Beginner Track

About the Course

This set of lesson plans eases students into Plutarch lessons with one of his most engaging and accessible lives so that students don't miss this important book that Mason valued so highly.

This topic is included in the following course(s): Citizenship: Grade 5

Placement & Combining Tips

Older students beginning Plutarch for the first time may wish to start with this level as a replacement for other Plutarch lessons.

Responsibility for previewing all links rests with the teacher. All links were checked at the time of publication; however, websites change frequently and may contain objectionable content. Please report broken links by contacting us through our website.

Citizenship: Grade 5

☐ Make sure your student sets up a Citizenship Notebook. They will need a 3-ring binder, lined notebook paper, and 5 Tabbed Dividers. You can read more about how to set one up and suggestions for various sections in the document in Quick Links.

☐ As desired, plan for a read aloud time. Suggestions are provided in the Community Read Aloud Quick Link, but local favorites are highly recommended whenever possible.

☐ Make a Calendar of Events for Current Events lessons by drawing a calendar grid in a notebook (or print a blank calendar from the internet).

Plutarch: Beginner Track

How To Teach

Prepare

Plutarch: Teachers will find it helpful to preread the entire Life first, and then preread the day's passage before each lesson. Mark any passages that should be omitted due to content. (In Anne White's Plutarch Project books, the recommended source for this course, objectionable content has already been omitted.)

Current Events: Preview the news source for suitability.

Most other citizenship topics don't require additional prep.

Recap

Connect back to the previous lesson. (Optional for Current Events).

Introduce

For news sources, show students how to scan the headlines to get an overview first and then choose a story to read.

For Plutarch or other books: Use a picture, a map, or an engaging question to prepare students to receive the story as relevant. You may talk about one or two unfamiliar words that will be crucial to understanding. It is not necessary to cover all unfamiliar words.

Read

Read the selection assigned or the news story chosen. For rich, dense, or more challenging books such as Ourselves and Plutarch, it is a good idea to read them aloud. Have students keep an eye out for things to add to their Citizenship Notebook, Book of Centuries, and/or Commonplace book.

Narrate

Have the students narrate orally or in writing.

Discuss

Give students an opportunity to share their thoughts on the story and any connections made. For current events, look up where events occurred on a map and ask questions to help students discern the quality of the piece. (e.g., Are there sources cited? Is there an obvious bias? If so, what do other authors have to say on this subject? Are arguments supported by evidence? Is that evidence credible?) Consider reading an alternative perspective.

Citizenship Notebook

Have students record important ideas in their Citizenship Notebooks.

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 1

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: You may want to read a retelling so you can be familiar with the story. This is not to be read to the students.

∞ Link: Retelling of Publicola from Our Young Folks' Plutarch

- Read about Publicola and the intro material, p.11-14
- Pre-read the lesson so you are comfortable reading aloud.

→ INTRO

1. Plutarch was born in Greece a few years after the death of Christ in the year 45 AD and died around 120 AD. He said that his purpose was to write lives, not histories. A life was a portrait of a man's inner self, whereas a history was an account of men's actions and fortunes without focusing on what the people were like who produced them. Plutarch's Lives is a book of patterns, models on which men may mold themselves, and be inspired to do so. Greatness is Plutarch's theme, not great fortune—he loves to depict a hero in adversity. (From Introduction to Plutarch by Edith Hamilton, p.xv-xvii.)

2. We are reading about a Roman man named Publicola who lived around 550 BC. His actual name was Publius Valerius, but his nickname became Publicola, which means a man of the people or loved by the people. Listen for the actions that caused him to be given that nickname. In the book, he will be referred to as Valerius.

3. When this account begins, Rome is ruled by King Tarquin. But when his son's outrageous behavior caused a public scandal, the king was removed from the throne.

4. Let's look at the characters. (See right-hand column. You may want to write their names on a whiteboard.)

5. We will read about how the Romans went from a monarchy (king) to a republic with consuls as the main officials of the government.

→ LOCATE

At this time, there was no unified country called Italy. It was made up of many city-states or regions. Find the region of Rome and the Sabini. What do you think the people from those areas are called? (Romans and Sabines) These two areas had been at war with each other.

→ READ & NARRATE

Lesson 1, p.17-18 "Such was Solon" - "consul with Brutus."

→ DISCUSS

Why do you think Valerius thought he would become the consul with Brutus?

★ TEACHER TIP

You may want to write the definitions of the vocabulary words in pencil next to the words or in the margin so you can say the definition right after you read the word in the text. You may also want to write a few of the words on a whiteboard with a definition or synonym.

CHARACTERS

Valerius aka Publicola

Tarquin-last king of Rome

Brutus-joined with Valerius to head up revolt against the king, considered founder of Roman Republic republic-A form of government in which the people elect, or choose, their leaders consul-the chief civil and military official of the Roman Republic. Two were elected yearly and they presided over meetings of the senate and assemblies of the whole people and put into effect the decrees they enacted. In war they took command of the army.

DEFINITIONS

WEEK 2 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 2

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Review vocabulary and pre-read the lesson.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

→ INTRO

What might be hard for people to change from a monarchy to a republic, from a king to a government where people elect their leaders? We read last time that Valerius thought that he might become one of the consuls. Let's find out what happens. (Set up the scene by reviewing characters and going over vocabulary words. See Teacher's Notes.)

You may want to write the names on a whiteboard.

CHARACTERS

Tarquinius Collatinus-Lucretia's husband

DEFINITIONS

solicitations-to urge something, such as one's cause strongly (p.18)

★ TEACHER TIP

Why is Plutarch relevant today and why is it included as part of Citizenship? These links can help answer those questions. You may wish to share pieces of what you

Term 1

→ READ & NARRATE

Lesson 1 p.18-19 "Howbeit this" - "sincerity of his oath."

→ DISCUSS

- How does Valerius show his loyalty to the republic and not the former king, even though he wasn't chosen as consul?
- What does that say about his character?

WEEK 3

30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 3

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Read the introduction, review vocabulary, and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

→ INTRO

Read aloud the intro in the book. Why might people be persuaded to help their king or let him come back? (Set up scene by reviewing any characters and explaining a couple of vocabulary words.)

→ READ & NARRATE

Lesson 2, p.21-22 "For there came" - "out after them."

→ DISCUSS

Why do you think Valerius did not want the ambassadors to talk to the people of Rome?

CHARACTERS

Collatinus- In this section, he is only referred to by this name. He is Tarquinius Collatinus, the co-consul and husband of Lucretia.

DEFINITIONS

ambassador- representative or messenger (p.21)

subsidies- gift of money (p.22)

suffer- to allow (p.22)

tyranny/tyrants- government in which absolute power is found in a single ruler (p.22)

WEEK 4

30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 4

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Review vocabulary and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

→ INTRO

We will be introduced to two families that were influential in Rome—the Aquillians and Vitellians. (Write these names on a whiteboard.) The ambassadors of King Tarquin were trying to win them over. The Vitellians were related to Brutus and tried to win over Brutus' sons. We will read what will happen.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Lesson 2 p.22-23 "The questions, however" - "at the consultation."

- Why were Brutus' sons persuaded to kill the consuls?

CHARACTERS

Collatinus- Tarquinius Collatinus, the co-consul and husband of Lucretia.

Vindicius- a slave who overhears an important conversation

DEFINITIONS

entrails- internal parts (p.23)

★ TEACHER TIP

Plutarch's writing can be confusing at times because of his overuse of pronouns. Sometimes it gets confusing to determine what antecedent the pronoun refers to. It might be helpful in those places to replace the pronouns with the actual nouns.

Term 1

WEEK 5 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 5

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Read the introduction, review vocabulary, and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

→ INTRO

Do you remember who overheard the plot to kill the consuls? (The slave Vindicius). What will he do with that information? We will read about what he decides to do and what happens to the conspirators.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Lesson 3 p.26 "Upon their departure" - "into the Forum."

- Why did Vindicius decide to tell Valerius first?

CHARACTERS

Vindicius-slave
Marcus Valerius- Valerius's brother

DEFINITIONS

inducement-a motive or consideration that leads one to action (p.26)

WEEK 6 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 6

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Review vocabulary and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

→ INTRO

1. At the end of this section, Plutarch mentions Romulus, who was considered the founder of Rome. Let's watch this video that tells about the legend of the twin boys, Romulus and Remus.

∞ Video Link: The Legend of the Founding of Rome

2. Set up the scene by explaining any new characters or a couple of vocabulary words. You may want to write the names on a whiteboard.

3. Review any vocabulary in the right-hand column.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Lesson 3 p.26-27 "There the consuls" - "foundation of the city."

- Why do you think Plutarch said that "Brutus did a greater work in the establishment of the government than Romulus did in the foundation of the city"?

CHARACTERS

Titus & Tiberius-Brutus's sons

DEFINITIONS

lictors-the bodyguards of the consuls, made up of twelve men. Each lictor carried a bundle of sticks (rods) that also contained an axe (p.27)

countenance- expression (p.27)

WEEK 7 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 7

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Read the introduction, review vocabulary, and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

Read aloud the first paragraph of the introduction from the book. (Set up scene by reviewing the characters or a couple of vocabulary words. You may want to write the names on a whiteboard.)

CHARACTERS

Vindicius-slave
Brutus-co-consul
Collatinus-co-consul

DEFINITIONS

harboured-to take shelter or hide (p.30)

Term 1

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Lesson 4 p.29-30 "Upon Brutus's departure" - "stricken off."

- Why did Valerius care about the slave over the Aquillians? What does that say about his character?

WEEK 8 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 8

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Review vocabulary and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

- How did Valerius's zeal for Rome's republic finally pay off?

CHARACTERS

Collantinus-co-consul

Vindicius-slave became a freedman

Valerius-becomes co-consul

DEFINITIONS

zeal-eagerness and passionate interest in pursuit of something (p.30)

WEEK 9 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 9

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Read the introduction, review vocabulary, and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

→ INTRO

Read the intro in the book aloud. (Set up scene by explaining a couple of vocabulary words. You may want to write the names on a whiteboard.)

→ LOCATE

∞ Map Link: Map of Regions of Italy

As mentioned before, there were many different people groups that made up Italy at this time. We will read about the Tuscans. They lived in a part of the region that is labeled "Etrurians." Find that on the map.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Lesson 5 p.33-34 "Tarquinius then being" - "it did afterwards."

- What do you think that "divine announcement" could have been? (See note in book on p.34)

→ VIEW

Look at this picture that depicts a Roman triumph. A Roman Triumph was a spectacular celebration parade held in the ancient city of Rome for a military commander who had won an important victory on the battlefield. Plutarch says that this victory over the Tuscans marked the first Roman Triumph.

∞ Image Link: Image of a Roman Triumph

DEFINITIONS

enmity-mutual hatred or ill will (p.33)

adversaries-enemies or opponents (p.33)

ILLUSTRATE- Draw a picture of the Roman Triumph using watercolors or pastels.

Term 1

WEEK 10 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 10

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Read the introduction, review vocabulary, and pre-read the lesson. You may want to write names and select vocab words on a whiteboard.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

→ INTRO

Now that Brutus has died, Valerius is the only consul until a new one is elected. The people thought that Valerius was acting too much like a king in various ways. Let's read to find out how Valerius responds to these criticisms.

→ READ, NARRATE,

Lesson 6 p.36-37 "The people applauded" - "of Vica Pota."

→ NARRATE

This is a good section to act out the narration

→ DISCUSS

It says that the people "expressed their wonder and their respect for Valerius's magnanimity." Magnanimity means generosity of spirit. To be magnanimous is to be noble and to have a greatness of mind and heart. This is how good leaders should be characterized. Charlotte Mason would say that good citizens should be magnanimous people. How did Valerius show magnanimity in this reading?

WEEK 11 30m Plutarch: Beginner Track - Lesson 11

Materials: The Plutarch Primer: Publicola

PREP: Review vocabulary and pre-read the lesson.

→ RECAP

What did we read last time?

Examination

Term 1

- The Plutarch Primer: Publicola: How did Publicola live up to his name "loved by the people"?

Term 2

- The Plutarch Primer: Publicola: Pick one of the events to show how Publicola was a wise leader:
 1. The situation with Porsena, Tarquin, and the Roman girls sent as hostages.
 2. The situation with the Sabine man, Clausus, who was disliked by his fellow citizens for opposing war.
