This course includes the following topic(s): Old Testament: Grades 3-6, New Testament: Grades 3-6, Church History: Grades 4-6

About Old Testament: Grades 3-6

Students in Grades 3-6 read Old Testament narratives chronologically. For 2026-2027, students read selections from Joshua, Judges, Ruth, and 1-2 Samuel. Lesson plans also include selections from maps and books such as The New Manners and Customs of Bible Times, which teachers can read or share with their students to help them understand the biblical context and gain insight into the culture and geography of Israel.

About New Testament: Grades 3-6

Each year, students in Grades 3-6 read one of the gospels. For 2026-2027, they read John. Lesson plans include map work and assigned selections of The New Manners and Customs of Bible Times for teachers to read with their students before or after Bible reading to help give context and insight into the culture and geography of Israel during Jesus' life.

About Church History: Grades 4-6

Each year in elementary grades, students read biographies of influential people from church history. This course features the stories of Christians from Alveary's modern history rotation for the years (1800-1900).

Placement & Combining Tips

Old Testament: Grades 3-6

Suitable for older students if combining lessons, and ideal for older students just getting familiar with the Bible.

New Testament: Grades 3-6

Suitable for older students if combining lessons, and ideal for older students just getting familiar with the Bible.

Church History: Grades 4-6

How To Teach

Recap

- Connect to previous lessons by asking students to recall where they left off.
- If students have difficulty recalling, teachers might try showing them a picture from the reading, sharing something the teacher remembers, or prompting them with the first sentence of the last reading. This will often refresh their memory enough to allow them to recall.
- If students still cannot recall anything from the last reading, teachers might consider continuing anyway (with a shorter reading this time) or repeating the previous lesson, depending on the reading and the nature of the book.

Read

- Read the chapter or selection aloud. When reading to pre-readers, point to the words as you read, even if it seems they aren't paying attention.
- Move at the students' pace during the lesson, rather than feeling that a particular number of pages must be completed. It is vitally important that teachers not overload students with more material than they can absorb in one sitting.
- Students who have difficulty sitting still or listening may benefit from a fidget of their choice, such as a piece of putty or clay or an afghan; flexible positioning, such as a wobble seat or inverted sitting; or sensory modulation, such as a weighted vest or blanket or adjustment of light, temperature, or sound.
- Students with regular difficulty engaging often benefit from having a picture to associate with the story WHILE listening. Feel free to view the artwork during the reading rather than after the narration.

Narrate

- Have students retell the passage orally.
- Alternatively, learners may use words, pictures, Legos, dolls, etc., to process and convey ideas in the manner most natural to them.
- Teachers may take turns to model.
- Narration is a complex skill requiring the coordination of several parts of the brain. If a student struggles to narrate in general, with a specific subject or book, or on one day but not others, then this is an opportunity to learn. Observe when they struggle with this or any other activity today. Notice facial expressions and body language; listen to what they say about why it is hard or how they feel about it. Take note of these observations for later, tell them that you see how hard they are working, and then offer whatever support they need to end on a positive note. If necessary, take a break for the day.

View

- Optional: Share a piece of fine art that illustrates the story.

Discuss

- Give students an opportunity to share their thoughts on the lesson and any connections made.

Introduction to Joshua

 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

PREP: The teacher may wish to read the article linked here that explains the genre of Historical or Historical Narrative books of the Bible. The focus is always on who God is (known as the theology of God) while the history of his people is told.

→ INTRO

This year in the Old Testament, we will read five books: Joshua, Judges, Ruth, 1 and 2 Samuel. These books continue the story of Israel so that when we open our Bible to the book of Joshua, it is as though we are starting to read in the middle of a story where important events and people have already been introduced and discussed.

In order to understand what is going to happen next, let's do a short review of what has happened so far. The first five books of the Bible are a group of books called the Pentateuch. The Pentateuch is the books of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. The next set, or category, has twelve books in it and is called Historical or Historical Narrative. We will read the first five of these books this year. Historical narrative books show us who God is while the story of his people, the Israelites, is told. When you read a historical narrative book, you will see that it answers the question, "And then what happened?"

What do you recall about what has happened so far in the life of Israel? (Students may mention Abraham, Moses, being in Egypt, plagues in Egypt, crossing the Red Sea, etc.)

Leaders of Israel have included Abraham, who received a promise from God that He would bless him with land, people, and many blessings. Next, the nation of Israel was led by Moses. Moses led the people as they escaped from Egypt, crossed the Red Sea, and wandered in the wilderness.

God made a covenant (promise) with Moses that if the people followed God, they would be blessed. But if they disobeyed, they would be cursed (things would not go well for them). For today's reading, we are going to read a passage from the book of Deuteronomy where the covenant God made with Moses is written about. As we read Joshua, Judges, Ruth, and First and Second Samuel, these promises will be underlying the decisions the people and leaders of Israel make, so it is an important chapter to keep in our minds as we read. Will they continue to follow God, or will they forget about him and turn to their own selfish ways? We will find out as we read the Historical Narrative books and find out the answer to "And then what happened?"

→ READ, NARRATE & DISCUSS

Deuteronomy 28:1-10, 15-19, 25

- What did God promise (or covenant) with the people of Israel?

→ NOTEBOOK

This year, you will keep a notebook. Suggestions will be given in lessons for drawing or writing what you have read about, but you can always add drawings or writings of your own choosing as well.

Today, open up your notebook and create a title page with the heading: Old Testament.

As time and ability allow, write the names of the books we will be covering this year: Joshua, Judges, Ruth, 1 Samuel, and 2 Samuel. You can also write the genre of these books: Historical Narrative.

Intro to the Gospel of John

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

PREP:

Teachers may wish to view the Bible Project video covering the first half of the book of John in preparation for teaching.

∞ Video Link: Bible Project: Book of John (First Half)

→ INTRO

For our New Testament reading this year, we will be looking at the fourth Gospel in the New Testament, the book of John. The John who wrote the book is one of the twelve disciples who followed Jesus closely throughout his ministry on earth. He also wrote the books of First, Second, Third John, and the book of Revelation.

The book of John was written somewhere between 85-95 AD, which makes it the last of the four gospels written. In his gospel, John includes some details that the others left out and skips over some events that the other three gospel writers included. He writes to both Jews and Gentiles. (A Gentile is anyone who is not Jewish.)

→ READ & NARRATE

Today, we will look at a few verses to set a foundation for our reading this year and to find out a little bit about who John was.

We do not have to guess why John wanted to write his gospel, because he states his purpose very clearly.

Read John 20:30-31.

- Why does John say he wrote his gospel?

Read John 13:23; 20:2; 21:7, 20.

- How does John speak about himself in relation to Jesus?

Read Matthew 4:18-22; Mark 3:13-21.

- How do the gospel authors Matthew and Mark refer to John?

→ NOTEBOOK

As you read through the book of John, you will keep a notebook. Today, you will begin this notebook by making a title page.

On your title page, write the name of the book, the author, and the approximate date the book was written, 85-95 AD. On your title page, copy down John 20:30-31, the verses stating the purpose of the book. (Students may write as little or as much as time and ability allow. You could also take time to complete this task in lesson 2, if needed.)

Joshua Commissioned

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook, Student Bible Atlas

→ RECAP

What do you recall about the intro to Joshua from last time?

→ INTRO

Before he died, Moses passed on the leadership of the people of Israel to Joshua (Deut. 31:7-8). In today's reading, Joshua will speak to the people about entering the Promised Land—the nation of Canaan. As Joshua speaks, he reminds the people of what they should do to have success and blessings. He also says, "Be strong and courageous." The reason the people could be strong and courageous is because the Lord was going with them and preparing their way. As we read, count how many times you hear this phrase or words similar to this.

Term 1

→ READ, NARRATE & DISCUSS

Joshua 1:1-18

- How many times did he say "Be strong and courageous"? Why do you think he repeated that command?
- How would you feel if you were an Israelite about to enter the Promised Land?

→ MAP WORK

📖 Map Resource: Student Bible Atlas p.8-9 Maps 4 and 5

1. At the end of Deuteronomy, we are told that before he died, Moses "went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo" (Deut. 34:1) and was shown the Promised Land. On Map 4 (the larger map), locate Moab, the Jordan River (labeled as "R. Jordan"), and Canaan.
2. Look at the image in the bottom right-hand corner to see the view from Mount Nebo.
3. Looking at Map 5, locate Mt Nebo and the Jordan River. Follow the arrows to see the direction the Israelites will move forward in the book of Joshua. The Jordan River moves north to south, and to the east is a plateau (mostly flat, level ground) and mountains to the left. The people are approaching Canaan from the south. The first move they will have to make is to cross the Jordan River.

→ NOTEBOOK

In your notebook, create a title page for the book of Joshua. Draw a picture of Joshua speaking to the Israelites as their new leader. As time and ability allow, write the phrase "Be strong and courageous." Older students might write a short summary of the passage or a key verse from the passage.

The Word Was God

📖 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook (optional)

NOTE: Today's lesson has a video that is a helpful explanation of the opening of John's gospel. Although some of the concepts may be a bit intricate for younger students, the overall look at this passage gives helpful context to John's opening words.

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read about last time about the introduction to the book of John?

→ INTRO

Instead of starting with the birth of Jesus or with the story of John the Baptist, as the other three gospels do, John begins his gospel by showing that Jesus is the Son of God and is 100% God and 100% human. The book of John starts with "In the beginning." This reminds us of Genesis 1:1, the very first verse of the Bible, which begins with the exact same phrase: In the beginning. Also, in today's reading, another man named John the Baptist is mentioned. These are two separate individuals with the same name. John, the author, tells us what the role of John the Baptist was.

Introduction to George Müller

Materials: The Bandit of Ashley Downs: George Müller, globe or wall map

→ INTRO

This year in Church History, we are reading about Christians from the past who lived between the years 1800-1900 AD. You will read about people who loved God, loved the Bible, and wanted others to know the good news that salvation is found in Jesus Christ. They followed God even when it was hard, and they faced difficulty.

The first book we will read is "The Bandit of Ashley Downs: George Müller," where we are introduced to George Müller, a historical person who lived a life of pursuing God through faith and prayer. In the story, a fictional (made-up) character named Curly Roddy is introduced, who the authors use to introduce us to George Müller's life of faith. Curly was an orphan. What do you know about orphans? An orphan was a child whose mother and father had died, or had one parent who died, and the other parent couldn't take care of the child properly. In the late 1800s, only children who had money in their families could afford to live in an orphanage. That's why Curly lived on the streets and, in the story, tries to steal money and is hungry for food.

Thankfully, the historical figure of George Müller loved Jesus and wanted to show that love to orphans by opening orphanages for children who may not be able to help pay for their care. George Müller was born in 1805 and became a Christian when he was 20 years old, when his friend took him to a Bible study. After that, George decided to become a missionary and moved to London, England. During that time, he met a friend, Henry Craik, who would be his friend for life as they shared the Gospel message and ministered to children.

Behold!

 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

→ INTRO

The next verses continue speaking about John the Baptist and his testimony regarding his baptizing of Jesus. He testifies to Jesus, and the people who hear him begin following Jesus. As the Bible Project states, "One by one as people encounter Jesus, they say out loud who they think he is. In this one chapter, Jesus is given seven titles: the Lamb of God, Son of God, Rabbi, Messiah, King of Israel, Jesus of Nazareth, and the Son of Man."

Today, we will begin a list of the titles people give when they see Jesus, and in our next reading, we will read the rest of these titles. These seven titles claim Jesus as the Messiah and Savior of the world.

In the passage, we also see Jesus call his first two disciples. In New Testament times, it was not unusual for Rabbis—or Teachers—to have disciples who would follow and learn from these teachers.

→ READ & NARRATE

John 1:28-39

- As Simon Peter and Andrew did, what would it be like to drop everything and begin following Jesus as his disciple?

→ NOTEBOOK

Younger students, draw a picture either of John the Baptist speaking about Jesus OR of Simon Peter and Andrew following after Jesus. Older students may write a summary or begin a list of the seven names given to Jesus in this chapter. (The three from today's reading would be: Lamb of God, Rabbi (Teacher), and Messiah (Christ).) Write the name and the verse reference where the title is found.

Read Joshua 5:10-15.

• In verse 12, it says the manna stopped. How do you think the Israelites felt about that?

2. Read Joshua 6:1-19.

Jericho is the first city the Israelites need to conquer, as Jericho protects the entry into the land from the east, where they crossed the Jordan. Scholars say Jericho "was about a twelve-acre site...[and] Based on the size of the site today, it seems that it might have taken Joshua's army less than half an hour to march around the city walls...In the ancient world every war was holy war because people believed that their gods called them to war, led them in battle, and fought on their behalf...For this assault it was the ark and the priests that gave indication of God's presence with the Israelites and made it plain that the battle belonged to the Lord." (Bible Story Handbook, Walton) Usually, when an army defeated a city or people, they would take the plunder or goods (such as jewelry and anything that was worth a lot). In this case, the people did not take anything, because it wasn't they that claimed the victory—it was God who won this battle.

Achan's Sin

 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible; Manners & Customs

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

Last time, we saw that the people did not take any of the plunder from Jericho as they were directed by God: "But all silver and gold, and every vessel of bronze and iron, are holy to the Lord; they shall go into the treasury of the Lord." (6:19) The word "plunder" means the valuables or possessions that would be taken from the people defeated in war. Armies that won battles would take the plunder not only to celebrate the victory, but to add the loot to their money pile so they could afford to keep battling! After the battle at Jericho, everyone followed this rule and listened...except Achan.

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

→ INTRO

John's gospel includes signs to point to Jesus as Messiah. These miracles (signs) are contained in the first few chapters of the book, and some refer to chapters 1-12 as "The Book of Signs." In John's purpose statement for his gospel, he stated that Jesus did many signs during his ministry on earth, and these miracles or signs are included so that people would believe Jesus was the Messiah (John 20:30-31). In other words, these signs were pointing to who Jesus is. Today's reading will include the first of these signs.

→ READ & NARRATE

John 2:1-12

However, when they taste the wine Jesus has provided, it is much better than even the expensive wine! Jesus as the Creator is shown through this miracle. And, even today, we see that God uses rain to water the vineyards to grow the grapes to turn into wine in the "agricultural and fermentation processes. Here He simply did the process immediately." Younger students: Begin your list with the number 1. Either write down a summary phrase (i.e., Jesus turns water into wine at the wedding) or draw a picture to show what the first sign is. Older students may title their list, and under 1., write down a summary phrase, verse reference, and description of what Jesus' first miracle was.

In today's reading, we'll hear about a stagecoach going from London to Bristol. The distance between the two cities is about 120 miles. A stagecoach can only go about 5-10 miles per hour, which means the trip would take between 12 and 24 hours! If we drove a car today between those two cities, it might only take us two hours. Today, we will read what plan Curly comes up with to steal some money from that stagecoach. But first, let's look at a picture of a stagecoach.

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

Term 1

Two events happen in today's passage. Do you recall what genre the book of Joshua is? (Historical Narrative) In a narrative (story), events are told as though someone is asking, "And then what happened?"

First, Joshua renews the covenant that God had given to Moses. Do you remember what God promised Moses? (Deut. 28 - If you follow and obey God, then you will be blessed. If you do not follow or obey God, then you will be cursed, and things will not go well.)

As we read the story, we might ask, "And then what happened?"

Next, some kings in the land of Canaan come up with a sneaky plan to trick the Israelites. In this context, a "king is the ruler of a single city," and these cities were starting to worry about the Israelites. Why do you think they were worried?

→ READ & NARRATE

Joshua 8:30-9:15

- Why do you think it is good for Joshua to renew the covenant God had made with Moses and remind the people what God had said?
- The Gibeonites dressed in old clothes and brought stale food to try to give the impression that they had traveled from a faraway land. Unfortunately, Joshua and the Israelites "did not ask counsel from the Lord" (9:14). Now they are in a treaty with people from the land of Canaan. What do you think will happen?

Conquering the Land

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, Student Bible Atlas

NOTE: Today's reading will cover three chapters, but it will skip verses for time's sake.

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

Today's reading covers three chapters of information about Joshua and the Israelites defeating various kings in Canaan. These stories of Israel conquering the Promised Land point to God's might and power in fighting for his people, Israel. They are in covenant with him. Do you remember what the word "covenant" means? (a promise) Because God is faithful, he will be faithful.

→ READ, NARRATE & DISCUSS

Today's reading is in two parts:

1. Joshua 10:42-43

- Who did the fighting for Israel, and what is happening as a result? (All the kings are being captured.)

Dividing the Land

📖 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, Student Bible Atlas, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

Joshua chapter 13 all the way through chapter 21 lists how Joshua divided up the land between the tribes of Israel. After all, the book of Joshua "shows how God kept his covenant promise to give the land to Israel. He prepared them to enter Canaan, sent his commander to lead them, provided aid in battles, distributed the land, and renewed the covenant. The division of land, though not much of a story, is an incredible climax of the process that had brought the Israelites from their slavery in Egypt to the land that God had promised to Abraham through the covenant made over four centuries earlier. This is fulfillment of covenant promise on a grand scale." (Bible Story Handbook)

→ READ & NARRATE

Our reading will be in three parts:

1. Read Joshua 14:1-5.
2. Read Joshua 16:1-10. Chapter 16 is an example of what these chapters list as far as boundaries of the inherited land that each tribe received. Other chapters define the boundary of the other tribes' lands.
3. Read Joshua 21:43-45. These verses give a summary of the purpose of the entire book of Joshua. They could be called the Key Verses or Main Verses of the book.

- How would you summarize the purpose of the book of Joshua according to these verses?

Woman at the Well

📖 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

Term 1

→ INTRO

John's gospel moves from Jesus meeting with Nicodemus, a high-ranking Jewish leader, to telling of Jesus meeting a Samaritan woman, who would have been seen as a person of low rank. The Jewish people hated the people group known as the Samaritans, and as they traveled, they would go out of their way to avoid walking through Samaria. However, today we will see that Jesus chose to walk through Samaria, where he met this Samaritan woman at a well. Imagine the long walk: "This three-day journey encompasses over seventy miles of rugged rock roads in a hot, dry climate. Your face is beet red from the heat, your body is sweating, and your mouth is parched dry - my, what you wouldn't give for a drink of water! Are you there yet? You're relieved when the tired and sore feet of Jesus take refuge during the heat of the noonday sun at Jacob's well. Finally, a water break!" (The Gospel of John, Armijo, Mitchell and Krause)

→ READ & NARRATE

John 4:1-15

After the long, hot walk, the water from the well would definitely satisfy the traveler's thirst, but Jesus speaks to the woman about a living water that will satisfy her thirst forever. "...The water Jesus gives provides continual satisfaction of needs and desires. In addition one who drinks His living water will have within him a spring of life-giving water... Jesus was speaking of the Holy Spirit who brings salvation to a person who believes and through Him offers salvation to others." (Bible Knowledge Commentary) John includes these stories to show that Jesus' message of salvation was available to all—whether you were a Jewish leader or a Samaritan woman at a well.

→ NOTEBOOK

Younger students: Draw a picture of the woman at the well meeting Jesus or write a short summary. Older students may write a longer summary or copy down one or more verses from today's passage.

Meeting at Shechem

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

The first part of today's reading might make you think, "Hm, I feel like I've heard this before." God is speaking through Joshua to remind the people of Israel about their history. The story is given using the personal pronoun "I," which is used 18 times in these verses. "I took...I gave...I sent...I plagued...I brought...I delivered, etc." Speaking in the first person (by repeatedly using the word "I") in the telling of the history, God reminds the people who won the battles thus far and who brought them to where they are today as a people. "God reviewed the marvelous deeds he had performed for Israel's benefit...From first to last Israel's conquests, deliverances, and prosperity were because of God's good mercies and were not of their own making." (The Bible Knowledge Commentary)

"Now therefore" begins verse 14. The word "therefore" is an adverb that means "as a result" or "for that reason." In other words, the people had been reminded of God's leading, and now, as a result of that, they had a decision to make. Read the passage and see what it is they have to

The Choice

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

Term 1

→ INTRO

We are coming to the end of the book of Joshua. Overall, the people have obeyed and followed after God in the book of Joshua. And, according to Deuteronomy 28, what will be the result of following after God? (The people will receive blessings in the form of having land, fruitful crops, lots of kids or growth of their nation, and things will go well for them.) Did they receive blessings as Joshua led them into Canaan? In what way(s)? (conquered enemies, inherited actual land for their tribes, food to eat, no more manna, etc.)

→ READ & NARRATE

Joshua 24:16-33

- When the people say that they will serve the Lord, Joshua doesn't seem to believe that they are sincere or genuine. He says, "You are not able to serve the Lord, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God." What was Joshua emphasizing by saying God was a holy and jealous God? (God is the only God, and their loyalty cannot be divided between other gods and idols. It is not God plus something else.)
- Eventually, he tells them exactly what they need to do. "He had heard the pledge on their lips; now he challenged them to prove their sincerity by their works...There could be no mixing of allegiance to God with idol-worship. A firm choice had to be made then, as in every generation." (Bible Knowledge Commentary) At the end of the passage, Joshua—as the final act of his leadership of Israel—renews the covenant between God and the people. God would bless them if they followed him, and they would be cursed if they did not follow him.

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

→ READ & NARRATE

John 4:43-5:1

The official comes from Capernaum to Cana, which is approximately 20 to 25 miles, desiring that Jesus heal his son. When Jesus replies that his son is healed, the official had to believe in Cana that Jesus had healed his son back in Capernaum. The official asked his servants when his son had been healed, and it was at the exact time Jesus had "made his promise to him...Jesus' power is able to save from death even at a great distance. His word has power to work." (Bible Knowledge Commentary) John points out in 4:54 that this was the second sign.

WEEK 7 20m Old Testament: Grades 3-6 - Lesson 14

Judges Begins

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

While the Israelites followed God as they entered Canaan, there were little seeds of disobedience showing up throughout the book of Joshua. Now, in the book of Judges, unfortunately, those seeds grow into full disobedience. The book tells the history of Israel over centuries, but the book also encourages the Israelites to obey and be faithful to God.

The word "judges" might remind us of a courtroom; however, at this time in history, the judges were "tribal or national leaders. Often they were military commanders." They would settle arguments and give advice to the people of their territory. "Since Israel had no king or other central political figure, the judges played an important role in Israel's survival." (Basic Bible Commentary)

Sadly, as the book continues, the Israelite's turn further and further away from God, and things are very dark and rather disturbing. Throughout the book, certain judges will be introduced, and we will focus on their stories.

→ READ & NARRATE

Judges 1:27-36; 2:1-10

- One bad choice Israel made is not driving out the Canaanites completely, and now things start to spiral downward. Why do you think this new generation did not know the Lord or the work that he had done for Israel? How would you imagine Joshua (if he were alive at that time) would feel about this?

→ NOTEBOOK

Turn to a new page to create a title page for the book of Judges. Write the title of the book, and what genre it is: Historical Narrative. Draw a picture or write a short summary of the passage. Older students may write a longer summary or write down key verse(s) of the passage, including 2:10.

Cycles

 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

The Israelites have started worshipping false idols and have turned away from following God. And now a cycle (or a series of events that keep repeating) will start that will happen throughout the book of Judges. "The cycles (disobedience, punishment, cry for help, deliverance) show how God demonstrated his power and mercy by delivering his people time after time after his justice had demanded that he bring punishment." (Bible Story Handbook) Sadly, it is also obvious that the leaders of the Israelites are just as bad as the people. In the cycle, the punishment they experienced was in the form of oppression, being conquered by an enemy, or even being enslaved.

Today's reading introduces the first judge, Othniel. Recall that there are cycles in the book of Judges that involve disobedience, punishment, cry for help, deliverance. A Witness

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible

→ RECAP

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

In today's reading, the word "witness" is used. What is a witness? In John's gospel, this idea of a witness or testimony is important. At the start of his gospel, he tells about John the Baptist, a man whose "function was that of a witness. A good witness tells the truth as he knows it...Jesus did not need human testimony, but John's work helped people because in their darkness he pointed them to the light." John the Baptist did not perform any miracles, however. "The 'signs' were specific works which God assigned for the Son to do." This showed that God affirmed who

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO
Today's reading will introduce us to the next judge in Israel's history. The judges "were often as bad as the people. Deborah was certainly an exception to this, as she was a faithful prophetess and brought deliverance in association with the commander Barak...Deborah was first and foremost a prophetess, one who brought God's word to the people. People came to her for decisions because she would inquire of God for them. It is likely that in this particular instance they came to ask God what they should do about the Canaanite armies. She responded by sending for Barak and giving him God's orders." (Bible Story Handbook)

WEEK 9 20m New Testament: Grades 3-6 - Lesson 18

Jesus Walks on Water

 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about our reading last time in the book of John?

→ READ & NARRATE

John 6:16-34

While we do not know exactly what this boat looked like, a boat was found from the Sea of Galilee, and it was about "twenty-five feet long and nearly eight feet wide. It could carry about a dozen men, perhaps as many as sixteen. Such boats were equipped with oars; some had simple masts as well, though a sail was not used in a storm. Because of the atmospheric conditions that result from the Sea of Galilee being nestled between mountains, wind storms are frequent, come on rapidly, and can be severe." (Bible Story Handbook)

- What would it have been like to be a disciple in a storm on a boat and then look out to see Jesus miraculously walking on water toward you?

→ NOTEBOOK

Younger students may draw a picture or write a short summary of today's passage, while older students may write a longer summary or copy down a verse or more from the passage.

- Why was Curly lonely even though he was surrounded by other boys his age?

★ TEACHER NOTE

As an interesting historical note, the author Charles Dickens was very concerned with the condition of orphanages during this time period, as you may be familiar with in his writings. Dickens visited George Müller's orphanage and was reassured by seeing the good conditions in which the children were being cared for.

WEEK 10 20m Old Testament: Grades 3-6 - Lesson 20

Gideon and Tests

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

In today's reading, there are a few tests that take place. First of all, Gideon uses "the dew and the fleece for an oracle. In an oracle, a yes-or-no question was posed to deity, and some mechanism was designated for deity to answer...Since God had already sent an angel to tell him that he was supposed to lead the armies into battle, Gideon wanted to check to see if those orders were still in place." Once the normal result happened, Gideon flipped it because he still doubted. "So with great apology (appropriate, since God had already given instruction), he then asked for the indicator to be switched; having the fleece dry and the threshing floor wet. This does indeed show a lack of faith on his part." (Bible Story Handbook) The second tests have to do with how the warriors drink from the water. Gideon once again was being asked to put his faith in God, going before the Israelites to fight their enemies.

→ READ & NARRATE

Judges 6:25-40; 7:1-11

(In order to keep the story together, today's reading is a little longer than usual. If additional time is needed to finish today's reading, the next lesson time can be used.)

Manners & Customs p.17 Text box titled "The Priest's Clothing"
"In the ancient world around Israel, just as the gods were fed (sacrifices) and housed (temples), they were also clothed (that is, the images were). It is possible that Gideon's ephod represented the clothing of Yahweh (not on an actual image) just as the ark was the footstool of Yahweh's throne." (Bible Story Handbook) The ephod could be used as an oracle to discern God's will. In this sense, this particular ephod was idolatrous and inappropriate.

The Birth of Samson

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

The cycles in the book of Judges "show how God demonstrated his power and mercy by delivering them time after time after his justice had demanded that he bring punishment." Samson is the next judge of Israel, and he is "worse than all the other judges as he pursued his own...personal agendas, yet God still used him to deliver the Israelites." (Bible Story Handbook) In the Bible, Samson, who we will meet today, and Samuel, who we will meet later in the year's readings, are the only two for whom the Nazirite vow extends to someone's entire lifetime. Typically, the vow was taken for a specific, limited time to show a high devotion and dedication.

→ READ & NARRATE

Judges 14:5-19

- "In ancient literature, kings and heroes were sometimes portrayed as killing a lion. While this episode fits a standard heroic feat, it also demonstrates Samson's disregard for his vow, as he did not hesitate to scoop honey from the corpse of the lion." (Bible Story Handbook) After reading this passage, what do you notice about Samson and how he acts or behaves? Does he fit your idea of a hero?

Delilah Manipulates Samson

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

NOTE: The following note may be helpful if any questions arise from today's reading, where in verse 15:20, it states that the "Lord had left him."

"In the Old Testament, the Spirit of the Lord was usually seen in empowering people to a task. Today we talk of the Spirit's indwelling people when they become Christians. These are very different things, and therefore this incident in Judges should not be viewed as the beginning of Samson's spiritual relationship with God. The endowment of the Spirit here had to do with his role as general." Micah

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

Do you recall what genre of books these are that we have been reading? (Historical Narrative) Typically, Historical Narrative books answer the question "and then what happened?" However, in these final chapters of Judges, that pattern changes a bit. These stories are not what happened next; rather, they tell stories of what happened during the time of the judges we have been reading about.

In the final chapters of the book of Judges, no further judges are introduced. "No note of Israel's sin, of outside oppression, of a cry for help, or of God's provision for a hero-judge to save the people. These chapters are simply additional bits of history that the editor apparently did not want to leave out." (Basic Bible Commentary) The stories may have been used to show the moral decay the people had experienced during the time of the judges.

→ READ & NARRATE

Let's read the first of the stories in these ending chapters. Micah, whose name (ironically) means "Who is like Yahweh?," is introduced in verse 1. In verse 2, he's going to tell his mom that the money stolen from her was actually taken by him. How do you think his mom will respond to this? Let's read to find out what this mom and son do next.
Judges 17:1-13

- Did Micah's mother respond to his stealing the money in the way you thought she would? Why or why not?
- Read 17:6, a key verse of the book of Judges, again. What do you imagine it would be like to live in a land where this was how people were living?

Naomi and Ruth

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible; notebook; Manners & Customs

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

The book of Judges ends by repeating the sad statement one more time: "In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes." Today we will begin the book of Ruth, which begins with a verse saying the story took place while the judges were ruling. Elimelech moves his family away from the city of Bethlehem to Moab because there is a famine. Moabites were an enemy of the people of Israel, but in that land, Ruth, a Moabite woman, marries into Naomi's family and shows faithfulness.

Ruth is a short, four-chapter-long book that shines in the midst of the darkness, because the story of Ruth holds hope. While the book of Judges shows us God can still work through people who are disobedient, foolish, and selfish, the book of Ruth shows us what he can do through people who are faithful to him.

→ READ, NARRATE & DISCUSS

Ruth 1:1-18

"Whenever people were forced to leave the covenant Promised Land, it can be construed as either punishment or neglect of God. Since this story is in the judges period when the people were constantly unfaithful, we can infer that the famine was part of God's judgment. Drought and famine were included in the curses for violating the covenant (Deut. 28:23-24)." (Bible Story Handbook)

As we have seen, the first part of John's gospel contains specific signs Jesus performed during his ministry on earth for the purpose of pointing to who he is. He shows power over nature, over creation, and now, in the next sign, he shows power over death.

Term 2

→ READ & NARRATE

John 11:1-16

"Lazarus died soon after the messengers went to find Jesus. Jesus delayed his arrival so as to leave no doubt that Lazarus was dead. By the time of arrival, the body had been buried and had begun to decay. All this was essential for Jesus to display his power." (Bible Story Handbook) Our passage will continue next time with what happens next with the story of Lazarus.

→ RECAP

What do you recall about George Müller from our reading last time?

→ INTRO

The second book we will read for Church History this year is "Adoniram Judson: Danger in the Streets of Gold," where we are introduced to Adoniram Judson, a historical person who lived a life of pursuing God through faith as he lived his life wanting to bring the gospel to the people in a country called Burma.

- How would you describe his faith at this point in his life?

★ TEACHER NOTE

Notes will be given so the teacher can preview the passage and make adjustments (to skip or adapt sentences) as needed. In today's reading, Judson makes a new friend who then, unbeknownst to him, lies dying in the room at the inn. Note the short references to this on p.11, 12, 14.

Boaz the Redeemer

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

In today's reading, Boaz refers to himself as Ruth's "redeemer." In the ancient world, a widow's (someone whose husband has died) family would step in to help and provide security for the widow. "This included involvement with the remarriage of those who had been widowed and were without descendants, because descendants provided for each family in the tribe from generation to generation. This is how land was passed and held in the family." (Bible Story Handbook)

Ruth 3:6-4:6

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

"Determining physical death was more difficult in those days, so three days were allotted before doing so. By then, lack of water and nourishment would have ensured death. Burial usually took place the same day as the death, and the bodies were interred in a cave, not buried under the earth." (Bible Story Handbook)

→ READ & NARRATE

John 11:17-37

In today's reading, Jesus states another I Am statement, saying that he is the Resurrection and the Life. For the believer who trusts in Jesus, they will have eternal life (3:16; 11:25-27). In verse 27, Martha responds to Jesus with her own confession of belief, stating three things about Jesus: He is the Christ, the Son of God, and the one who was to come into the world. While she had yet to see the miracle that was about to occur, she believed in who Jesus said he was.

→ NOTEBOOK

In your notebook, open to your list of "I Am" statements Jesus has made and add: "I Am the Resurrection and the Life." Younger students may do this with a drawing of a symbol or a short statement. Older students may write a summary and include verse references, as well.

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ READ & NARRATE

Ruth 4:7-22

- Do you recall when the book of Ruth took place? (time of the judges) At the beginning of the book, the family left Bethlehem because of a famine, but at the end of the book, what are some evidences of the blessing Ruth and Boaz experienced because of the faithfulness of God? (Naomi holds her grandson on her lap; the implication is that there is no longer famine as the baby is able to be fed; Ruth and Boaz are happily married; and some students may notice that King David is part of their family line in the future, which means they are also in the genealogy of Jesus, our Redeemer.)

→ READ & NARRATE

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

John 11:38-54

Raising Lazarus from the dead is the final sign included in John's gospel. John included these signs to point to Jesus and who he is. "The reason he has power over death is that he is the source of life."

→ NOTEBOOK

In your notebook, add the raising of Lazarus from the dead to your list of signs John includes. Younger students may draw a picture of Lazarus, Mary, and Martha or write a short summary of the miracle. Older students may write a longer summary or copy down key verses from the passage.

Hannah Prays

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

The next two books we will read are First and Second Samuel. These two books continue in the genre of Historical Narrative and will tell what happens next as Israel begins a historical time period of moving from judges to kings. In I Samuel, we meet Israel's final judge named Samuel. The books are named after him, as he is a man who held "three offices: Prophet, priest, and judge." God will eventually use Samuel as an instrument to bring in the reign of King David. (Bible Story Handbook). In today's reading, we will meet Hannah, who is Samuel's mother. She at first cannot have children, but God answers her prayer for a child because he is working to bring about his plan "to provide the king-maker (Samuel) of Israel through her."

Hannah's Prayer & Eli's Sons

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

Hannah has had a son and has committed him to the Lord's work. God had a divine reason and plan in mind to help the nation of Israel through Samuel. As he grows up, Samuel serves in the temple and helps Eli the priest. Dressed in an ephod and robe, Samuel was most likely helping Eli personally, but also learning priestly tasks. This may have included "tasks carried out by the Levites. These included preparing animals for sacrifice and taking care of what was left after the sacrifice. There was also wood and water to be hauled." (Bible Story Handbook) Sadly, we will learn that Eli the priest had sons who were disobedient, and Eli was not doing much to stop their misbehavior. Recall that this is still the time of the judges in the life of Israel, and we see how much that disobedience had corrupted every aspect of society, including the priests.

Philistines Capture the Ark

 Materials: ESV Large Print Bible; Manners & Customs

NOTE: Two parts of the story can be added in as appropriate for your student(s):

1. "The story of the ark brings an end to the judges period of history, as God's ultimate judgment on the people was to abandon them to their oppressors. He did this by leaving the land and bringing judgement on the Philistines without raising up a judge."
2. A note on the god Dagon and the ark: "The first time Dagon fell in front of the ark, it was as though he was bowing before God." The second time, "his head and arms fell off, which is an "indication that he had been slain in battle. In the ancient world enemy casualties were sometimes counted by making a pile of the heads or hand of the slain. The destruction of Dagon was a very visible way for Yahweh to show the Philistines that he had not been defeated." (Bible Story Handbook)

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

The ark of the covenant is captured by the Philistines in the chapters we will read from today. Let's look at some information about the ark of the covenant before reading the passage.

Manners & Customs

When the Israelites moved into the land of Canaan, they were separated into their tribes, and there was no central government over them. In today's reading, they will ask Samuel for a king. All the way back to Genesis 17:6, God had said there would be kings from Israel, so the kingship was not wrong. However, "the problem is the reason the people gave for wanting a king. They had come to believe that their problem was a political one, so they were seeking a political solution. In reality their problem was a spiritual one that required a spiritual solution." David Plays for Saul

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible

→ RECAP

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

Next in the book of I Samuel, the focus begins to shift to the life of David. There are differences between Saul and David and how they followed after God. One Bible commentator (someone who studies and helps explain the Bible) states: "I don't at all mean that David was an entirely good man, or Saul an entirely bad man. No, they were both men with good and evil in them. But they differed greatly in the attitude of their hearts towards God. The Bible speaks of David with decided approval, and of Saul with decided blame. But you must not therefore think it your duty to look only for good in the one, and for evil in the other...You will miss the best of the Bible teaching unless you are quite honest and candid, giving full weight to the evil and the good in each of its characters." (J. Paterson Smyth)

What do you recall about what we read last time?

→ INTRO

In the next two lessons, we will read the story of David going up against Goliath, a tough, intimidating opponent who is mocking or taunting (in today's sports world, we might call it "trash-talking") the Israelites. "In the ancient world people believed that the gods fought in conjunction with the human armies they supported and that the armies with the stronger god would prevail...As Goliath defied Israel's armies, he was also defying their God—the two cannot be separated. David became indignant for the Lord's reputation, which is a demonstration that he had the quality that God was looking for in a king." (Bible Story Handbook)

Term 3

→ INTRO

David is yet to be crowned king, but after his victory over Goliath, and over the next few chapters, he "gained the support of every group, beginning with the crown prince, Jonathan." Jonathan is the son of Saul, but he begins a very loyal friendship with David, showing no jealousy, but rather love and a recognition that David was God's chosen next king of Israel. This would be unlikely, because as the son of the king, Jonathan would have been the one to assume the throne after Saul died. Instead, God had specifically chosen David, and Jonathan realizes that.

We have reached Second Samuel. When the book was originally written, it was all one book; however, it was so long that it couldn't fit onto one scroll, so the book was divided into two parts. In Second Samuel, we will now see David become king over Israel. (Bible Story Handbook) Once David is on the throne, God makes a covenant with him.

God now makes a covenant with David. In chapter 6:2, the ark of the covenant has been returned to Israel and returned to a "central positioning." God will now bless the nation of Israel through King David. David wants to build a temple for God, which is not an unusual thing for a king to do for the god of the people; however, God says he will "establish a house (dynasty) for David...By separating the temple building from the covenant, it is made clear that David did not gain God's favor for his dynasty by building the temple." (Bible Story Handbook)

John 18:25-40
When Pilate asks, "What is truth?" the interesting note is that he is questioning and denying the One who is Truth. If Jesus was innocent of all charges, then Pilate should have set Him free." (Bible Knowledge Commentary)

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

Materials: ESV Large Print Bible, notebook

→ RECAP
What do you recall about what we read last time?

Term 3

→ INTRO

David finds out that there was a member of Saul's family who was still alive. This was Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan. David shows kindness and loyalty to the promise he had made to Saul and Jonathan that he would treat anyone in their family line well. David is following through on what he had promised.

Mephibosheth was allowed to eat at the king's table, which "was a way of indicating that someone was under royal protection and care. Whether that person actually ate at the same table or not, provisions or rations were supplied from the king's house." (Bible Story Handbook)

→ READ & NARRATE

2 Samuel 9:1-13

- Why would a new king not want anyone from the last (or previous) king's family to still be alive? (Because he was in the line of Saul, he could take over the throne.)
- God had chosen David to be king, and much of what happens in these chapters shows that he is not winning power by making political moves or using strategy to gain power; rather, he is gaining the support of the people and is being affirmed as God's choice for the throne over Israel.
