About the Course

This course includes the following topic(s): Grammar: Grade 5, Dictation: Grade 5, Penmanship & Copywork: Grade 5, Written Narration: Grade 5

About Grammar: Grade 5

Students review the parts of speech and learn the components involved in writing a good sentence.

About Dictation: Grade 5

Students use selected passages to practice dictation skills. (Alveary Copywork & Dictation Books provide selected passages).

About Penmanship & Copywork: Grade 5

Students copy short passages from their books. (Alveary Copywork & Dictation Books provide selected passages).

About Written Narration: Grade 5

Students continue to gain fluency in writing through written narrations.

Placement & Combining Tips

Grammar: Grade 5

Students can take this course even if they haven't taken grammar before. The beginning is written with a built-in review.

Written Narration: Grade 5

Increase the number of written narrations at a pace that your student can be successful.

Grammar: Grade 5

☐ Bookmark Practice Island Teacher Manual with answers to practice sentences. (Find in Quick Links)

Penmanship & Copywork: Grade 5

If you are using the Getty-Dubay Italic Handwriting Series, complete half a page per day or go at student's pace.

Written Narration: Grade 5

☐ Plan to complete three written narrations every week and consider increasing to four by the end of the year.

☐ Written narrations can happen after reading at the end of any lesson, if time allows, and do not need to take up an extra 10 minutes in your schedule. This tracker serves to help you keep records of what was done throughout the year.

☐ To keep written narrations fresh and interesting, have your student try narrating in different ways (lessons sometimes include specific suggestions): In addition to just “what did we read about?”, you can ask students to:

- “Write the story of ____.” (Example: “Write the story of the battle of Troy.”)

- Imagine they are a character in the story and write what happened as a diary entry (Example: pretend you are Christian in Pilgrim's Progress and write a letter or diary entry telling what happened to him in today's chapter.”

- For those who want a challenge, tell back the reading as a poem or a comic strip style narration, combining illustration and words.

☐ Make sure students are practicing typing skills regularly, and have them increasingly type more narrations as they become comfortable.

Term Prep & Teacher Tips

Written Narration: Grade 5

Some ideas on helping students transition to written narration:

- Write down words on a whiteboard if a student wants to use a word they don't know how to spell.

- Have students write down brief sentences (even numbered statements) telling the sequence of events and then have them orally give more details about each of them.

- Write the beginning and then orally tell the rest, or vice versa.

- Some students may find writing easier if you provide external supports before writing, such as index cards that can be arranged and re-ordered. You can also encourage students to talk aloud as they write or use speech-to-text and then edit.

How To Teach Dictation

Prepare

Select a passage that has already been read and narrated. (We provide passages in the Dictation packets.) Have students read over it and select 4-5 words that they don't know. They can also mark punctuation that may be difficult to remember. They only need to select a section that contains 4-5 new words. If this is only a couple of sentences, that is fine.

Discuss

Ask students which words they think will be most difficult to spell and why. If there is a common spelling pattern, you can point that out. You can also point out other words that have a similar pattern.

Practice

Have students visualize the words by "seeing" them with their eyes closed. They should also practice on a whiteboard.

Complete

As part of the same lesson, when students feel ready, slowly call out a sentence from what they studied. You will want to read it phrase by phrase and not repeat it.

View

When finished, have students look over their own work to check and see that everything looks right. If you see any misspelled words, erase those and have the students practice those again.

How To Teach Grammar

Connect

Link back to the previous lesson.

Read

Read the assigned pages and discuss new ideas. It is important for students to be able to talk about the concepts in their own words. The pictures and diagrams in the book can serve as a springboard for discussions about the grammar concepts.

Practice

Complete practice examples in the text and/or the practice book that accompany the lesson.

Observe

Observe examples of concepts in books being read and in daily life.

Term 1

WEEK 1 ☐ 10m Penmanship & Copywork: Grade 5 - Tracker

Tracker: ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

☐ Materials: Grade 5 Student packet of copywork and dictation passages

→ COPYWORK

Spend ten minutes daily working on copywork this week. You can use this week's suggested passage or choose your own of a similar length. Spend the first 3-5 minutes of your copywork lesson focusing on penmanship by practicing a few letters in print or cursive from the Penny Gardner book or another style of your choice.

WEEK 1 ☐ 15m Dictation: Grade 5 - Tracker

Tracker: ☐ ☐ ☐

☐ Materials: Grade 5 Student packet of copywork and dictation passages

→ DICTATION

Three Dictation lessons are scheduled each week. In each lesson, there should be time for studying (10 minutes) and time for the sentences to be dictated (5 min). You can use this week's suggested passage for the lessons and/or choose your own generally from the history, literature, or geography books the student has already read during the week. The suggested passage might take one lesson to learn, or it might take all three lessons to learn. It will be different for each student. Be sure to pay attention to any notes regarding grammar or punctuation added to the student dictation packet for the week.

The student should study enough text to include 4-5 unknown words. This might mean that the student is only studying a couple of sentences. Ask for the words they do not know how to spell. Write them down on a chalkboard, whiteboard, or piece of paper. The student should work on visualizing each word until they can see it with their eyes shut, and then practice writing the word, drawing the letters in the air, or saying the letters aloud until it is memorized.

Discuss any interesting spelling patterns or punctuation from the text being studied. The process should take around 10 minutes to this point.

Then, choose a sentence or two to slowly dictate a few words at a time to the student from the text studied. Read it once. Correct any errors and revisit any words missed.

Be sure to adapt the amount studied and dictated to suit the student. Add to or subtract from the amount or difficulty of the text studied to ensure the student's success and growth.

WEEK 1 ☐ 10m Written Narration: Grade 5 - Tracker

Tracker: ☐ ☐ ☐

→ WRITTEN NARRATION

Complete three written narrations this week. Make sure to write from a variety of different subjects, either over the course of the term or at least the year.

→ NOTE

Written narrations can happen after reading at the end of any lesson if time allows and do not need to take up an extra 10 minutes in your schedule. This tracker serves to help you keep records of what was done throughout the year.

★ TEACHER TIP

Note that students who are struggling with their penmanship should begin written narrations slowly. Instead of using every slot for written narrations, use the time to have students work on skills that will better support their development, such as climbing on trees or playground equipment, doing household chores, working with clay or dough, and doing mazes and dot-to-dot activities.

Term 1

If the student is new to written narration, they may fatigue quickly. Allow them to initially write a bit and tell the rest. Some may do better by first orally narrating and discussing as usual, then writing a sentence or so of that narration. Others may do better by beginning their narration in writing, then completing it orally. If students are typing fluently, consider allowing them to type their written narrations.

Also, be sure to include typing in life skills!
