

Grammar/Comp

About the Course

Students spend two lessons a week reviewing the parts of speech and learning how to construct a good paragraph. During the other two lessons, students begin to expand their writing skills with composition assignments from their books. Throughout the year they explore literary concepts such as point of view and experiment with multiple forms of writing, including letters, descriptions, short accounts, and poetry.

This topic is included in the following course(s): Language Study: Grade 7

Grammar/Comp: Grade 7

These lessons, combined with the writing practice students continue to gain through written narrations and additional composition assignments (see the Written Narration/Composition Tracker and assignments), reinforce concepts and build fluency with various types of written forms.

How To Teach Grammar

Connect

Link back to the previous lesson.

Read

Read the assigned pages and discuss new ideas. It is important for students to be able to talk about the concepts in their own words. The pictures and diagrams in the book can serve as a springboard for discussions about the grammar concepts.

Practice

Complete practice examples in the text and/or the practice book that accompany the lesson.

Observe

Observe examples of concepts in books being read and in daily life.

Term 1

WEEK 1

20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 1

→ NOTE TO STUDENTS

One purpose of composition lessons is to encourage you, the student, to dig deeper, reflect on your readings, explore the different ways words work, and learn how to ask good questions of yourself and your readings. Set your timer and use the whole time allotted for a composition assignment. If you finish an assignment with extra time, explore another perspective, ask further questions, or take a bit more time to see if any other thoughts come to mind. Alternatively, if you find yourself stuck, you may want to take a short break and return later. Growth, not frustration, is the goal.

→ 15M COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #1 - SUMMARY

Write a brief summary of a current event.

→ 15M COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #2 - DESCRIPTIVE

Describe the village of Grand-Pré from Evangeline.

OR

Describe the land of Greece.

→ 15m COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #1 - Expository/Research

(US Students) What were some of the issues the new country had to deal with? Why was a new governing document needed?"

OR

(Canadian Students) Hudson Bay Company recently filed for creditor protection and began closing and liquidating (selling off the assets) of all its stores, effectively closing the business. There is currently (April 2025) a debate over whether or not the company should be allowed to auction off the charter to recoup some funds. This is a great opportunity to think about how events of long-ago history can continue to be felt in the present day. With a parent's supervision, research what has happened to the charter since April 2025 and decide which side of the debate you would support.

Alternate Option: From your reading in Ourselves, what are ways a flame could come from a foreign land?

→ 15m COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #2 - OPINION

WEEK 11 20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 42 20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 21 Composition → PRACTICE Now that each sentence is clear, correct, and beautiful, play with ordering the note cards. You might start by making stacks of sentences that belong together and then deciding on the order of the stacks. Keep rearranging your note cards until they are in a logical order that will make sense to the reader. If you find that you need another sentence in order for things to make the most sense, go ahead and craft one on another note card.

Read the original and the second drafts aloud. How much of a difference is there? As you reread the second draft, do you notice things you would change? Then change them! WEEK 1

20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 49

→ 15m COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #1 - Short Account

From your reading in Ourselves, tell how to keep Smell "in good working order."

→ 15M COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #2 - EDITING

Editing is an important aspect of writing, especially when sharing it with others.

- Look back at one of your old composition assignments from Term 1.
- Type it up (if it isn't already).
- Read it aloud and fix any errors you hear as you read.
- Now, using what you've learned in Paragraph Town, review your sentences. Are they complete sentences? Do the subjects and verbs agree? Check your punctuation and capitalization. Fix any other errors you find!

Remember: all good writers edit their work. It's a good thing to find and fix errors! Very few people write perfect sentences the first time they put their ideas on paper (or type them).

★ TEACHER TIP

Make sure students are practicing typing skills and typing narrations regularly.

→ 15m COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #1 - Summary

→ 15M COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #2 - PERSONIFICATION

You might have noticed that Benjamin Franklin's "wit and wisdom" in Poetry Reading is filled with personification. An author uses personification when s/he gives an inanimate object or abstract idea the qualities of a person. For instance, here is one of Franklin's aphorisms:

"Anger and Folly walk cheek by-jole;
Repentance treads on both their Heels."

Notice how Franklin gives Anger, Folly, and Repentance human-like qualities. They are all walking! Look for more instances of personification in the books you read. With the remaining time, try writing a few sentences like Franklin's using personification. For instance, start by trying to write the opposite of Franklin's saying!

Turn the first part of Treasure Island, Celebrated Cases of Judge Dee, or another book of your choice into a scene for a play! Look at one of Shakespeare's plays to see how to set up your scene. Remember that plays essentially rely on dialogue and stage directions to work. So it may even help to try acting it out or imagining how you'd set it up in a room first. Feel free to look back at your books and use excerpts of dialogue from the book as you work on your scene.

→ 15M COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #2 - QUESTIONS

Continue working on your scene for a play.

OR

Write as many questions as you can about one of your readings. We can use the same questions for books that you might use for nature study to make observations about books and generate more questions: "What do you notice?" "What do you wonder?" and "What does it remind you of?" Don't worry if you think of a lot of questions and then draw a blank. Give yourself some time and keep thinking, and you'll probably come up with some new questions!

★ TEACHER TIP

Some students may find it helpful to use external supports before writing, such as index cards that can be arranged and re-ordered. You can also encourage students to talk aloud as they write or use speech-to-text and then edit.

→ 📄 15m COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #1 - Editing

Pick one of your favorite comparison assignments from Term 1 or 2. Today we're going to practice what you've been learning in Paragraph Town to revise your work.

- Type it if it isn't already typed.
- Read your work aloud and fix any initial grammar or spelling mistakes you see/hear.
- Use what you've learned from grammar to check for any other errors to correct (subject/verb, sentence fragments, etc.)
- Review comparison paragraphs and the different types of paragraphs in Paragraph Town.
- Now look back at your writing and see what you can do to make it an even clearer comparison paragraph. Do you have a topic sentence or connecting words? Do you have enough sentences in your paragraph? Try rearranging the sentences in a different order (you could physically write or print them out and cut them apart, and try rearranging if you like). What order do you think might give the most natural progression of thought? Feel free to add or take away words, phrases, or sentences. Now is the time to revise, and often writers only keep a little bit of their initial work when they revisit it! That doesn't mean your first work was bad; you just know more and have new thoughts on how to make it better now that you've given it some time to rest!
- If you need more time, continue this exercise during Composition assignment #2 this week.

WEEK 8	20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 125 → 15m COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #1 - Draft Descriptive Paragraph Using what you know about Descriptive paragraphs from Paragraph Town, write a descriptive paragraph about something you observed in a science lab, a nature walk, a building you studied in Architecture, or a scene from one of your other books. Focus today on writing as many details as possible. Next assignment, you'll have time to edit and revise. It's often hard to think about grammar and the concepts you've learned from Paragraph Town while also trying to get details down on paper, so we'll separate that process into two different steps, as many writers do. → 15m COMPOSITION ASSIGNMENT #2 - REVISE DESCRIPTIVE PARAGRAPH Now, review how descriptive paragraphs work in Paragraph Town and revise your work from Comp Assignment #1. • Type your work if you haven't already. • Look at your paragraph and see if you can improve its structure. Does it need a topic sentence, connecting words, another sentence or two added, a sentence taken away, or moved to a different place in the paragraph? Do you have enough detail that someone can imagine what you're describing? Add more if not! • Read your work aloud and check grammar and spelling.

WEEK 10	20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 134 20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 67 Composition → PRACTICE Narration Paragraph 1: The trickiest thing about retelling content is knowing which things to include. Too few details make it difficult to follow, while too many make it tedious to read. Find a balance. Look at your outline. Choose 5-7 things that are crucial to understanding the passage and decide how they should be ordered. Then write your first paragraph.
WEEK 10	20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 135 20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 68 Composition → PRACTICE Narration Paragraph 2: Look at your outline. Now that you have had more time to think, are there other connections you want to include? What books, music, art, shows, experiences, historical events, news, or ideas did the passage make you think about? Choose 2-3 of the most important ones to focus on. The tricky thing will be to avoid writing in first person. Instead of "This reminded me of...", try "This story is similar to..." Write your second paragraph.

WEEK 11	20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 138 20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 69 Composition → PRACTICE Narration Paragraph 3: Look at your outline. Are you still wondering the same things you were when you wrote it? If your thoughts have changed, replace them. The assignment specifically asks you to tell what you found most interesting and asks what you want to know more about, but try to write without using first person. Instead of "I want to know more about..." try, "It would be interesting to learn more about..." Write your third paragraph.
WEEK 11	20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 139 20m Grammar/Comp: Grade 7 - Lesson 70 Composition → PRACTICE Reread your three paragraphs. Do your topic sentences connect your paragraphs? Is everything in a logical order? Did you choose words for clarity, accuracy, and beauty? Edit for spelling, punctuation, capitalization, indentation, etc. Write your final draft.
