About the Course

This course includes the following topic(s): Plutarch: Grades 6-8, Canadian Government: Grade 7, Ethics: Part 1, Current Events: Grades 5-8, Community Read Alouds: Grades 1-12

About Plutarch: Grades 6-8

Plutarch's Lives is a collection of biographies written 2,000 years ago, which has influenced prominent thinkers from Montaigne to Bacon to Shakespeare. Plutarch's stories are often difficult to read (and are therefore often dropped by teachers), but their value to help students evaluate the characteristics that define a good citizen cannot be overstated. The lesson plans will contain additional support to what is already included in the Anne White guides.

About Current Events: Grades 5-8

Students are exposed to current events by reading from a variety of sources and having age-appropriate conversations with teachers. Topics such as scientific discoveries, the arts, and human interest stories are generally suitable.

About Canadian Government: Grade 7

Students learn about the electoral process, the different aspects of parliamentary government, the Canadian legal system, and the concept of citizenship. They will spend the final term learning about the structure of our local and provincial authorities.

About Community Read Alouds: Grades 1-12

This is meant to be a read-aloud for all ages to enjoy together in the afternoon at least 1 time a week. We encourage you to choose a book that is specific to your region. However, we will offer some suggestions in the Grades 1-3 Literature lessons and Grades 4+ Citizenship lessons. The suggested book titles will be available June 1st in the lesson plans.

About Ethics: Part 1

One of Mason's main pillars is that the student is born a "person." Ourselves is the book in which she defines that term, and it is the only volume she wrote directly to students. The book is divided into two parts. We use Ourselves Part 1 in Grades 7-9 and Part 2 in Grades 10-11, as Mason did in her own schools. In these books, students will explore characteristics shared by all Image-Bearers and learn how to guard against good servants becoming bad masters with Charlotte Mason's text written directly to students.

Placement & Combining Tips

Plutarch: Grades 6-8

Students in 5th grade or new to Plutarch may want to take the Beginner's Track, which covers the life of Publicola over two terms. It is advisable to have students read Beesly's Stories From the History of Rome and complete one year of Shakespeare before beginning Plutarch.

Ethics: Part 1

Ourselves by Charlotte Mason is scheduled over five years. In a multi-age context, students can jump into the book wherever the class is reading. Otherwise, students should begin the book in Part 1.

Responsibility for previewing all links rests with the teacher. All links were checked at the time of publication; however, websites change frequently and may contain objectionable content. Please report broken links by contacting us through our website.

Citizenship: Grade 7 (Canada)

☐ Make sure your student sets up a Citizenship Notebook. They will need a 3-ring binder, lined notebook paper, and 5 Tabbed Dividers. You can read more about how to set one up and suggestions for various sections in the document in Quick Links.

☐ As desired, plan for a read aloud time. Suggestions are provided in the Community Read Aloud Quick Link, but local favorites are highly recommended whenever possible.

☐ Make a Calendar of Events for Current Events lessons by drawing a calendar grid in a notebook (or print a blank calendar from the internet).

Plutarch: Grades 6-8

☐ Watch the video in Quick Links about teaching Plutarch.

How To Teach

Prepare

Plutarch: Teachers will find it helpful to preread the entire Life first, and then preread the day's passage before each lesson. Mark any passages that should be omitted due to content. (In Anne White's Plutarch Project books, the recommended source for this course, objectionable content has already been omitted.)

Current Events: Preview the news source for suitability.

Most other citizenship topics don't require additional prep.

Recap

Connect back to the previous lesson. (Optional for Current Events).

Introduce

For news sources, show students how to scan the headlines to get an overview first and then choose a story to read.

For Plutarch or other books: Use a picture, a map, or an engaging question to prepare students to receive the story as relevant. You may talk about one or two unfamiliar words that will be crucial to understanding. It is not necessary to cover all unfamiliar words.

Read

Read the selection assigned or the news story chosen. For rich, dense, or more challenging books such as Ourselves and Plutarch, it is a good idea to read them aloud. Have students keep an eye out for things to add to their Citizenship Notebook, Book of Centuries, and/or Commonplace book.

Narrate

Have the students narrate orally or in writing.

Discuss

Give students an opportunity to share their thoughts on the story and any connections made. For current events, look up where events occurred on a map and ask questions to help students discern the quality of the piece. (e.g., Are there sources cited? Is there an obvious bias? If so, what do other authors have to say on this subject? Are arguments supported by evidence? Is that evidence credible?) Consider reading an alternative perspective.

Citizenship Notebook

Have students record important ideas in their Citizenship Notebooks.

Term 1

WEEK 1 25m Ethics: Part 1 - Lesson 1

Country of Mansoul

Materials: Ourselves

→ INTRO

Charlotte Mason, the author of this text, felt that the available material on formal formation during her time was severely lacking; what was available she considered unsuitably preachy and uninteresting. She felt compelled to write an approachable but challenging alternative, which is the text for this course: Ourselves.

Mason believed that before we could fully consider our duties to God, country, and others, we must first know and begin to understand ourselves, including the possibilities and risks inherent in all of us. Self-knowledge, in her view, was the inevitable prerequisite to self-direction, which is why she aptly named the first and second "Books" of Ourselves after each.

In order to present these ideas in an interesting way, she used the allegory of a country and its government. In her own words: "The realised self of each of us is a distressfully poor thing, and yet upon its insight and its action depends the redemption of that greater self, whose limitations no man has discovered. It is, to use a figure, as the relation between a country and its government. The country is ever greater than the governing body; and yet, for its development, the former must depend upon the latter."

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.I p.1-2 "Do ye not" - "be a hero."

• CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK

Begin drawing a map of Mansoul using information from today's reading.

• DEFINITIONS

londes: an old English word for lands

WEEK 1 25m Canadian Government: Grade 7 - Lesson 1

Introduction

Materials: Who Runs This Country, Anyway?

→ INTRO

How would you answer the question that is in the title of the book you will begin reading today? Who is in charge in Canada? How does our country make decisions? How does a law get made? What happens during an election? In this course, you will learn about the electoral process, the different aspects of parliamentary government, the Canadian legal system, and the concept of citizenship.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.1-6 "All week our classmates" - "in a moment." (Audiobook chapters 1-2)

→ NOTEBOOK

The Citizenship Notebook is an excellent place to keep track of definitions and to copy in diagrams. If any of these terms are new to you, you may choose to include definitions in your notebook: democracy, municipal, federal, parliament, legislature, legislative, executive, judicial. As you read through the book this year, look for other terms that are new to you. The diagram on page 6 would also be a good one to add to your notebook.

★ TEACHER TIP

If you are using the audio recording of the book, the readings will correspond with the audiobook chapters (with timestamps, if necessary), and the recordings clearly denote the corresponding page numbers. Students can be encouraged to take notes as they listen to the audio recording.

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m Plutarch: Grades 6-8 - Lesson 1

Julius Caesar p.1-12

Materials: The Plutarch Project Volume 3, Historical Atlas

PREP: We highly recommend reading a retelling so you can be familiar with the story. This is for your understanding and should not be read to the students. Read the introduction, review vocabulary, and preread the lesson.

∞ Link: Retelling of Caesar (from Our Young Folks' Plutarch)

→ INTRO

Have you ever heard of Julius Caesar? If so, what do you know about him?

→ VIEW

∞ Image Link: Julius Caesar

→ LOCATE

Map Resource: Historical Atlas p.14-15

1. Take 1-2 minutes to look over the map of the Roman Republic and the surrounding "world" in Caesar's time.
2. Find Rome in Italy.
3. Find the Aegean Sea between the province of Asia and Achaea. This is the coastline where the pirates operated.
4. Find Bithynia on the southern shore of the Black Sea, where Caesar went after his release.

These are the places where a teenager on the wrong side of Roman politics spent his first years away from home.

→ VIEW & PRACTICE

Review the vocabulary section before each lesson to familiarize yourself with unfamiliar terms. It may be helpful for students to write definitions into the text, so they do not have to review terms mid-lesson.

→ READ & NARRATE

Lesson One: Parts One - Three p.9-12

- Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

In the introduction of Lesson One, we learn that "young Julius Caesar was on the wrong side. Most people in that position would have stayed hidden or at least tried to live quietly" (p.7). In a situation where staying silent means comfort and safety, what factors or beliefs might make a person decide that standing up is worth the risk?

→ WRITE (OPTIONAL CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK EXERCISE)

If you found yourself on the "wrong side" of a big decision at school or with your friends, and staying quiet was the only way to stay safe and comfortable, how would you decide which ideas are worth being "exiled" for and which ones are just you being stubborn?

★ TEACHER TIP

∞ Link: Character Cards

To keep track of all of the characters in the story, it may be helpful for your student to keep a list or chart of some kind in their citizenship notebook. They could also sketch the characters and include facts about them. Or, you could use the linked character cards.

★ TEACHER NOTE

• CHARACTERS

-Julius Caesar (JOOL-yus, SEE-zar): Roman statesmen and general, held many high civic, military, and religious positions, and was a noted orator and writer.

-Sulla (SUH-luh): was made the Perpetual Dictator, but resigned after one year and was elected as a consul instead.

-Cinna (SIN-uh): There are several Cinna's in the story. This Cinna, Lucius Cornelius Cinna the Elder, is Caesar's first father-in-law and ally of Marius, Caesar's uncle.

-Marius (MARR-ee-us): involved in a Civil War against Sulla and was an ally of Cinna, the father-in-law of Caesar

-King Nicomedes (nih-kuh-MEE-deez): King of Bithynia 94-74BC

-Marcus Juncus (MAHR-kuss, JUNG-kuss): governor of Asia in 75BC

Country of Mansoul

 Materials: Ourselves

→ RECAP

In the last lesson, we were introduced to the country of Mansoul. How would you describe it in your own words?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.I p.3-4 "There are libraries" - "rich and beautiful."

• CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK

Continue work on map of Mansoul.

• DEFINITIONS

cricket: a bat and ball game that originated and is popular in England

• COMPOSITION

How is Mansoul like a rich and beautiful land?

WEEK 2 25m Canadian Government: Grade 7 - Lesson 2

Senators, the Supreme Court, and the Prime Minister

 Materials: Who Runs This Country, Anyway?

→ RECAP

What do you remember about the three levels of government from last week?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.7-11 "When adults talk" - "by the government." (Audiobook chapters 3 0:00-8:49)

The following are points you can discuss with your parent or teacher, or write about in your citizenship notebook.

- Who are Senators, and what are the four important roles of the Senate?
- What is the role of the Supreme Court?
- What is the role of the Prime Minister? What kinds of appointments can he or she make?

→ LOCATE

Map Resource: Historical Atlas p.14-15

1. Find Hither Spain and Farther Spain on the western edge of the map.

Both are already "Roman Pink."

2. Find the Alps. This is the route Caesar traveled when he passed through a tiny village and said, "For my part, I had rather be the chiefest man here, than the second person in Rome" (p.15, The Plutarch Project).

→ VIEW & PRACTICE

Review the vocabulary section before each lesson to familiarize yourself with unfamiliar terms. It may be helpful to write definitions into the text, so you do not have to review terms mid-lesson.

→ READ & NARRATE

Lesson Two: Parts One - Three p.14-17

• Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are a young officer who rode with Caesar when he passed through a tiny village in the Alps and said he would rather be the first man there than the second in Rome. What do you think about that comment?

→ WRITE (OPTIONAL CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK EXERCISE)

Explain how you might distinguish between a person who wants to do great things and a person who simply wants to be the greatest.

★ TEACHER NOTE

The map shows the world in 31BC, shortly after Caesar's time. You will notice Italy is shaded pink; while it was the Roman Homeland and not a province, it is colored here to show it was under central Roman control.

While all of Gaul is pink on this map, remember that when Caesar began his command, only the southern tip belonged to Rome. His campaigns are what eventually brought the rest of that territory into the Empire.

• DEFINITIONS

Pontifex Maximus: There were numerous levels and types of priesthood in Rome and throughout the rest of Italy, and these positions carried political as well as spiritual authority.

• CHARACTERS

-Catulus (kuh-TUL-uhs): an avowed enemy to the Marian (Marius's) party

-Isauricus (eye-SAW-rih-kus): a consul and general who fought against the Cilician pirates

-Crassus (KRAS-us): Roman senator and a conspirator against Caesar

-Cato (KAY-toe): statesmen that had many conflicts of opinion against Caesar

-Alexander (al-ig-ZAN-der): Alexander the Great

-Calpurnius Bibulus (kal-PUR-nee-us, BIB-yoo-lus): consul alongside Caesar

Find Transalpine Gaul and the Rhine River marking the boundary between Gaul and Germania. Notice that Germania is entirely outside the Roman pink. This is the boundary Caesar was about to push.

★ TEACHER NOTE

Germania was entirely outside Roman control.

- The Rhine was the line Caesar pushed against, even crossing it twice (in 55BC and 53BC) to build famous bridges and conduct show of force expeditions.

- Despite these incursions, Rome never successfully turned the main body of Germania into a permanent province, even in the centuries following Caesar.

- Once finished, ask, "What do you remember?" + "What else?" Keep narration to 2-3 minutes.

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR

You are one of Caesar's soldiers who has watched him for days while he was ill and exhausted. Tonight he is sick again. What do you think about his choices while chronically ill (p.22)?

→ WRITE (OPTIONAL CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK EXERCISE)

Describe the different ways Caesar and his companions responded to the dish served by their host in Milan (p.23).

Sweet Ointment: also translated "oil of perfume" or "myrrh." It appears that Valerius Leo hadn't just pulled out the wrong bottle of salad dressing, but rather that he was trying to show off his wealth. The reference to the host's want of breeding seems to confirm that.

• CHARACTERS

-Servilius Caepio (ser-VIL-ee-us, SEE-pee-oh): engaged to Caesar's daughter, Julia

-Piso (PEE-so): consul in 58BC

-Clodius (KLOH-dee-us): interrupted a women's religious ritual and was the cause of Caesar's divorce from Pompeia

WEEK 6	25m Ethics: Part 1 - Lesson 6 Esquires of the Body: Hunger Materials: Ourselves → INTRO What do you remember about the government of Mansoul? Why is it important to understand these powers within a person? In today's reading, you'll hear the word esquire. In Mason's time, an esquire was often one who received a title (such as "lord") for service to the king. Sometimes they worked for the good of the kingdom, but other times to gain an advantage over others. How would that affect the kingdom? In this book, Mason gives the name "esquire" to the appetites of the body. As we read, keep this in mind. → READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS Pt.I Ch.I p.11-13 "We will first" - "two hours long." • CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK Start a chart of the government of Mansoul that includes the King, the Prime Minister, and the Esquires. As you read, tell what their duties are and how each has the potential to damage the kingdom of Mansoul when they try to become too powerful.

You are Caesar in the moment before you cover your face and give up. You have fought off the others. You are still standing. And then you see Brutus. Something finally stops all the fight in you. You have outrun everything your whole life. What is it that you are finally deciding to stop outrunning (p.78)?

→ WRITE (OPTIONAL CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK EXERCISE): PICK 1

You have served Caesar since his early campaigns. You have watched him win in Gaul, survive civil war, defeat Pompey, and return to Rome in triumph. He is now planning new campaigns as if none of it had happened. What does it feel like to follow a man who cannot stop? What do you think he is still looking for?

The crowd killed Cinna the poet because he had the same name as Cinna the conspirator. He tried to tell them who he was, and it made no difference. Think about a situation where a person was judged entirely by something they had no control over. What does that kind of mistake reveal about what happens to people's judgment when they are driven by grief or rage (p.80)?

→ DISCUSS: CHARACTER SIMULATOR: PICK 1

Agis is not yet twenty years old. He has grown up with wealth and comfort provided by his mother and grandmother, the richest women in Sparta. Plutarch says he "began to spurn against these womanish delights and pleasures" and chose the plain Spartan life instead. Nobody made him do this. What do you think happened inside him, and what does his choice tell you about what kind of person he was becoming (p.91)?

Agis's mother and grandmother were the richest women in Sparta and had the most to lose from his reforms. They opposed him at first. Then something changed, and they not only consented but became his most vocal supporters, willing to give up their own wealth for his cause. What do you think changed their minds? What does their behavior tell you about those women (p.96)?

→ WRITE (OPTIONAL CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK EXERCISE): PICK 1

Agis "openly boasted besides, that he would not desire to be king, but only for the hope he had to restore the ancient Laconian life by his authority" (p.91). What do you think he meant?

Agesilaus persuaded Agis to cancel the debts first and divide the land later, arguing that doing both at once might cause dangerous commotion. Then, Plutarch reveals his motives, "Agesilaus...having the best lands of any man in the country, and owing a great sum of money besides, would neither pay his debts, nor let go his land" (p.99). Think about the difference between counsel and manipulation. How do you learn to tell the difference when someone gives you advice?

He is telling you directly how to read what just happened. What does it mean when the biographer steps into the story and tells you what to think? Does it change how you receive it?

→ WRITE

You are a Greek citizen watching Aratus bring Antigonos and the Macedonians into the Peloponnese. Plutarch calls it "a practice far dishonest for a Grecian, very infamous for himself, but most dishonourable for the former noble acts he had done" (p.126). What do you think about that?

You are one of the soldiers who watched Cleomenes take Megalopolis. He had "taken strict care that the city should not be plundered" before offering it back to its citizens. When they refused, he destroyed it (p.138). What do you think about what you witnessed?

→ WRITE

You are standing at the temple door, watching Cratesiclea say goodbye to her son before boarding a ship for Egypt as a hostage. She tells him, "O King of Lacedaemon, let no man see for shame, when we come out of the temple, that we have wept and dishonoured Sparta. For that only is in our power, and for the rest, as it pleaseth the gods, so let it be" (p.135). What do you think about what she chose to say?

1. They were collateral: They were the price for ships and money.

2. They were high-ranking: Only the King's own mother and children were valuable enough to secure the alliance.

3. They were voluntary (in spirit): Cratesiclea views herself not as a victim, but as a Spartan citizen fulfilling a mission that is "profitable for Sparta."

WEEK 6 25m Ethics: Part 1 - Lesson 30

Lord Chief Attorney-General, Reason

☐ Materials: Ourselves

→ INTRO

What do you remember about how a good man's Reason operates? Why is Reason important for invention and innovation?

Today, we will hear about what happens when Reason is viewed as the highest possible aim.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Pt.II Ch.VI p.60-62 "It is very" - "the reasoning begins."

• COMPOSITION

Give some examples of Reason working its way out in your life or in your community.

You are a supporter of Tiberius. You see him touch his head to signal he is in danger, but "his enemies, seeing the sign he gave, ran presently to the Senate, and declared that Tiberius desired the people to bestow a crown upon him, as if this were the meaning of his touching his head" (p.186). Suddenly, a mob of Senators comes charging out of the meeting, armed with broken chair legs. Do you stay to fight, or do you flee?

→ WRITE (OPTIONAL CITIZENSHIP NOTEBOOK EXERCISE)

Tiberius was killed by a fellow Tribune with the "foot of a chair" (p.186). Plutarch notes that not one man was killed with an "iron weapon" (p.187). Why do you think Plutarch pointed this out?

WEEK 7 25m Canadian Government: Grade 7 - Lesson 31

Local Government

→ INTRO

Today, you will look at local government. Local governments are a paradox, because we most often forget that they exist, while they often have the most direct impact on our daily lives.

The head of the municipal government is usually called a mayor, but may have a different title in some places. Your municipality might be the same as your city, or, for smaller towns and rural areas, the municipality might be made up of several communities or a wider area. With the help of a parent or teacher look up the website for your municipality and try to answer the following questions:

What is the name of your municipality?

Can you find a map of it?

Who is the mayor (or other title) of your municipality?

What other representatives make up your local government and what are their titles?

When was the most recent election?

Who were the other candidates in the most recent election?

What percentage of the vote did each candidate receive?

Can you find out more information about your mayor from their own website?

Examination

Term 1

Current Events: Grades 5-8

- Tell the story of one of the news events of this term.

Plutarch: Grades 6-8

- You have followed Caesar from his early campaigns through every battle, every crisis, every triumph, and into Rome at the end. You have watched him grab sailors, swim through fire, feed horses seaweed, pardon enemies, refuse bodyguards, and finally cover his face and stop when he saw Brutus. Looking at the whole of what you witnessed: what did this man actually want, and did he ever get it?
- You are a Roman citizen who lived through all of it. Caesar was on the wrong side as a young man, nearly drowned escaping, nearly starved at Pharsalus, made himself dictator for life, died in the Senate chamber, and was declared a god three days later. The city burned. The men who killed him were hunted to their deaths. Now it is quiet. Was Rome better or worse for having had him? Why?
- You are someone who admired Caesar deeply and also someone who could see clearly what he was becoming. Those two things were both true at the same time for most of the people closest to him. Think about a person in your own life, a figure in history, or a character from a story, in whom you can see greatness and destructive behavior running alongside each other. What do you do with admiration that you cannot separate from concern?
- Tell me everything you remember about the life of Julius Caesar.

Ethics: Part 1

- Ourselves: Book I: Describe the work of two "Esquires of the Body" (appetites), and show that these Esquires must be servants, not masters, in Mansoul. OR Tell about some of the perils of Mansoul.

Canadian Government: Grade 7

- Explain at least two changes that occurred with the Constitution Act of 1982 OR Describe the steps involved from calling an election to the tallying of votes on election day.

Term 2

Current Events: Grades 5-8

- Tell the story of one of the news events of this term.

Plutarch: Grades 6-8

- Tell me everything you remember about the lives of Agis and Cleomenes.
- You have watched Agesilaus, Agis's own uncle, embrace the reform publicly, help burn the debt bonds in the marketplace, laugh at the "brightest fire" he had ever seen, and then delay the land division once, and again, and again, until the moment was lost and Leonidas came back, and Agis was killed in prison. Agesilaus was not a tyrant. He was not an enemy of Sparta. He was a debtor who did not want to pay. What do you think about his behavior?
- You are a Spartan woman. You watched Agesistrata and Archidamia killed in the same prison where Agis died. You watched Cratesiclea sail to Egypt as a hostage, forcing back her tears at the temple door so her son would not see her break. You watched Agiatis, widow of a murdered king, keep her husband's dream alive and pass it on to the man she was forced to marry. You watched Chilonis choose grief twice instead of safety once. The city is quiet now. Antigonos came and went without burning anything down. Was what these women carried worth what it cost them?

Ethics: Part 1

- Ourselves: Book I: Show that the sense of touch is a useful servant but a bad master. How may we get a "hearing ear?" Mention some sounds that you have enjoyed this term. OR How do the Beauty Sense and Imagination help assist Intellect in his travels?

Canadian Government: Grade 7

- Describe some or all of the following spaces at Parliament Hill: the House of Commons, the Senate, the Memorial Chamber, the Library of Parliament. Consider aspects such as: how the space is used, it's design and notable features, it's history, etc. OR Explain the process of how a bill becomes a law.

Term 3

Current Events: Grades 5-8

- Tell the story of one of the news events of this term.

Plutarch: Grades 6-8

- Tell me everything you remember about the lives of the Gracchi.
- The brothers were nothing alike, and everything alike. Tiberius was gentle and restrained. Gaius was feisty. Think of a time when you had to choose between patience and urgency, when both paths seemed right, but for different reasons. Which did you choose? What happened? Which brother do you think you are more like, and which one do you think you should try to be?
- You have followed the Gracchi from Cornelia's house through every assembly, every law, every riot, and into the silence after. You watched Tiberius weep before his father's statue on the last morning of his life, and keep walking. You watched Gaius pull his hand quietly from his wife's grip at the door and not look back. You watched Cornelia lose both sons and go on hosting dinner parties for learned men without shedding a tear. What do you think about their behavior? Is there a right way to face grief, loss, and fear?

Ethics: Part 1

- Ourselves: Book I: Tell that the Desires of (a) approbation, (b) wealth, and (c) power have their uses and their dangers. Give examples from books you have read, if possible. OR Describe the benefits of Reason, as well as the dangers of depending upon it.

Canadian Government: Grade 7

- Explain what the three levels of government are, including what services and issues each of them oversees OR Describe one of the articles you read this term.
