About the Course

This course includes the following topic(s): Composer Study, Hymns & Spirituals, Folk Songs, Sol-fa: Level 1, Afternoon Listening

About Hymns & Spirituals

Students sing hymns and spirituals to build their faith and appreciation of God's work across time. Hymns and spirituals are connected to the historical time period as appropriate.

About Folk Songs

Students sing folk songs connected to the time period (1800-1900).

About Composer Study

In this course students are immersed into the 19th century via it's composers, instruments, and musical performances. Term 1 focuses on several influential instruments/instrument families, including valved brass, the veena, and the guitar, and the musicians that made them famous. In Term 2, students will grow to know and love the Norwegian Romantic composer, Edvard Grieg. Students conclude the year in Term 3 with the comic operas of Gilbert & Sullivan and their choice between two composers who turned what they saw or heard into music: Modest Mussorgsky and Thomas ("Blind Tom") Wiggins.

About Sol-fa: Level 1

March, imitate, and play games with music. Explore how simple melodic patterns and rhythms build into scales. Finish with an understanding of dynamics, basic rhythms, and the sol-fa scale. Audio lessons are provided with the lesson plans.

Skill Focus: Rhythm, melody, scales, dynamics, and sol-fa syllables ("do" - "so").

Hymns & Spirituals

The Christian hymn and spiritual tradition is incredibly rich, and it is vanishing from many churches. In addition to bringing a much-needed moment of peace to your day, hymns can also introduce students to important theological ideas and church liturgy.

Folk Songs

The purpose of learning folk songs is twofold: to increase students' enjoyment of music and to situate folk music in its historical context in an effort to give students a richer understanding of the times and places that birthed the songs. A musical score is sometimes included for songs, but does not always exactly match the audio used, since folk songs are primarily oral songs and often take many different forms. Studying folk music helps students grow deep roots in our shared heritage and gives insight into historical events from the perspective of the people who were there.

Composer Study

"Music is no isolated thing. Its forms, colors, and expressive qualities do not spring from nowhere; they come out of life itself. Often, of course, they are to be enjoyed for themselves alone, in the concert hall or in one's armchair. But music also reflects human experiences, hopes, and struggles. It may give an insight into the individual and society, into the lives of those far removed from our own in time and place—an insight no other art can provide in this exact way."
~Elie Siegmeister

Placement & Combining Tips

All music lessons except sol-fa are shared between Grades 2-12, making them ideal lessons for multi-age groups.

Composer Study

These Composer Study lessons are shared across grades 2-12 with extensions provided for older students. Students in Grades 2-3 with no classical music background may choose to take Intro to Music Appreciation first, but the composers in this rotation are particularly accessible for a wide range of ages.

Sol-fa: Level 1

Grade 3 students with no experience with sol-fa or sight-reading music may start with Level 1.

Hymns & Spirituals

☐ Bookmark the Alveary hymns, spirituals, and folk song playlist for the year, or create your own YouTube, Spotify, or Amazon playlist if desired.

Composer Study

- Charlotte Mason often included more music in the program than could be covered in the lesson time. While we choose segments that fit the length of the lesson, students will develop a relationship with the term's music insofar as it is a part of their daily atmosphere.
- The YouTube playlist contains nearly the whole year's music, though lessons will occasionally have extra links to historical or musical information. Feel free to create your own playlist if you prefer other platforms to YouTube; though videos are often chosen for visual and sometimes historical interest, the crucial element is the music itself.
- Use the year's playlist to listen to previous and current pieces in the afternoons, and explore the Extra Helpings as interested (ideas which relate directly to a lesson are usually included nearby, while more general resources and activities are listed on the Extra Helpings page). Grade 5+ extensions are also usually appropriate as Extra Helpings for interested younger students.

Sol-fa: Level 1

☐ Bookmark Sol-fa playlists (see Quick Links). If you create a free account on the SoundCloud app, the Sol-Fa lessons become downloadable for offline use.

Term Prep & Teacher Tips

Composer Study

☐ Lessons on Handel's Messiah are scheduled at the beginning of Term 2, so many students will reach them around the Christmas holidays. However, depending on how you schedule your year, this may not fit. Feel free to complete the lessons whenever suits your schedule. The Messiah is as much (or more) an Easter piece as a Christmas one, so you could even bump it to Term 3!

How To Teach

Recap

- Specific recap questions are often suggested in the day's plans; ask students what they remember from the last lesson. If nothing comes to mind at first, tell them to give themselves another minute or two and to keep thinking. Our brains are amazing and can usually recall the previous lesson with a minute of effort. Refrain from doing the work of remembering yourself if you are leading the lessons.
- For composer study, a recap might look like a brief discussion about the name or sound of the piece you listened to previously.
- For hymns and folk songs, this might be an effort to hum the melody or recite the words of the song you're currently learning.
- For sol-fa, it might be a quick explanation of the sol-fa syllable you learned or a tricky rhythm or interval you were working to master.
- If students have difficulty recalling, teachers might try showing them a picture or sharing something that the teacher remembers. This will often refresh their memory enough to allow them to recall.
- If students still cannot recall anything from the last reading, then teachers may consider continuing anyway or repeating the last lesson.

Introduce

- Prepare to listen to the day's musical selection by inviting students to consider an interesting musical or historical idea in the lesson. Perhaps it's a unique word, rhythm, instrument, or piece of historical background. You might introduce it by the way, or read a selection of a composer's bio or a brief article to students.

Listen & Sing

- Listen to the day's musical selection.
- Composer study lessons will usually have you listen to a piece of music for 3-8 minutes. If students have a difficult time listening for the duration of the lesson, stop the music at their limit.
- Some students might draw, color, or engage in a handicraft while listening to help extend their listening time. Students who have a difficult time sitting still or listening may benefit from: a fidget of their choice, such as a piece of putty or clay or an afghan; flexible positioning, such as a wobble seat or inverted sitting; or sensory modulation, such as a weighted vest or blanket or adjustment of light, temperature, or sound.
- Hymn, folk song, or sol-fa lessons will sometimes have you listen to a part of the song and then practice echoing back the melody and/or words.

Discuss

- Composer Study: Talk about the musical selection you heard. What stood out to you? What did you notice? What did it make you wonder? Did it remind you of anything? Discuss the tempo, the sound of the music, the instruments used, the volume, and the mood. Why do you think the composer wrote it the way he did?
- Hymns, Spirituals, & Folk Songs: What lines strike you particularly? Is there a rhyme scheme to the lyrics? Is there a progression to each stanza? If you were to add a verse to the song, what would you add? If you took a verse out, how do you think it would change the song? Do the melody and words go together? Why or why not?

- Sol-fa: Take a minute to reflect on what you learned in the lesson. Write down any notes you want to remember and practice any particular exercises that were tricky.

Connect

- At the end of the lesson, think about how the day's musical selection connects to other books, subjects, characters in history, etc.
- You might copy down a stanza of a hymn in your Commonplace or Copywork book, read a bit more about the history behind a piece of music, jot down a noteworthy date in your Book of Centuries, or discuss a broader question raised in the lesson.

We're going to start learning how to sight-sing this term. Eventually, we'll be reading music, but first, we need to train our ears! As you work on singing melodies and rhythms, notice how your sol-fa lessons can help you sing your hymns or folk songs.

How Firm a Foundation

Materials: Our Hymns, Our Heritage, Our Work Book, and/or Music Selections Booklet

→ INTRO

Our first hymn this year is called "How Firm a Foundation." What is a foundation, and what do you think this hymn will be about?

→ LISTEN & PRACTICE

Today, focus on getting familiar with the hymn. Read the words aloud and listen to the full song. Note that various recordings sometimes use the older "thee" rather than "you" and annotate your lyrics depending on the recording you use. Notice, talk about, and look up any unfamiliar words.
∞ Music Links: How Firm a Foundation (YouTube or Spotify)

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Learn the history of the song from Our Hymns, Our Heritage. "Text and Tune" p.136

• EXTRA HELPINGS

Look at early copies of Rippon's hymnal. What differences and similarities do you notice between it and hymnals today? If interested, read the original hymn (note the extra verses which are less common today) and the prefaces.

∞ Book Links: 1801 and 1828 versions

• AFTERNOON LISTENING

Use your preferred recording to listen to the hymn in the afternoons, evenings, or anytime! The more you spend time with it, the more the words will sink into your head and your heart.

• IMPORTANT DATE

"How Firm a Foundation" published in Rippon's hymnal (1787 AD).

WEEK 1 10m Folk Songs - Lesson 1

Steal Away

Materials: Our Work or Music PDF, Like a Bird

→ INTRO

- The word "steal" usually means to take something that isn't yours. Can you think of any other meanings the word has?
- Tell what you think this sentence means: "Let's steal away now and tell them what we saw!"

→ READ & DISCUSS

Our first folk song for the year is called "Steal Away to Jesus." Its history is somewhat debated. Some think that Nat Turner was one of the first to sing it. Others tell the story of Wallace Willis and how the Reverend Alexander Reid heard Willis singing "Steal Away" (and Swing Low, Sweet Chariot) and told the Jubilee Singers, a famous singing group, about his songs in 1871. It's often hard to trace the history of songs that were orally composed and passed along to others!

Feel free to choose your own version of Steal Away to learn. Just know that the lyrics vary widely, so another audio or video is unlikely to match the words in your Our Work or Music books.

and the world because of the Fisk Jubilee Singers. Fisk University was founded in 1866, right after the Civil War ended with the Emancipation Proclamation. Students who had previously had limited access to higher education because of slavery and poverty flocked to its doors. But a few years later, the school was struggling financially, and many feared it would have to close. However, relief came from an unexpected source—one of the school's leaders organized a group of the school's talented singers and set up a series of concerts. Initially, they sang classical and popular songs familiar to their white audiences, but eventually the students began also singing the spirituals that they had sung during the years they were enslaved. These spirituals, like Steal Away and Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, skyrocketed the Fisk Jubilee Singers and the school to fame, and both still exist today! → COPYWORK (GRADE 4+)

Copy a line of the melody into your music journal and (if you are taking sol-fa), see if you can label the notes with the sol-fa syllables. Hint: it is written in the key of G, and the first note is "So." Count up how many different sol-fa syllables you used in the song [there should be five]. This hymn is written using the pentatonic scale (often a major scale omitting fa and ti). Many other hymns (like Amazing Grace) are also written with only these five different sol-fa syllables. With remaining time (and feel free to continue on your own time if desired), sketch or paint an illustration for each verse in your music notebook or alongside your lyrics.

★ TEACHER TIP

If a student has a hard time coming up with an idea for an illustration, encourage them to focus on just one image from a verse to illustrate. There are no wrong illustrations as long as the student connects it to an aspect of the verse in their mind. The purpose is simply to help them inhabit and reflect on the verse in a different way.

→ RECAP

Sing hymn from memory (as able).

→ SING

Now that you know the words better, experiment with how you sing the song. Pick a few ideas to try or come up with your own. Think about how to emphasize the meaning of the words by the way you sing different verses. Are there other instruments you would use? Use the recording as needed.

- Sing some verses faster or slower.
- Sing some parts soft and some loud.
- Sing the song as a 2-part canon. To do this, divide into two groups (if with at least two people) or use the recording as your second person if solo. Group 1 should start singing, and then Group 2 begins at the beginning when Group 1 hits the "tion" in "foundation" in the first line (see #57 in Our Hymns, Our Heritage to see where Group 2 comes in). Because of the way the song is composed, the two groups will sound nice together

• EXTRA HELPINGS

Experiment with more than two groups singing this hymn in a canon or round, and try starting at different places to see what sounds best. For instance, Group 2 could wait to start until Group 1 begins the second line of music in your hymnal. Or you could try having four different groups!

WEEK 1 10m Folk Songs - Lesson 13

National Anthem

Materials: Our Work or Music PDF

PREP: You'll be choosing a national anthem to learn this term. Feel free to pre-select or use this lesson to decide. Consider having students learn their own national anthem (if young and/or unfamiliar with it) or another (pick based on interest and/or degree of challenge, since some are obviously not in English).

→ INTRO

The 19th century was a period of turmoil. The last part of the 18th century and the first half of the 19th is sometimes called the "Age of Revolutions." There was the American Revolution (1776), the French Revolution (1789), Haitian Revolution (1791) and then the Mexican War of Independence (1810s), uprisings across Latin American (one of the most famous was in Colombia with Simon Bolivar in 1810s), waves of revolutions across continental Europe (including Greece gaining independence from the Ottoman Empire in 1820s), revolts against British rule in India in the 1850s and against the shogunate in Japan in the 1860s (and that isn't all of them!).

Amidst all this upheaval, a new genre of folk song rose up—the national anthem. These folk songs gave a sense of shared identity and purpose among disparate peoples. Some sound like hymns, others like military marches, work songs, or even operas. You'll learn one anthem this term, but we'll listen to several different ones so you can hear these differences and similarities!

→ LISTEN & DISCUSS

★ TEACHER NOTE

Students will learn their own (or a different) national anthem this term. This brings many opportunities to talk about healthy (and unhealthy) ways to relate to one's country.

Angels We Have Heard On High (cont.)

Materials: Our Hymns, Our Heritage and/or Our Work or Music PDF

→ RECAP

What is "Angels We Have Heard On High" about?

→ STUDY & SING

Today, we're focusing on learning the tune and words separately.

- Even if you can't read music, look at the music in your hymnal and notice that the shape of the top notes in the first line is the same as the second line. So once you learn the tune of the first line of music, you've learned the tune for the rest of the verse!
- Now find the first "Deo" you see in the sheet music. Even though it looks like a lot of notes, you'll see in your Our Work book or Music PDF and notice in the music that for the chorus you sing "Gloria in excelsis Deo" twice. And the only note that is different the second time is the very last note of the song.
- Now listen to the song and pay attention to those repeated lines (feel free to highlight them with different colors or make a note in your lyrics if desired)! Hum along with the recording as you pick up the tune.

∞ Music Links: Angels We Have Heard (YouTube or Spotify)

→ READ & DISCUSS

Read the words of the song aloud either in your hymnal, Our Work, or Music pdf.

• MUSICAL NOTE

When you sing "Gloria" in the chorus, you are singing a melisma – many notes on one syllable. While this is common for songs featuring just one artist, it is uncommon for congregational songs. Can you think of any other melismas in songs you've sung? Melismas are sometimes called "runs" or "riffs" in pop music.

Can you sing the chorus of "Angels We Have Heard on High"?

→ SING

We're putting the tune and text together today, so listen to a line of the hymn, then pause and sing it back. If you feel confident in the words, you can sing along; echoing helps us pay attention to each line.

→ DISCUSS

Look back at the story in Luke 2 about the angels coming to the shepherds. If you wrote your own poetic/musical retelling of the story, what aspects of the story would you write about in your verses?

• COMPOSITION (Grades 7+)

Write your own retelling of the angels' and shepherds' meeting. You can write it as a poem or carol like "Angels We Have Heard on High," a play, a picture book, or a short story.

Extra challenge: Use a commentary or other study helps from Bible lessons to read more about shepherds in NT times and other aspects of Luke's narrative. Work to incorporate these details into your composition as you imagine what that meeting between angels and shepherds was like for those who were there.

Did you know that the Star Spangled Banner has been the US national anthem for less than a century? Although Francis Scott Key composed the song in 1814, it was not adopted as the national anthem until 1931. Before then, the unofficial anthem was "My Country 'Tis of Thee," which was adapted from the English national anthem, "God Save the Queen." Many other anthems have evolved in a similar way.

📄 Materials: Our Work or Music PDF

→ RECAP

Sing as much of your National Anthem as you can from memory.

→ INTRO

In her book Ourselves, Charlotte Mason talks about good and bad ways we can show loyalty to our country. It is a good thing when our love for our country makes us seek to understand its history, laws, institutions, people, strengths, and weaknesses. We should want to love and care for the place we live and the other people who live around us! It is not good when we use our love for our country as an excuse to look down on other people or countries and ignore our own country's weaknesses. On the other hand, it is also unhelpful when we only focus on what is bad about our country. As you sing your national anthem and read the words, think about what kind of love or loyalty the song displays.

• COMPOSITION (Grades 7+)

Pick 3-5 national anthems, read their English translations, and discuss the similarities and differences you find. What types of loyalty do you find in each anthem?

∞ National Anthem lyrics

Term 2

- Listen to other national anthems in your music playlist with any extra time.

→ DISCUSS (GRADES 7+)

Many national anthems ask a god to protect their country (some mean the Christian God revealed in the Bible, and others refer to gods of other religions). For instance, the Canadian national anthem includes the prayer, "God, keep our land glorious and free," and the British anthem's name is "God Save the Queen (or King)." What do you think about asking God for protection and preservation of a nation or for wisdom for our leaders? If so, is there ever an issue of assuming God is on a particular nation's side? For example, what if two nations are fighting against each other and both are asking God to help them win?

Materials: Our Work or Music PDF

→ RECAP

Sing your National Anthem from memory (or look at the lyrics if needed). Think about the words and try to sing in a way that matches them!

→ INTRO

We're starting our next folk song today! It's important to remember that even while the big, loud anthems dealing with national events and identity were developing, mothers were still singing to their babies (sometimes even in the midst of those wars or other events). Our folk song for the rest of this term is sometimes called Margaret's Song because a girl named Margaret recorded it for the Library of Congress archives. It comes from around the 1830s.

★ TEACHER NOTE

If your student(s) learned a national anthem not in English during the first part of this term, here is an alternate 19th-century lullaby option in English, if two folk songs not in English are too much of a stretch. • EXTRA HELPINGS

The image of God riding upon the wind is common in both Scripture and in other hymns. If you learned "God Moves in a Mysterious Way" in Alveary hymn lessons last year, you might remember the line "he plants his footsteps in the sea and rides upon the storm." WEEK 10 10m Hymns & Spirituals - Lesson 22

Materials: Our Hymns, Our Heritage and/or Our Work or Music PDF

→ RECAP

Sing "O Worship the King" from memory (as able).

→ SING

Look over any tricky places and sing through the song. Then try again without any lyrics (and see if you can see it from memory). Experiment with singing it faster or slower, and think about how you might want to sing each verse and refrain differently to emphasize the meaning. (For instance, you might sing the part about "thunder" very loudly and then get quiet when you sing about "frail children of dust.")

→ INTRO & MAPWORK

- Our last folk song takes us from San Juan Island to Hawaii!
- Locate the Hawaiian islands in your atlas.
- This song of farewell between two lovers was written by the last monarch of Hawaii and is her most famous composition. The story goes that the queen and her attendants visited a friend on Oahu. Then, "as they started their return trip to Honolulu on horseback up the steep Pali trail, the queen turned to admire the view of Kaneohe Bay. She witnessed a particularly affectionate farewell between Colonel James Boyd of her party and a lovely young girl from Maunawili. As they rode up the steep cliff and into the swirling winds, she started to hum this melody, weaving words into a romantic song. At the top of the pali, a cloud hung over the mountain peak and slowly floated down Nu'uanu Valley. The queen continued to hum and completed her song as they rode the winding trail down the valley back to Honolulu."
