

Canadian History

About the Course

Read about Canadian history from 1800-1900 through books that immerse students in the time period and allow them to see the world through the eyes of those who lived it. Through engaging narratives, biographies, history spines, primary source documents, oral histories, historical fiction, and books that show different perspectives, students come to see history as more than dates and events and develop relationships with people from the past. Viewing images, looking at maps, and working on one's Book of Centuries are also part of developing this relationship.

This topic is included in the following course(s): History: Grade 9 (Canada), History: Grade 10 (Canada)

Canadian History: Grades 9-10

How To Approach

Recap

- Take a second to recall what you read previously in the same book or topic.
- If the previous passage is difficult to remember, try looking back at any chapter/section headings or illustrations or reading the first paragraph to jog the memory.

Read

- Read the selection assigned OR read for the number of minutes allocated, leaving time for narration and mapwork. Use whichever guide (i.e., pages or minutes) works best for you. You want to read enough to be interesting, but not so much that you feel overwhelmed.
- If a book is challenging for you as a student, try stopping to narrate to yourself silently for a minute every now and then to make sure you are tracking. You might also want to read aloud to yourself. Or you might want to listen to an audiobook version of the text and read along with it.
- If a book is an easy read, enjoy the ride!
- Keep an eye out for quotes to put in your commonplace book or events or characters to put down in your Book of Centuries.

Narrate

- Process and integrate your reading by narrating either orally or in writing. Some lesson plans will give you a suggestion of how best to narrate.
- To keep yourself on track, you might want to set a timer, so you stop reading with enough time to narrate.

Connect

- After your narration, think about how what you read connects to other subjects, other books, and other things you've read, watched, or seen in the past or present.
- Share any ideas that are particularly interesting to you with your fellow classmates, teachers, parents, friends, or others. You might even want to do a bit more reading or research on something on your own time in the afternoon or evenings.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to the student, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

Those educating at home might pick one or two history lessons to read aloud with their students to keep up the habit of oral narration and foster conversation and relationship, and then simply give students these lesson plans and the rest of the books and check in with them throughout the term for conversation, support, and accountability.

It is valuable for those in a classroom setting to also have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrated together. Classroom settings lend themselves well to additional discussion and sharing at the end of lessons, after everyone has narrated either together or independently in writing.

Introduction - Vanished Beyond the Map

Materials: Vanished Beyond the Map

→ INTRO

Vanished Beyond the Map is an account of Adam Shoalts's quest to solve the mystery of what happened to Hubert Darrell, a long-forgotten explorer, trapper, guide, and mapmaker, who disappeared in the Arctic in 1910. Shoalts's narrative shows a historian at work: using archival research, historical documents, and interviews with elderly individuals who may have long-ago connections to Darrell's family, Shoalts pieces together Darrell's life and travels. But it is just as much a geographical story: Darrell immigrated from England to Manitoba, then journeyed to the Arctic following the gold rush. His life intersected with that of other great explorers, namely Roald Amundsen and Vilhjalmur Stefansson, and he travelled alone across vast distances in the Arctic.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

1. Vanished Beyond the Map
p.1-11 "Mist hung about" - "story of what I found."

- What are your initial impressions? Do you have any early guesses about where this story might go?

2. Dictionary of Canadian Biography - Hubert Darrell
Read the same biographical dictionary entry that initially got Adam Shoalts intrigued in the story of Hubert Darrell. If you prefer to avoid spoilers, you can save reading this until later in the year!
