About the Course

This course includes the following topic(s): General Lit.: Grades 9-10, History of Lit: Grades 9-12, Plays: Grades 9-12, Poetry Study: Grade 10, Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12

About Poetry Study: Grade 10

This course helps students explore and enjoy poems on many levels; lessons include practice in both reading and writing about poetry.

About General Lit.: Grades 9-10

Journey into the 19th century with novels, short stories, personal narratives, fairy tales, and more. Students engage with a variety of authors and texts from the time period and reflect on literary techniques and the characteristics of multiple genres along the way.

About History of Lit: Grades 9-12

Using Marshall's and Long's spines along with a variety of primary sources and additional readings, the History of Literature course introduces students to literary movements and figures in the 19th century. The course prioritizes influential texts in the English-speaking world but also seeks to give students glimpses at literary developments across the globe.

About Plays: Grades 9-12

Students read Shakespeare's plays with additional optional readings and extra helpings from the time period.

About Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12

In addition to reading a variety of poems from 19th century authors, students read biographies of two famous 19th century poets and dive into Virgil's Aeneid.

Plays: Grades 9-12

William Shakespeare (1564-1616) is perhaps the greatest writer in the English language. Reading and speaking his beautiful words will delight students as they learn his timeless stories, meet a variety of characters, enrich their minds, and instruct their consciences. Students will begin by simply enjoying the plays and later by writing short compositions, comparisons, and commonplace entries. Shakespeare covers the wide panorama of human experience through his nearly 40 plays; the comedies, tragedies, and histories that students read will spark their imaginations with stories that transcend time and culture.

Placement & Combining Tips

Poetry Study: Grade 10

Prerequisite: Grade 9 Poetry Study or a familiarity with a variety of poems and a strong working understanding of poetic forms and terminology.

General Lit.: Grades 9-10

Suitable for hungry 8th graders. Can be combined easily with Grades 11-12.

History of Lit: Grades 9-12

Lessons are shared across high school grades with grade-specific assignments in the lesson plans as appropriate.

Plays: Grades 9-12

This year, this course is the same as Shakespeare for Grades 5-8 with the only difference coming in Extra Helpings and additional options for further study.

Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12

Students new or struggling in their relationship with poetry should use Grade 8 lessons.

Poetry Study: Grade 10

☐ You'll need a journal and a poetry anthology or two of your choice for this course, as well as the assigned book. A few suggested anthologies are listed in Extra Helpings.

History of Lit: Grades 9-12

☐ Print off the History of Literature PDF, as students will need to annotate and mark up various sections throughout the year.

☐ Although sources were condensed into one PDF when possible, there are still quite a few outside links due to the number of primary sources referenced, so make sure your student(s) has/have access to the internet for their course.

Plays: Grades 9-12

☐ You may want to read "Shakespeare and a Christian Worldview," which is Ch.9 in the book Echoes of Eden – Reflections on Christianity, Literature, and the Arts by Jerram Barrs. This is an excellent overview of why Shakespeare is important for everyone to know, including Christians.

☐ If your students are new to Shakespeare, read the tips for beginners (Found in Appendix link)

☐ You may want to read a retelling beforehand so you are familiar with the play. (Suggestions found in Extra Helpings)

- ☐ Read the discussion questions and skim the summaries of each scene each week before the reading to help guide emphasis and discussion with your students.
- ☐ Consider purchasing puppets to use while reading to keep track of all the characters.

NOTE on VERSIONS

Students should have an unabridged copy that is not in a modern language edition, such as the ones linked in the program. The language complexity gets easier to understand with practice. (Note: Shakespeare's work does often contain bawdy jokes or off-color content that will go over the heads of students if left in its original form; a modern language version will lay it all right out there in plain, modern English.) We like the Folger editions because they are inexpensive, the lines are numbered (making it easy to find your place), and they contain good notes. These are available on the Folger website as free PDFs as well, though the notes are omitted.

NOTE on CONTENT

Teachers are sometimes wary of reading Shakespeare with their students because the plays do contain material that they would deem inappropriate. The Alveary generally follows Mason's programs for younger students. That does not mean, however, that your student will never encounter anything unsavory. Our best advice is to read in such a way that these things are moved over quickly, without added attention being drawn to them. Mason assures us that Shakespeare provides students with rich language and character lessons that are unparalleled.

How To Approach

Read

The lesson plans will guide you through what to read over the terms. Take a moment before reading to remember where you left off last time.

Narrate

The lesson plans will give you specific instructions or tell you to choose a way to narrate that helps you interact with the ideas.

Discuss

The lesson plans will guide you with questions or instructions to share your ideas or what you are reading with others.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to students, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are occasionally added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

It is also valuable for those in a classroom setting to have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrate together. Literature lessons lend themselves well to a larger discussion time at the end of the lesson where student can share their ideas.

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m History of Lit: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 1

Introduction - Romanticism

Materials: History of Lit PDF

→ INTRO

What authors and books come to mind when you think about literature in 19th century? You may be familiar with terms such as the "Romantic period" or "Victorian period." Tell or jot down anything that comes to mind.

Over the year we'll learn about the lives and writings of people who wrote from about 1800-1900 AD. These individuals wrote in a wide array of genres: poetry, essays, short stories, plays, science fiction, mysteries, thrillers, children's stories, and more. When possible, the readings scheduled in History of Lit will align with what you are reading in your Poetry and General Literature courses.

We'll focus on authors who wrote in English but will also spend some time getting a taste for influential texts written in other languages as well. Every culture has significant texts and stories, so while we're limited in this course to English texts and texts translated into English, it's important to remember there is a world of books and literary traditions from cultures around the world which we don't have the time or often the language to read in this course!

English writings from the end of the 18th century into the first half of the 19th century are sometimes grouped together as part of the "Romantic Period." As with any generalization, this is a label scholars have put on the time frame as they look back, not something authors were so much thinking about consciously as they wrote, although as we will see, writers and poets from this period were often aware that their style of writing was something new.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

∞ PDF Link: History of Lit PDF "The Romantic Period" p.1-7

- What are some of the themes to look out for when you read literature from the Romantic Period? How did Romantic writers break with the traditions of Classicism? Do you recognize any ideas about poets and poetry in this reading that are still current today? How would you say our time is different or similar? What "rules" define literature written in English today?

WEEK 1 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 1

Transition from Classicism to Romanticism

→ INTRO

Towards the end of the eighteenth century, writers were beginning to break from the rules of Classicism and experiment with poetic subject matter and form that, in retrospect, seem more aligned with the themes of Romanticism. Today, you will read a few works by three poets who bridge these two time periods: Thomas Gray, William Cowper, and Robert Burns.

→ READ & DISCUSS

∞ Link: Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard

- What is the setting of the poem, and how does Gray use this setting to create a mood or tone for the poem? What do you think the poet is saying about death and memory?

∞ Link: The Shrubbery

- How does the speaker show that there is a disconnect between how he feels and where he is? What is his relationship to the nature he sees around him?

Term 1

∞ Link: To a Mouse

- If the language seems hard, try reading it out loud.
- This poem ends with a turn. Why does the speaker see the mouse as "blest, compar'd wi' me!"?

WEEK 1 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 1

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ INTRO

Mary Shelley's Frankenstein has had a continuous influence on the wider culture since its publication over two centuries ago. Sir Walter Scott pronounced it "extraordinary" and declared that Shelley possessed "uncommon powers of poetic imagination." The story has been told and retold through many adaptations and artistic forms; however, there is a disconnect between the cartoonish, green-faced Frankenstein monster familiar to most of us and Shelley's tale of a nameless monster created by Dr. Frankenstein. Karen Swallow Prior writes that the novel "is full of surprises for the first-time reader." Rather than a straightforward monster story, it is "in the strain of the philosophical novel. Readers expecting merely an entertaining tale of horror can expect to be confronted with big ideas and big questions" (14).

→ READ & NARRATE

p.1-7 "You will rejoice" - "my beloved sister!"

- Notice that the novel opens with a series of letters. There will be many narrative frames throughout the novel as characters tell stories within stories, so paying attention to the point of view is very important. What do you learn of Robert Walton from these opening pages?
- What tone is set by the opening line?

WEEK 1 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 2

William Wordsworth

→ INTRO

We will learn more about William Wordsworth (1770-1850) in the History of Literature lesson next week, but today's reading should give you a feel for his style and major themes. As you read, compare Wordsworth's poem to the selections you read last time. "Tintern Abbey" is written in blank verse (unrhymed iambic pentameter, or ten syllables per line). What other poets have you read who use blank verse? How is this different than Gray's "Elegy" you read last week, which had a very rigid structure?

→ READ

∞ Link: Lines Composed a Few Miles above Tintern Abbey, On Revisiting the Banks of the Wye during a Tour. July 13, 1798

- What are some images that especially stand out to you? What is Wordsworth saying about nature?
- What do you think he means when he says in lines 64-67: "here I stand, not only with the sense / Of present pleasure, but with pleasing thoughts / That in this moment there is life and food / For future years."?

→ VIEW

Look at this painting of Tintern Abbey, painted in 1804 by English landscape painter William Havell (1782-1857).

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 2

- Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
- Materials: Up From Slavery

→ INTRO

Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass is a classic 19th-century autobiography that details the author's story from slavery to freedom. Douglass was born enslaved in Maryland in 1818 and escaped to freedom when he was around twenty years old. He went on to have a remarkable life as a national leader of the abolitionist movement, writer, orator, and statesman.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.1-7 "I was born in Tuckahoe" - "a good overseer."

- What do we learn about Frederick Douglass's family in this opening reading?
 - What initial impressions do you have of his narrative style? How might this be connected to his aims for this autobiography? Consider in particular how he describes the more difficult and violent episodes from his childhood.

→ INTRO

Today, we begin reading the autobiography of Booker T. Washington. It was first written as a periodical, but was later put into book form. Washington was born a slave, but was still a child when emancipation occurred. He later founded Tuskegee Institute in Alabama and spent his life advancing the cause of equal rights. His writings give a window into the Reconstruction period that followed the American Civil War.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.I p.1-11 "I was born" - "owners as to the future."

- How does Washington describe his childhood? How does he describe the day of emancipation?

★ TEACHER NOTE

Sensitive content: Douglass's Narrative contains several graphic descriptions of beatings and racial slurs.

WEEK 1 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 1

- Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ INTRO

Do you enjoy poetry? Wonderful! This book will give you new ways to get to know and enjoy poems even more deeply. Do you dislike poetry? Perfect! This book will give you a new perspective and hopefully help you to decide simply to put some poems aside for now. There is no need to give up on poetry altogether.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Foreword p.ix-xiii

- Think back over your life. What poems have shaped you? Did you listen to nursery rhymes when you were little? Have you memorized poems over the years? How would you describe your relationship with poetry?

● EXTRA HELPINGS

The back of the book has some excellent ideas on how to use the book with a group and includes extra discussion questions for each of the chapters if you're interested!

WEEK 1 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 2

- Materials: Journal

→ INTRO

One lesson each week will focus on reading and discussing our way through The Word Made Fresh. The second lesson will focus on reading poetry or engaging with it in some way. Keep a journal on hand! Sometimes specific poems are assigned, but sometimes you will need to choose a poem to read yourself (with some guidance). Make sure to have a good poetry anthology on hand. Some options are linked in Extra Helpings.

Term 1

→ REFLECT

What habits have helped or hindered your capacity to spend time with wonder? What moments in your life made the world feel bigger? What caused it?

WEEK 1 30m Plays: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 1

Materials: The Tempest

PREP: Read an overview of the play (one synopsis is located at the beginning of the Folger edition of the play). If you are not familiar with the play, you will want to read other retellings. We highly suggest Stories from Shakespeare by Marchette Chute. Resources are listed on the Extra Helpings Page. Also, be sure to read the note about mature content and language in Shakespeare in the Planning and Prep section.

→ INTRO

- What makes a tragedy a tragedy or a comedy a comedy?
- Our play this term is sometimes called a tragicomedy because it has both comedic and tragic elements. Overall, the play has a happy ending, which places it in the comedic category. The name of the play 'Tempest' means "a violent storm," and it will give us lots of things to ponder about power, betrayal, magic, slavery, and the restoration of relationships.
- Take time to review the elements of tragedy and comedy before beginning.
∞ Link: Genres of Shakespeare

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Act 1: Scene 1-2 p.7-25 "Boatswain!" - "Approach, my Ariel. Come."

- How does each character respond to the storm? What is the tone of this scene?
- Re-read lines 84-95. Discuss the context this gives for the story.
- Put the following quote from Miranda into your own words. What does it tell us about what Miranda is like?

"A brave vessel,
Who had, no doubt, some noble creature in her,
Dashed all to pieces. O, the cry did knock
Against my very heart! Poor souls, they perished.
Had I been any god of power, I would
Have sunk the sea within the earth or ere
It should the good ship so have swallowed, and
The fraughting souls within her."

★ TEACHER TIP

Take turns reading the play aloud if using these lessons in a group. We recommend reading the summaries of each scene to briefly preview content and help orient students.

WEEK 2 30m History of Lit: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 2

William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Materials: English Literature for Boys & Girls

→ RECAP

What do you recall about the major themes of the Romantic Period from last week's reading?

→ INTRO

• IMPORTANT DATES

William Wordsworth (1770-1850)

Samuel Taylor Coleridge (1772-1834)

First publication of the Lyrical Ballads (1798)

Term 1

Today, we will learn more about the life and work of two poets - William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge, who are most closely associated with English Romantic poetry.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

1. Marshall, Ch.LXXIV "Wordsworth - the Poet of Nature."
 - How did Wordsworth's experiences as a child seem to influence his later poetry?
2. Marshall, Ch.LXXV "Wordsworth and Coleridge - the Lake Poets."
 - What are some similarities and differences between the two poets?

WEEK 2 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 3

William Wordsworth and Samuel Taylor Coleridge

→ INTRO

With the anonymous publication in 1798 of their Lyrical Ballads, Wordsworth and Coleridge introduced a new style of poetry to the public. The initial publication received mixed reviews, however, and with each subsequent publication, the two poets included a Preface by way of an introduction to their style, themes, and purpose. In today's lesson, you will read excerpts from the 1802 edition of this preface, as well as a representative poem by each of them. Think about how the poetry you read illustrates some of the points made in the Preface.

→ READ & DISCUSS

1. ∞ PDF Link: Excerpts from the Preface to the Lyrical Ballads (1802)
2. Wordsworth, "My Heart Leaps Up"
 My heart leaps up when I behold
 A rainbow in the sky:
 So was it when my life began;
 So is it now I am a man;
 So be it when I shall grow old,
 Or let me die!
 The Child is father of the Man;
 And I could wish my days to be Bound each to each by natural piety.
3. ∞ Link: Wordsworth, "I Wandered Lonely As A Cloud"
4. ∞ Link: Coleridge, "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner"
 - NOTE: This poem is too long to read completely today, but reading it for a few minutes will give you a feel for the style. If you enjoy it, please finish reading it during the next poetry class or during your free reading time!

WEEK 2 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 3

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.8-14 "So strange an accident" - "and wrecked it - thus!"

- How are the gigantic creature and the stranger introduced? What questions do you have at this point in the novel?
- What are Walton's impressions of his guest? Why would Shelley introduce the title character to her readers through another character?

Term 1

WEEK 2 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 4

Samuel Taylor Coleridge

→ INTRO

Today, we are going to read a poem that is very different in style from The Rime of the Ancient Mariner. As you read, think about other poems you have read about children, or by poets remembering their own childhood.

→ READ

∞ Link: Frost at Midnight

With any time remaining, you can read more of The Rime of the Ancient Mariner.

★ TEACHER TIP

There is a Poem Guide for Frost at Midnight at the Poetry Foundation link, if your student would like extra information about the poem or help with understanding it.

WEEK 2 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 4

- 📖 Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
- 📖 Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.7-13 "The home plantation" - "stone-like coolness."

- Reflect on Douglass's descriptions of the slave's songs. What purposes does singing serve? How has it been misunderstood?

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.2-3 p.11-22 "After the coming of freedom" - "or a handkerchief."

- Why were names so important to Washington and the other newly freed people?
- How does Washington describe the conditions of formerly enslaved people immediately after emancipation?
- How is education described in this chapter? Why did Washington see it as so important?

WEEK 2 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 3

- 📖 Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.1-3 "Poetry fills" - "might meet."

- What did you think about the idea that God delights in poetry?

WEEK 2 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 4

- 📖 Materials: Bible

→ READ & REFLECT

Read a poem from the Bible (the Psalms are an easy place to start, but almost a third of the Bible is poetry, so you'll run into it everywhere). Why do you think God has written to us in poetry?

Term 1

WEEK 2 30m Plays: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 2

Materials: The Tempest

→ RECAP

How did Prospero and Miranda come to be on the island?

→ INTRO

The Tempest explores the theme of power, and we see this in Prospero's relationships. Watch a portion of Act 1, Scene 2, to learn more about Prospero's relationship to Ariel.

∞ Video Link: Act 1, Scene 2

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Act 1 Scene 2 p.25-39 "All hail, great master!" - "So, slave, hence."

- How would you describe Prospero's relationship with Caliban and Ariel?
- Put this quote by Caliban into your own words: "This island's mine by Sycorax, my mother, Which thou tak'st from me."

WEEK 3 30m History of Lit: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 3

Rabindranath Tagore

→ INTRO

If you are taking the Poetry Reading course this year, you will spend much of Term 1 reading poems by the Bengali writer, philosopher, and artist Rabindranath Tagore. He wrote in Bengali, but translated his own works into English. He is a significant figure for Indian nationalism, and, though not himself a politician, was a vocal proponent of India's independence at the turn of the twentieth century.

→ VIEW, NARRATE & DISCUSS

This video provides an excellent overview of Tagore's life and work. It will take nearly the entire lesson time to watch, although you can watch at 1.25x speed.

∞ Video Link: Rabindranath Tagore – Mystic Poet, Literary Genius & Nobel Laureate

- What were some of Tagore's major contributions to arts and history?

→ READ

∞ Link: The Gardener 85

This short poem is a timely piece to read, since Tagore was still alive and writing a century ago.

• IMPORTANT DATES

Rabindranath Tagore (1861-1941)

WEEK 3 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 5

Rabindranath Tagore

Materials: The Crescent Moon

→ INTRO

We will spend much of Term 1 reading poems by the Bengali writer, philosopher, and artist Rabindranath Tagore, who was born in 1861 in Calcutta, India, and grew up in a family that loved art, music, and ideas. He wrote in Bengali, but translated his own works into English. He is a significant figure for Indian nationalism, and, though not himself a politician, was a vocal proponent of India's independence at the turn of the twentieth century. In 1913, he became the first non-European writer to be awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature. He also composed the national anthems for both India and Bangladesh, making his words a lasting part of two nations.

The Crescent Moon is a collection of forty poems exploring themes such as childhood wonder, the natural world, and imagination. As you read through these poems, think about other poems you have read that present the world through the eyes of children, such as Robert Louis Stevenson's A Child's Garden of Verses.

→ READ & DISCUSS

Read one time, discuss, and then reread the poems.

p.6-7 "The Home"

- How would you describe the speaker of this poem?
- The poem opens with two examples of personification (a figure of speech which gives human characteristics to non-human things). Why do you think Tagore uses these images of a miser and a widow?

p.8 "On the Seashore"

- What images stand out most to you in this poem? How might they be symbols of a deeper meaning that lies beneath a simple description of children playing?

p.9-10 "The Source" and "Baby's Way"

- What do these two poems together seem to say about the nature of infants and children?

WEEK 3 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 5

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.14-21 "I am by birth" - "the greatest avidity."

- Describe the circumstances of Victor's parentage, his childhood, and his education.
- How does Victor recall his first reading of Agrippa? Does this foreshadow any of what is to come? Look for other instances of foreshadowing as you read.

WEEK 3 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 6

Materials: The Crescent Moon

→ RECAP

What was your favorite poem by Tagore that you read last time? What did you like most about it?

→ READ & DISCUSS

p.11-16

p.12-13 "Sleep-Stealer"

- Do you think someone really stole the baby's sleep?
- What phrase is repeated throughout the poem? Why do you think this is?
- How does the poem blur the line between the real world and the imaginative world?

Read the other poems one time, discuss, and then reread the poems.

- What images stand out to you the most in today's poems?

Term 1

WEEK 3 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 6

- Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
- Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.13-19 "His savage barbarity" - "voice of tranquil music."

- Why do you think it is important for his narrative that Douglass describes violence in such detail? How does it strengthen his anti-slavery argument?
 - Why was leaving Colonel Lloyd's plantation such a turning point for Douglass?

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.3-4 p.22-34 "Finally, the great day came" - "get through the school year."

- What hardships does he encounter while traveling, and how does he respond to them? Where does he find the strength to persevere?
- Describe Mrs. Ruffner and how she impacted his life. Who else had an impact on Washington?

WEEK 3 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 5

- Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.3-6 "Walt Whitman" - "read a poem."

- Do you believe that poetry is for you?

WEEK 3 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 6

- Materials: Journal

→ REFLECT

Have you ever been moved to worship God by a poem or song (often poems put to music)? Describe the experience.

WEEK 3 30m Plays: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 3

- Materials: The Tempest

→ RECAP

Think back on what you learned about Ariel and Caliban through Prospero's conversations with and about them. What is your opinion of Prospero at this point?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Act 1 Scene 2 p.41-49 "Come unto these" - "Speak not for him."

- What does Ferdinand think of Miranda? How do you think this relationship will develop or change?

→ ACTIVITY

★ TEACHER NOTE

The activity at the end of the lesson requires you to be present. Also, there are more layers to the activity than will likely fit in the remaining time after the reading is done. The point is to practice seeing the play from a different perspective, so feel free to stop at the end of the lesson time and move on or continue the activity if desired and time allows.

Term 1

With the remaining time, let's dig into Caliban's speech from earlier in this scene to work to stretch our imaginations and seek to understand his world from his perspective as well as Prospero's.

WEEK 4 30m History of Lit: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 4

Sir Walter Scott

Materials: English Literature for Boys & Girls

→ INTRO

E.M. Forster described Sir Walter Scott as a writer "over whom we shall violently divide," and certainly he has had his share of ardent readers and detractors. But one reason his works are still appreciated, as the literary critic Walter Allen said, is that "without being in the strict sense a historian, he revolutionized the writing of history." Today we will learn more about this author whom Virginia Woolf described as "perhaps the last novelist to practice the great, the Shakespearean art, of making people reveal themselves in speech," and of whom Jane Austen said, "Walter Scott has no business to write novels, especially good ones. It is not fair. He has Fame and Profit enough as a Poet"!

WEEK 6 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 12

John Keats

→ INTRO

Today, we will meet the second of the second-generation Romantic poets: John Keats. As we did with Shelley, look for some of the themes you've been learning about from the Romantic Period. There is only one poem to read today, because your understanding and appreciation of it will increase with multiple readings. Read it through more than once on your own, and if you would like some interpretive help, there is a link to a guide to the poem.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

This poem, Ode on a Grecian Urn, is a famous example of ekphrasis, which means the poetic description of a work of art. As you read, think about how the poetry engages with other arts, such as sculpture and music. What does it have to say about the limits of any one art form, or, put more bluntly, what can poetry do that sculpture can't, and vice versa?
∞ Link: Ode on a Grecian Urn

- The final enigmatic two lines have been an interpretive puzzle since Keats wrote this poem. What do you think he means by "Beauty is truth, truth beauty,—that is all / Ye know on earth, and all ye need to know." And why are they in quotation marks? Because the manuscript is unclear, sometimes the closing quotation mark is placed after "truth beauty." How might that change the meaning?

• COMPOSITION - Poetry

Think of a piece of art you have really loved in Picture Study. With an image of the art in front of you, start writing your own ekphrastic poem about it. Include any notes about why you chose to write it the way you did. Work to keep your chosen meter/rhyme scheme consistent.

José María Heredia

→ RECAP

What do you remember about Gertrudis Gomez de Avellaneda's life and poetry?

→ INTRO

As a child in Cuba, Gertrudis Gomez de Avellaneda was tutored by the Cuban Romantic poet José María Heredia. Today, we will learn more about him and read two selections of his poetry. If you are reading The Lightning Dreamer, you will discover just how much influence Heredia had on Gertrudis Gomez de Avellaneda's development as a writer and thinker.

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about the circumstances surrounding William's death from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.58-65 "We entered the gloomy prison" - "giver of oblivion."

- From Karen Swallow Prior: "What is Justine's place in the family? What is her character like? How does her presence invoke issues of class and economic status?"
- Victor reflects: "Despair! Who dared talk of that? The poor victim, who on the morrow was to pass the awful boundary between life and death, felt not, as I did, such deep and bitter agony." What do you make of this? What does it say about Victor's sense of himself?

What do you recall about Victor's state of mind after Justine's death from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.65-73 "I spent the following day" - "and fell asleep."

- What is Victor's relationship to nature in this section? If you have read Percy Shelley's poem "Mont Blanc," do you see any similarities?
- What are your first impressions of hearing the creature speak? Did any of it surprise you?
- The creature declares, "I was benevolent and good; misery made me a fiend" (p.69). If you have read Paradise Lost, do you recognize any echoes of Milton's epic in today's reading? In the original 1818 version, Shelley included a quotation from Paradise Lost as an epigram ("Did I request thee, Maker, from my Clay / To mould me Man? Did I solicit thee / From darkness to promote me?")

WEEK 1 30m History of Lit: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 13

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Materials: History of Lit PDF

→ INTRO

For the next few weeks, we will meet a selection of American writers and poets who were active in the mid-to-late nineteenth century, around the years 1840-1876. As an introduction, Long has a helpful overview of the characteristics of the literature written during this period.

∞ Link: History of Lit PDF p.14-15 "We have noted the significant fact" - "consider an age of poetry."

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

1. ∞ Article Link: Biography of Ralph Waldo Emerson

- Do you recognize some of the names of writers who influenced Emerson and who admired him in turn?

2. Spend some time exploring poems written by Emerson, or read excerpts from his famous essay "Self-Reliance" (you probably won't have time to read the whole thing during this lesson time, but you could come back to it later).

∞ Link: Poems by Emerson

Lightning Dreamer

Materials: Lightning Dreamer

→ RECAP

What injustice does Tula experience in the last reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.73-90

- Has your impression of Tula's mother changed at all throughout the story?
- Do Manuel's actions change your perception of him? How has he supported Tula throughout the story?

• COMPOSITION -

Compare/Contrast

Compare the concerns of Tula, Manuel, Caridad, Mama, and the Nuns in p.73-83.

Are they justified or not, given the time and setting?

★ TEACHER NOTE

The tertulias brought people together in quiet defiance. They were often political rebellion disguised as parties; a way of sharing counterculture ideas in places where fascist regimes had made it dangerous, even illegal, to gather.

WEEK 1 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 26

Silas Marner

Materials: Silas Marner

→ INTRO

The modernist writer Virginia Woolf once praised George Eliot's Middlemarch as "one of the few English novels written for grown-up people," and this suggestion of sophistication, psychological depth, and a moral imagination could equally apply to the next novel you will read in this course, Silas Marner. George Eliot, the pen name for Mary Ann Evans, described the novel to her publisher as "a sort of legendary tale" to which she decided to give "a more realistic treatment." As you read, look for how these strands of fairy tale or legend interweave with a realistic depiction of nineteenth-century English village life.

→ READ & NARRATE

p.5-13 "In the days when" - "been nowhere else."

- How would you describe the setting of Raveloe?
- What are your first impressions of Silas Marner? How does your first impression of him change as you read about his life fifteen years earlier in Lantern Hill?

WEEK 1 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 25

Materials: The Word Made Fresh

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.42-44 "As we begin" - "move on."

- In what situations should you NOT heed the author's advice to just move on if you don't like something? Sometimes we have to work to enjoy something and look for ways to make it interesting for ourselves. But sometimes it is ok to just acknowledge that something is not our personal preference and move on. Notice that the author is not saying give up on POETRY, but just on a particular poem that doesn't strike you.

WEEK 1 15m Poetry Study: Grade 10 - Lesson 26

Materials: Anthology & Journal

→ READ & REFLECT

Find a poem that compels you to respond. What was the connection? How did you respond? Note your likes and dislikes.

WEEK 1 30m Plays: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 13

Materials: Henry IV Part 2

→ INTRO

Henry IV Part 2 is a tale about Prince Hal falling into his father's footsteps as king. Hal's life will no longer be the same when he feels the weight of the crown. Henry IV Part 2 is actually the third play in a tetralogy. The Henriad is all about Henry becoming the warrior king. Let's take time to review the first 6 slides on the Henriad plays to better understand the play.

∞ Link: Henriad

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Induction - Act 1 Scene 1 p.7-25 "Open your ears," - "yet more need."

- What role do you think Northumberland will play in this story?

Henry David Thoreau

Materials: History of Lit PDF

→ RECAP

What stood out most to you in reading about Emerson last week?

→ INTRO

Another Transcendentalist writer who was strongly influenced by Emerson was Henry David Thoreau. As you read today, see if you recognize similar themes and concepts from what you read last week.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

1. ∞ Article Link: Biography of Henry David Thoreau

2. "Solitude" from Walden

You will be working on making an outline of Thoreau's essay today and in Composition. As you read, list the main ideas/phrases or summarize sections.

∞ Link: History of Lit PDF p.23-30

- How does Thoreau differentiate between being alone and loneliness? Why, according to him, can people be lonely even when they are with others?
- What does this reading tell us about how Thoreau relates to nature?
- Which aspects of Thoreau's views on solitude are most relevant today? Do you think that modern society still values solitude? What has perhaps made it harder to be alone in the way Thoreau describes?

→ INTRO

When Ralph Waldo Emerson first read Walt Whitman's collection Leaves of Grass, he wrote the following in a letter: "I find it the most extraordinary piece of wit and wisdom that America has yet contributed. I am very happy in reading it, as great power makes us happy. [. . .] I greet you at the beginning of a great career, which yet must have had a long foreground somewhere, for such a start. I rubbed my eyes a little, to see if this sunbeam were no illusion; but the solid sense of the book is a sober certainty. It has the best merits, namely, of fortifying and encouraging."

Which Whitman poem from last class do you remember the best?

→ INTRO

Have you come across the term "elegy" in your study of poetry so far? An elegy is a melancholy, reflective lyric poem written to commemorate the death of a person or any other type of loss. Typically, these poems contain lament, praise, and then often turn to consolation. "When Lilacs Last in the Dooryard Bloom'd" is an elegy written by Whitman after the death of Abraham Lincoln. After Lincoln's assassination, his body travelled the 1600 miles from Washington, DC to Illinois.

The Aeneid - Introduction

□ Materials: The Aeneid

→ INTRO

What do you know about an "epic" – what are the connotations of the word more broadly, and what do you know about epics in literature? Name any you have read and what you remember about epic conventions.

Virgil's Aeneid is an epic that owes much to Homer's two books, The Iliad and The Odyssey, which you may have already read in part or as a retelling. Chronologically, the story of The Aeneid picks up where the Iliad left off - with the fall of Troy - but Virgil lived 700-800 years after Homer, in Rome rather than Greece, and in a very different world. During Virgil's lifetime, the Roman Republic was coming to an - at times violent - end, and amid this uncertainty, Virgil looked backwards and chose the beginning of Rome as his epic subject: following the Trojan Aeneas from the destruction of Troy to the founding of a new city.

C.S. Lewis, in his Preface to Paradise Lost, saw epics like the Iliad, The Odyssey, and Beowulf as "Primary Epics": they are works written down after a long tradition of oral storytelling, and they tell the story of heroic deeds in order that such deeds may be remembered. They are myth-making stories, far more concerned with the life of one hero - Achilles, Odysseus, Beowulf - than with the wider historical context. However, Lewis argues that something new happens with Virgil, and the Aeneid is the earliest example of a "Secondary Epic": "one of the most important revolutions in the history of poetry." In The Aeneid, Lewis writes, Virgil "decides to take one single national legend and treat it in such a way that we feel the vaster theme to be somehow implicit in it. He has to tell a comparatively short story and give us the illusion of having lived through a great space of time. He has to deal with a limited number of personages and make us feel as if national, or almost cosmic, issues are involved. He must locate his action in a legendary past and yet make us feel the present, and the intervening centuries, already foreshadowed."

Act 4 Scene 3 p.187-203 "Let there be" - "shall Harry die."

- Why is King Henry mad at Prince Hal?
- Put this quote from the scene into your own words:

"No, I will sit and watch here by the King.
Why doth the crown lie there upon his pillow,
Being so troublesome a bedfellow?
O polished perturbation, golden care,
That keep'st the ports of slumber open wide
To many a watchful night!"

WEEK 10 30m History of Lit: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 22

Matthew Arnold

→ INTRO

In an 1890 edition of The Parents' Review, Charlotte Mason wrote: "The happy phrase of Mr. Matthew Arnold—which we have appropriated as the motto of the Parents' Review—is, perhaps, the most complete and adequate definition of education we possess. It is a great thing to have said, 'Education is an atmosphere, a discipline, a life.'" Now, no one, including Mason herself, has been able to track down exactly where Arnold said this, but his influence on Mason's educational philosophy can be found throughout her writings. Today we will learn more about this school inspector, educational theorist, poet, cultural critic, and father of the genre we now call literary criticism.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

Materials: English Literature for Boys & Girls

→ INTRO

William Long writes of Tennyson: "Though the Victorian age is notable for the quality and variety of its prose works, its dominant figure for years was the poet Tennyson. He alone, of all that brilliant group of Victorian writers, seemed to speak not for himself but for his age and nation; and the nation, grown weary of Byronic rebellion, and finding its joy or sorrow expressed with almost faultless taste by one whose life was noble, gave to Tennyson a whole-souled allegiance such as few poets have ever won." And he goes on, "There is a wide variety in Tennyson's work: legend, romance, battle song, nature, classic and medieval heroes, problems of society, questions of science, the answer of faith,— almost everything that could interest an alert Victorian mind found some expression in his poetry." Today, you will learn more about his life and work, and will read his well-known poem Ulysses, if you are taking the Poetry Reading course.

What do you recall about Walton's letter to his sister from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.158-166 "I write to you" - "darkness and distance."

- Why do you think Shelley includes the mutiny plot and the decision to return to England at the end of the novel?
- How does Walton react to the Creature? How does he describe him?
- What do you think of the final image in the novel of the Creature "lost in darkness and distance." Is the story resolved? Or are there elements of the narrative that feel unfinished?
- Overall, what are your reflections on the novel?

• COMPOSITION - Descriptive

The narrative that frames Frankenstein - letters from Walton to his sister - takes place in the Arctic on a vessel bound for scientific exploration. From other reading you have done this year, what do you think is the significance of the Arctic as the setting of the final confrontation between creator and creation? How does it connect to other natural environments described in the novel?

WEEK 11 15m Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12 - Lesson 46

Alfred Lord Tennyson

→ INTRO

If you are taking the History of Literature course, you will have met the English poet Alfred Lord Tennyson this week, a master of blank verse (among other forms), whose poems cover a range of diverse topics, including Arthurian legends, nature, mourning historical events, and the human condition. Today you will read Ulysses, a blank verse (unrhymed lines of iambic pentameter) monologue spoken by the epic hero (also called Odysseus) at the end of his life as he plans for one more journey. If you read the Odyssey last year, you will recognize familiar characters and references.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

"The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County" by Mark Twain

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

We've included audio versions of these stories as an alternative to reading the written stories. Short stories can be especially fun to hear aloud with a talented narrator, though it will take longer than reading the story.

Mark Twain (1835–1910) is the pen name of Samuel Clemens, one of America's most celebrated writers, who was known for his sharp wit. His most famous works include The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. Published in 1865, "The Celebrated Jumping Frog" was the story that made Twain a household name. Book 3 begins with Aeneas and his companions escaping from the destruction of Troy and beginning their arduous journey westward to Italy. They encounter several challenges and false starts along the way. Eventually, Aeneas hears that the Trojan Helenus, who has married Hector's widow Andromache, has settled in Buthrotum, and that is where our reading for today resumes.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Book 3, lines 350-592 "Here an incredible story" - "challenge all our children."

- Helenus, son of Priam and a seer, and Andromache are both characters from the Iliad. Why is it significant that Aeneas meets them at this point, and what prophecy does Helenus offer Aeneas?
- How is Buthrotum described? Is it familiar to Aeneas? Why does he choose to move on rather than stay and settle in a "miniature Troy"?

Jump Back, Paul

Materials: Jump Back, Paul

→ INTRO

Paul Lawrence Dunbar was one of the first Black Americans to earn a living as a writer, and he inspired many other literary giants who would come after him. In fact, "I know why the caged bird sings" (one of the most iconic lines in African American literature and the title of Maya Angelou's autobiography) comes from one of Dunbar's poems. He was the only Black student in his high school and became friends with Orville Wright and his brother Wilbur (who you may remember as the inventors of the airplane). The Wright brothers owned a printing press and published Dunbar's first writings. While Dunbar only lived to age 33, he has been described as "your favorite poet's favorite poet" due to the impact his large body of work had on future writers. Older students may want to read more about Dunbar in extra helpings.

"The Gold Bug" by Edgar Allan Poe

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Edgar Allan Poe (1809–1849) is one of America's most distinctive and influential writers. Poe is known for dark, atmospheric tales of mystery and the macabre. Surprisingly, he also pioneered the detective story! Poe had a fascination with puzzles, codes, and the power of careful reasoning. Published in 1843, "The Gold Bug" is a mystery with a secret message written in code, and cracking it requires sharp eyes and sharp thinking. As you read, pay close attention when the cipher appears and to how the code is broken. If you'd like, see if you can work through it yourself!

→ INTRO

In this scene, we will encounter a puzzling stage direction: "He exits, pursued by a bear." One question that interpreters ask is, Did they use a real bear? At the time, chained-up bears were used as live entertainment. Many have speculated whether or not the Bard would have used an actual bear in a live performance. Since using live bears raises many safety and ethical concerns, artists have since found fun ways to enact this scene. "The Tale of the Golden Cockrel" by Pushkin

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Alexander Pushkin (1799–1837) is Russia's most celebrated and beloved writer, widely considered the father of modern Russian literature. His poetry, novels, and stories established the literary tradition that nearly every Russian writer after him would build upon. Written in 1834, "The Tale of the Golden Cockrel" is one of his narrative poems written in the style of a Russian folktale. The story reads like a fairy tale but carries the sharp edge of a fable. "The Kingdom of Cards" by Rabindranath Tagore

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Rabindranath Tagore (1861–1941) was a Bengali poet, writer, and philosopher from India who became the first non-European writer to win the Nobel Prize in Literature, receiving it in 1913. He was a prolific writer of poetry, short stories, novels, and plays, and is still considered one of the greatest literary figures of the modern era. His short story "The Kingdom of Cards" is written in the style of a fairy tale and uses an imaginary world to say something true about the real one.

The Aeneid, cont.

Materials: The Aeneid

→ RECAP

What do you recall from what you read from the Aeneid last time?

→ INTRO

We are skipping Book 7 because of time constraints, but in the remaining readings from the Aeneid, you will notice a change of subject matter and style. If the first six books mirror the events of the Odyssey, the final six books mirror the events of the Iliad, with its martial theme.

Term 3

In Book 7, Aeneas and the Trojans finally arrive in the Italian lands they have been promised by fate. They meet King Latinus, who believes fate has chosen Aeneas to marry his daughter Lavinia, but Juno's fury sets in motion a chain of events that destroys this early peace and sets the stage for war.

Our reading today picks up partway through Book 8, after Aeneas has made an alliance with King Evander, whose son Pallas leads an army to give Aeneas assistance.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

1. Book 8, lines 717-858 "But the goddess Venus" - "all his children's children."

- What images does Vulcan forge onto the surface of the shield? Why are they significant at this point in the epic? Does this section help you understand what Lewis means when he argues that Virgil "must locate his action in a legendary past and yet make us feel the present, and the intervening centuries, already foreshadowed"?
- This section is another example of ekphrasis: a poetic description of a work of art. How does Virgil draw attention to the sculptural features of the shield? Could this shield actually exist as described, or is it mythical?

E. Pauline Johnson

→ INTRO

Emily Pauline Johnson was born to a Mohawk chief and an English mother, and grew up on the Six Nations Reserve in Ontario. She was educated at home, where she was immersed in both English literary traditions and Mohawk oral storytelling and developed a love for poetry. At a time when Indigenous peoples regularly faced discrimination, she was raised to value her dual heritage. She turned to writing and performing after her father's death to help support her family, traveling across Canada for 17 years. The first half of each of her shows was performed in Indigenous dress and the second half in an English gown, embodying the two cultures that made her who she was. She published her work under both "E. Pauline Johnson" and her Mohawk name, "Tekahionwake."

"The Adventure of the Speckled Band" by Arthur Conan Doyle

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Arthur Conan Doyle (1859–1930) was a British writer (born in Edinburgh, Scotland) and best known as the creator of Sherlock Holmes, arguably the most famous fictional detective in the world. He was knighted by King Edward VII in 1902. The Holmes stories defined the modern detective story and have never gone out of print. "The Adventure of the Speckled Band" is widely considered one of the finest Holmes stories ever written. As you read, pay attention to the clues Doyle plants along the way, and see how much you can figure out before he reveals the answer.

Materials: The Aeneid

→ RECAP

What do you recall from what you read from the Aeneid last time?

→ INTRO

In Book 9, Turnus - king of the Rutulians, ally to King Latinus, and suitor of Lavinia - wages a surprise nighttime attack on the Trojans while Aeneas is away. This book describes the ensuing battle, emphasizing the courage and loyalty of the Trojans and the human cost of war. Today's reading picks up in the middle of a battle and contains many vivid descriptions of violence.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

1. Book 10, lines 471-774 "Suddenly Pallas runs Rhoeteus through" - "scatter all his triumph."

- Compare Pallas and Turnus. What are their similarities and differences as warriors?
- How does this passage illustrate the human cost of war? One place to look is in the epic similes.
- How are the gods involved in the outcome?

Examination

Term 1

General Lit.: Grades 9-10

· Frankenstein: How are the feelings Walton describes having toward Frankenstein—such as sympathy, compassion, admiration, and pity—significant to other relationships in the novel? OR Discuss the role nature plays in the novel so far, and how it is connected to various characters' internal states.

· Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass: Explain why reading and literacy were such an important first step in Douglass's path from slavery to freedom. OR Describe some of the ways Douglass's Narrative is such a powerful argument against slavery.

Up from Slavery & The Souls of Black Folk: Describe Washington's and Du Bois's differing views on the purpose of education. OR Tell all you know about Washington's early life and how it impacted his future leadership at the Tuskegee school.

History of Lit: Grades 9-12

· Discuss some of the defining authors and characteristics of the literature written in the first half of the 1800s that we've studied so far. Organize your thoughts into at least two paragraphs.

Plays: Grades 9-12

· The Tempest: Choose one and give as much detail as possible:

- What lesson does Prospero learn by the end of the play, and how does it change his actions?

- Is Caliban justified in his anger toward Prospero? What might motivate Caliban to plot against Prospero?

- How does Prospero use magic to control the events on the island? Do you think he is fair in his use of magic? Why or why not?

Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12

· Describe the themes and style of the Romantic poets. Either make reference to and compare several of the poets you read this term, or do a deeper reflection on one individual poet.

· Reflect on your reading of Rabindranath Tagore this term. What are some of the major themes in The Crescent Moon? How would you describe his poetry style? Can you compare his work to other poetry you read this term?

Poetry Study: Grade 10

· What new ideas have you had about poetry this term?

Term 2

General Lit.: Grades 9-10

· Frankenstein: One of the components in the classical definition of tragedy is that a great hero is brought down by a fatal flaw in his character. If we read the novel as the tragedy of Victor Frankenstein, what is his fatal flaw? Or would you read it as a tragedy of another character instead?

OR

Frankenstein: From Karen Swallow Prior: How do the lines spoken by the creature to Victor upon their first meeting encapsulate the entire novel? "Remember, that I am thy creature: I ought to be thy Adam; but I am rather the fallen angel, whom thou drivest from joy for no misdeed. Everywhere I see bliss, from which I alone am irrevocably excluded. I was benevolent and good; misery made me a fiend. Make me happy, and I shall again be virtuous."

· Silas Marner: What does the gold symbolize to Marner in the beginning of the story, and how does its loss begin to change him? OR By placing characters into situations requiring moral actions, how does Eliot shape the ethical imagination of her readers?

History of Lit: Grades 9-12

· Discuss some of the defining authors and characteristics of the literature written in the mid-1800s that we've studied in Term 2. Organize your thoughts into at least two paragraphs.

Plays: Grades 9-12

- Henry IV, Part 2: Choose one and give as much detail as possible:
- What struggles does King Henry IV face in this play, and how do they affect his rule?
- Do you think Prince Hal was ready to be King? Why or why not?
- How does Prince Hal's relationship with Falstaff change by the end of the play? Why does he make this decision?

Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12

- George Herbert Palmer wrote that "we get used to things and how dull things then become! . . . The genuine poet never grows used to anything." Support or refute this statement with reference to some of the poetry you have read this term.
- Tell or write what you know about Gertrudis Gómez de Avellaneda and describe one of her poems OR Describe your favorite scene so far from the Aeneid.

Poetry Study: Grade 10

- Share a poem with someone that you have enjoyed, or tell about one poem you have enjoyed and why.

Term 3

General Lit.: Grades 9-10

· Short Stories and Folk Tales: Choose one story from this term that ends with a "twist" and explain how its ending works. What does it reveal? Why is it effective? What do you think the author most wanted you to take away? OR Poe's Legrand and Doyle's Sherlock Holmes both solve mysteries through observation and logic, but they are very different kinds of characters. Compare and contrast the two. Which one did you find more compelling and why?

· Silas Marner: Do you think that Silas Marner is more of a fairy tale or a realistic novel? Give some specific examples from the novel that support your argument. OR Provide a detailed character sketch of one of the characters from the novel. What are they like? How do they change in response to what happens to them?

History of Lit: Grades 9-12

· Describe some of the genres you've studied this term and tell about one particular piece or author you read about with more detail.

Plays: Grades 9-12

- The Winter's Tale: Choose one and give as much detail as possible:
- Why does King Leontes wrongly accuse his wife, Hermione, and what are the consequences of his actions?
- Is King Leontes a good man? Why or why not?
- How does the story shift from tragedy to comedy? What events make this possible?

Poetry Reading: Grades 9-12

- Describe what you remember about Paul Laurence Dunbar's life and how it influenced the style and subject matter of his poems.
- Describe the role of the gods and fate in some of the episodes of The Aeneid OR Compare Aeneas to some other epic heroes you have read.

Poetry Study: Grade 10

- What 4 Questions can we ask about?
