yet, you'll also see a world that is very familiar too.

→ ANNOTATE

Erebus is a non-fiction book which makes it a good candidate for annotation. While you are reading through the text you may encounter an interesting point or main idea that you want to underline. You could put a question mark next to a statement you find unclear. You may place sticky notes on a page that you want to return to.

Experiment with different ways to engage with the information in the book. Some students will record themselves reading or talking about the reading. Others may start a discussion with an acquaintance about the material. Try different ways and see what works and what doesn't work for you. You can discuss your findings with your teacher.

• TERMINOLOGY

The phrase "Away with the atheists" appears several times in some translations of the text but had a different meaning in Roman times. Roman persecutors called the Christians "atheists" because they refused to worship the Roman gods. Later, Polycarp says, "Away with the atheists" in irony, referring to the unbelieving Romans in the stadium.

History: Grade 10 (Canada)

Examination

Term 1

Ancient History: Grades 10-12

- In what ways does the Roman Republic remind you of your own country? In what ways is it different?
- The Aeneid: Describe the character of Aeneas. What do you think are his defining traits? Give a few concrete examples of where you see them in the Aeneid.
- Draw two pieces of art that you remember seeing this term. Briefly say what they are and describe them. What do you think they say about the cultures that they were a part of?
- Ancient Empires: What does the IEMP model use for an approach to studying Ancient History?

Term 2

Ancient History: Grades 10-12

- Based on your readings in Ancient Empires this term, how do you think that the Roman Empire was able to hold together such a large group of people? How was the empire different from other empires you have studied, or from the Roman Republic that preceded it?
- Choose one:
 - In book six of the Aeneid, Vergil describes Aeneas' journey into the underworld. How does he describe the underworld? What does it tell you about the Roman view of the afterlife and how is that description similar or different from your beliefs about life after death?
 - Draw two pieces of art that you remember seeing this term. Briefly say what they are and describe them. What do you think they say about the cultures that they were a part of?
 - Early Christian Writings & "Martyrdom of Ignatius" online resource: Compare the martyrdom stories that you read of Polycarp and Ignatius of Antioch. What do they have in common? How are they different? What character traits do both men share?

Term 3

Ancient History: Grades 10-12

- Choose one:
 - The most common adjective that Vergil uses to describe Aeneas is "pious." Is this the adjective you would have used to describe his character? From the books of the Aeneid you have read, tell what ways this piety is exemplified and why you think this was important to Vergil.
 - Early Christian Writings: Based on the writings of the early church fathers that you have read this term, what were some of the primary concerns of the early church? What are the most common themes? Are the concerns of the early church the same as or different than the concerns of the Christian church today?
 - Describe some of the accusations that the Romans made against the early Christians and how they are clarified or refuted by the apologist Justin Martyr.
 - Ancient Empires: How did Diocletian and Constantine help to resolve the crises of the 3rd century? What role did Christianity play in both creating and resolving some of the problems in the late Roman Empire?
