☐ For Term 1, read the translator's Preface (p.I-XXIII) to Celebrated Cases of Judge Dee and the Introduction (p.3-21) to Scarlet Letter to have enough context for the story to engage in discussion with your student(s) even if you are not able to read the full books. Reading Like a Serpent (linked in Extra Helpings) is also an excellent resource for students and teachers wishing to dive deeper into The Scarlet Letter.

□ A Tale of Two Cities (Term 3) is a long novel, and to allow students to digest, write narrations, and enjoy the story, only about half of it is scheduled over the term. If you wish students to finish it, consider starting the book in Term 2 after the Gulliver's Travels lessons OR allowing students to read the book on their own time if interested (during or after the end of the term).

How To Approach

Read

The lesson plans will guide you through what to read over the terms. Take a moment before reading to remember where you left off last time.

Narrate

The lesson plans will give you specific instructions or tell you to choose a way to narrate that helps you interact with the ideas.

Discuss

The lesson plans will guide you with questions or instructions to share your ideas or what you are reading with others.

Teacher Note

These lessons are written directly to students, but to assist them throughout the year, please read through this section and the lesson plans so you are familiar with the instructions and flow of the lessons. Accountability components are occasionally added to facilitate teacher/student discussion and growing independence.

It is also valuable for those in a classroom setting to have a mix of lessons that students complete themselves silently and others read aloud and narrate together. Literature lessons lend themselves well to a larger discussion time at the end of the lesson where student can share their ideas.

Term 1

WEEK 1 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 1

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ INTRO

Mary Shelley's Frankenstein has had a continuous influence on the wider culture since its publication over two centuries ago. Sir Walter Scott pronounced it "extraordinary" and declared that Shelley possessed "uncommon powers of poetic imagination." The story has been told and retold through many adaptations and artistic forms; however, there is a disconnect between the cartoonish, green-faced Frankenstein monster familiar to most of us, and Shelley's tale of a nameless monster created by Dr. Frankenstein. Karen Swallow Prior writes that the novel "is full of surprises for the first-time reader." Rather than a straightforward monster story, it is "in the strain of the philosophical novel. Readers expecting merely an entertaining tale of horror can expect to be confronted with big ideas and big questions" (14).

→ READ & NARRATE

p.1-7 "You will rejoice" - "my beloved sister!"

- Notice that the novel opens with a series of letters. There will be many narrative frames throughout the novel as characters tell stories within stories, so paying attention to point-of-view is very important. What do you learn of Robert Walton from these opening pages?
- What tone is set by the opening line?

WEEK 1 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 2

Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
Materials: Up From Slavery

→ INTRO

Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass is a classic 19th-century autobiography which details the author's story from slavery to freedom. Douglass was born enslaved in Maryland in 1818 and escaped to freedom when he was around twenty years old. He went on to have a remarkable life as a national leader of the abolitionist movement, writer, orator, and statesman.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.1-7 "I was born in Tuckahoe" - "a good overseer"

- What do we learn about Frederick Douglass's family in this opening reading?
- What initial impressions do you have of his narrative style? How might this be connected to his aims for this autobiography? Consider in particular how he describes the more difficult and violent episodes from his childhood.

→ INTRO

Today we begin reading the autobiography of Booker T. Washington. It was first written as a periodical, but was later put into book form. Washington was born a slave, but was still a child when emancipation occurred. He later founded Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, and spent his life advancing the cause of equal rights. His writings give a window into the Reconstruction period that followed the American Civil War.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

★ TEACHER NOTE

Sensitive content: Douglass's Narrative contains several graphic descriptions of beatings, and racial slurs.

Term 1

Ch.I p.1-11 "I was born" - "owners as to the future."

- How does Washington describe his childhood? How does he describe the day of emancipation?

WEEK 2 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 3

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.8-14 "So strange an accident" - "and wrecked it - thus!"

- How are the gigantic creature and the stranger introduced? What questions do you have at this point in the novel?
- What are Walton's impressions of his guest? Why would Shelley introduce the title character to her readers through another character?

WEEK 2 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 4

Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass

Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.7-13 "The home plantation" - "stone-like coolness."

- Reflect on Douglass's descriptions of the slave's songs. What purposes does singing serve? How has it been misunderstood?

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.2-3 p.11-22 "After the coming of freedom" - "or a handkerchief."

- Why were names so important to Washington and the other newly freed people?
- How does Washington describe the conditions of formerly enslaved people immediately after emancipation?
- How is education described in this chapter? Why did Washington see it as so important?

WEEK 3 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 5

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.14-21 "I am by birth" - "the greatest avidity."

- Describe the circumstances of Victor's parentage, his childhood, and his education.
- How does Victor recall his first reading of Agrippa? Does this foreshadow any of what is to come? Look for other instances of foreshadowing as you read.

Term 1

WEEK 3 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 6

- Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
- Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.13-19 "His savage barbarity" - "voice of tranquil music."

- Why do you think it is important for his narrative that Douglass describes violence in such detail? How does it strengthen his anti-slavery argument?
 - Why was leaving Colonel Lloyd's plantation such a turning point for Douglass?

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.3-4 p.22-34 "Finally, the great day came" - "get through the school year."

- What hardships does he encounter while traveling, and how does he respond to them? Where does he find the strength to persevere?
- Describe Mrs. Ruffner and how she impacted his life. Who else had an impact on Washington?

WEEK 4 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 7

Frankenstein

- Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.21-29 "When I returned" - "my future destiny."

- When Victor goes to university, how do his professors react to his course of study?
- Where do you see foreshadowing in today's reading? Since Victor is telling Walton (who is retelling his story to his sister) about his past from the vantage point of the future, how reliable is he as a narrator?

• COMPOSITION -

Compare/Contrast

Karen Swallow Prior observes that "The clash between ancient and modern science is part of a larger discussion during this period of modernity. How are these two schools contrasted and set against one another? How is the modern elevated above the ancient? Do we still see this kind of debate today? How so?"

WEEK 4 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 8

- Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
- Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.19-26 "But alas!" - "learning how to write."

- How did Douglass's experiences with the Aulds set him "on the pathway from slavery to freedom"? Why did Mr. Auld forbid his wife to teach Douglass to read, and what did Douglass learn from this about literacy?
- How does Douglass teach himself to read and write? What obstacles does he face, and what does he learn about his own situation from what he reads?

Term 1

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.4-6 p.34-50 "Three weeks before" - "features of the institution."

- Why does he believe education should include both academic learning and practical skills? How does Washington begin helping other members of his community?
- What opportunities and challenges arose for formerly enslaved people during the Reconstruction period? What aspects is Washington most critical of?
- What does Washington learn from his experience working with Native Americans?

WEEK 5 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 9

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about Victor's education from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.29-36 "From this day" - "not have conceived."

- What are some clues that Victor is transgressing a necessary and sacred ethical boundary with his research? If "a churchyard was to [him] merely the receptacle of bodies deprived of life" (p.30) what does this tell us about his view of human beings?
- How does Victor describe the final "accomplishment of [his] toils"? What is his reaction when he comes face to face with what he created? How does the creature react to him?

WEEK 5 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 10

Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass

Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.26-33 "In a very short time" - "sagacity to see it."

- What was Douglass's and the other slaves' situation when his master Captain Anthony died? How does Douglass's direct description of valuation strengthen his argument against slavery?
 - What is Douglass's life like once he lives with Thomas Auld?

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.7-8 p.51-64 "During the time" - "deeply as this one."

- What challenges did Washington face when he went to Tuskegee? What do we learn about his leadership style from how he faced these difficulties?

General Lit.: Grades 9-10

Click THIS text or scan the QR code for links.

Term 1

- Why does Washington praise manual labor so highly? What episodes from his younger years influenced the importance he placed on this type of work?

WEEK 6 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 11

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about the creature's first moments from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.36-43 "I passed the night" - "I intreat you, write!"

- Throughout this process, Victor has isolated himself from friends and family and now refuses to confess to anyone what he has done. What does this say about his character, and how has it shaped his thinking and reactions?
- What news is contained in Elizabeth's letter? How does the story of Justine parallel other stories we have heard so far?

WEEK 6 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 12

Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.33-39 "While I lived with my master" - "myself to my wretched lot."

- Why does Douglass call Edward Covey a "slave breaker"? What methods does Covey use to control enslaved people?
 - How does Douglass describe the physical and emotional effects of his time with Covey?

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.9-10 p.64-74 "The coming of Christmas" - "or perhaps could build."

- How did the community support the school in Tuskegee?
- Why is it important for Washington to teach his students to "love work for its own sake" (72)?
- What lesson did Washington learn from brick-making about racial relations?"

★ TEACHER NOTE

Sensitive content in a quotation: Up From Slavery, p.68.

WEEK 7 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 13

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about Victor's state of mind from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.43-50 "Dear, dear Elizabeth!" - "not murdered my brother?"

Term 1

- How does Victor now spend his time? Nature seems to have a way of restoring his "health and spirits," but do you find his description of nature as "inanimate" to be concerning (45)? How do his views of nature align or contrast with the view of nature put forth by Romanticism?
- What is the symbolism of the storm, and why is Victor so insistent on watching it rather than rushing home to his family?
- What do we learn about the creature with this next sighting of him?

WEEK 7 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 14

- 📖 Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
- 📖 Materials: Up From Slavery

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.39-45 "I have already intimated" - "practice is a very common one."

- Why do you think Douglass describes "this battle with Mr. Covey [as] the turning point in my career as a slave"?
 - How does Douglass describe the celebration of Christmas for slaves as a tool of control rather than genuine kindness? How does this description support his anti-slavery argument?

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Ch.10-11 p.74-85 "The same principle" - "button is to be found missing."

- What challenges did Washington continue to face in setting up Tuskegee? How did he face them, and what can you learn from his perseverance?
- What were some lessons that Washington was trying to teach the students beyond the classroom?

WEEK 8 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 15

Frankenstein

- 📖 Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about the circumstances surrounding William's death from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.50-58 "No one can conceive" - "yet I could not refuse."

- Why does Victor not tell anyone his story if it could save the life of Justine?
- What do we learn about the character of Elizabeth from today's reading?

Term 1

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.45-52 "On the first of January" - "we succeeded very well."

- How does this section show the hypocrisy between the slave-holders' professions of Christianity and their actions?
 - How does Douglass describe his time with Mr. Freeland.

→ RECAP

What do you remember from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

(We are skipping chapters 12-13)

Ch.14 p.105-115 ""The Atlanta Exposition"" - ""exact justice to both races.""

- What does Washington mean by ""Cast down your bucket where you are""?
- How would you describe the overall message of his speech? How was it received?

→ LISTEN

The only audio recording of Booker T. Washington in existence is him reading the opening paragraphs of his Atlanta Exposition Speech in 1905.

∞ Audio Link: Booker T. Washington's "Atlanta Compromise" Speech

→ WATCH

This short biography of Booker T. Washington also introduces the debate with W. E. B. Du Bois, which will be the focus of the next three lessons.

Frankenstein

- Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about the circumstances surrounding William's death from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.58-65 "We entered the gloomy prison" - "giver of oblivion."

- From Karen Swallow Prior: "What is Justine's place in the family? What is her character like? How does her presence invoke issues of class and economic status?"
- Victor reflects: "Despair! Who dared talk of that? The poor victim, who on the morrow was to pass the awful boundary between life and death, felt not, as I did, such deep and bitter agony." What do you make of this? What does it say about Victor's sense of himself?

Term 1

- Materials: Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass
- Materials: The Souls of Black Folk

→ RECAP

What do you recall from last week's reading?

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.52-58 "After a painful waiting" - "Christian city of Baltimore."

- What is Douglass's plan to escape to freedom? What happens?
- How does Douglass's experience working at the shipyard demonstrate the injustices of the law?

→ INTRO

W.E.B. Du Bois was a prominent writer, sociologist, historian, and advocate for civil rights. He was raised in Massachusetts, and attended Fisk University, and then Harvard, where he became the first African American to receive a PhD. He devoted his life to work for full equality for African Americans.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

p.1-7 "The Forethought" & Chapter 1: Of Our Spiritual Strivings

- Compare his aims and writing style to Washington's: what are some similarities and differences?
- Du Bois introduces two significant metaphors in today's reading: his concept of the "Veil" and of "double consciousness." How would you explain them to someone?

WEEK 10 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 19

Frankenstein

- Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about Victor's state of mind after Justine's death from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.65-73 "I spent the following day" - "and fell asleep."

- What is Victor's relationship to nature in this section? If you have read Percy Shelley's poem "Mont Blanc," do you see any similarities?
- What are your first impressions of hearing the creature speak? Did any of it surprise you?
- The creature declares "I was benevolent and good; misery made me a fiend" (p.69). If you have read Paradise Lost, do you recognize any echoes of Milton's epic in today's reading? In the original 1818 version, Shelley included a quotation from Paradise Lost as an epigram (Did I request thee, Maker, from my Clay / To mould me Man? Did I solicit thee / From darkness to promote me?)

What do you recall about the Creature's narrative of his first days from your reading last time?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.81-89 "I now hasten" - "plan of future maintenance."

- Describe the De Lancey family. Do they remind you of other stories you have heard in this narrative so far?
- How do the De Lanceys serve as a foster family and a virtuous example to follow for the Creature, even as they are unaware of his presence?

WEEK 1 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 26

Silas Marner

Materials: Silas Marner

→ INTRO

The modernist writer Virginia Woolf once praised George Eliot's Middlemarch as "one of the few English novels written for grown-up people," and this suggestion of sophistication, psychological depth, and a moral imagination could equally apply to the next novel you will read in this course, Silas Marner. George Eliot, the pen name for Mary Ann Evans, described the novel to her publisher as "a sort of legendary tale" to which she decided to give "a more realistic treatment." As you read, look for how these strands of fairy tale or legend interweave with a realistic depiction of nineteenth-century English village life.

→ READ & NARRATE

p.5-13 "In the days when" - "been nowhere else."

- How would you describe the setting of Raveloe?
- What are your first impressions of Silas Marner? How does your first impression of him change as you read about his life fifteen years earlier in Lantern Hill?

WEEK 2 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 27

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about the De Lacey family from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.89-97 "Such were the events" - "unperceived to my hovel."

- How does the Creature interpret his own life through the reading he does?
- From Karen Swallow Prior: "Do you fault the De Laceys for their reaction to the creature? Why or why not?"

What are your first impressions of the novel and Eliot's writing style based on what you read last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.13-20 "The search was made" - "Old Master Marner."

- How would you describe the religious community Silas is a part of in Raveloe?
- What details does Eliot include to emphasize the injustice of what happens to Silas? How does he respond to what happens to him?
- What has his life been like in the fifteen years since he arrived in Raveloe?

WEEK 3 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 29

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about Creature's conversation with De Lacey from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.97-105 "Cursed, cursed creator!" - "deny me my request!"

- How is the Creature's rescue of the drowning girl and her guardian's shooting of him a pivotal turning point in his narrative?
- What do you think Victor's response will be to the Creature's request?

WEEK 3 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 30

Silas Marner

Materials: Silas Marner

→ RECAP

What are your first impressions of the novel and Eliot's writing style based on what you read last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.20-30 "Yet even in" - "fall on my legs."

- Why do you think Silas has an evening ritual of sorting and counting his money each night? What does the gold mean to him?
- How are members of the Cass family contrasted with Silas? What is the effect of contrasting a poor weaver counting his fortune with a Squire's family experiencing money problems?
- What can you tell about the brother's relationship based on the way they speak to each other? How does Godfrey's secret create a power imbalance?

Term 2

WEEK 4 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 31

Frankenstein

Materials: Frankenstein

→ RECAP

What do you recall about Creature's final request to Victor from your reading last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.105-112 "I was moved" - "occupy the scene."

- Why does Victor's response to the monster vacillate between sympathy and disgust?
- From Karen Swallow Prior: "Structurally, Victor is pressed to make a mate for the creature and to marry Elizabeth at the same point in time. What is the significance as well as the effect of these two events coinciding in Victor's life?"

WEEK 4 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 32

Silas Marner

Materials: Silas Marner

→ RECAP

What did you learn about the relationship between the Cass brothers from what you read last week?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.30-38 "With that, Dunstan slammed" - "Marner was not there."

- Can you make any predictions about Godfrey's future based on what you learn about him and his choices in today's reading?
- Eliot continuously places her characters into situations where they are given a clear moral choice to make. What choice does Dunstan face at the end of today's reading? What do you think he will do?

WEEK 1 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 49

"The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County" by Mark Twain

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

We've included audio versions of these stories as an alternative to reading the written stories. Short stories can be especially fun to hear aloud with a talented narrator, though it will take longer than reading the story.

Mark Twain (1835–1910) is the pen name of Samuel Clemens, one of America's most celebrated writers who was known for his sharp wit. His most famous works include "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "Adventures of Huckleberry Finn". Published in 1865, "The Celebrated Jumping Frog" was the story that made Twain a household name. The story blends exaggeration and comic timing in a way that was fresh and distinctly American when it was published. As you read, pay attention not just to what happens, but to how the story is told.

We left the Lammeter sisters mid-conversation. Do you recall what was happening at the party?

→ READ & NARRATE

p.94-102 "'Sister,' said Nancy" - "very long coat-tails."

- In what ways are characters at the party concerned with status, reputation, and social expectations?
- What does the party reveal about the social structure and values of Raveloe society?

WEEK 2 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 51

"The Gift of the Magi" by O Henry

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

O. Henry was the pen name of William Sydney Porter (1862–1910), an American writer famous for his short stories about ordinary people — especially the working poor of New York City. His warm, ironic style made him one of the most popular writers of his era. Published in 1905, "The Gift of the Magi" is perhaps his most beloved story. If you have extra time, his biography (see video link) is especially interesting.

- Why do you think Eliot set the New Year's party directly before the turning point in the novel?

WEEK 3 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 53

"The Gold Bug" by Edgar Allan Poe

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Edgar Allan Poe (1809–1849) is one of America's most distinctive and influential writers. Poe is known for dark, atmospheric tales of mystery and the macabre. Surprisingly, he also pioneered the detective story! Poe had a fascination with puzzles, codes, and the power of careful reasoning. Published in 1843, "The Gold Bug" is a mystery with a secret message written in code, and cracking it requires sharp eyes and sharp thinking. As you read, pay close attention when the cipher appears and to how the code is broken. If you'd like, see if you can work through it yourself!

"The Tale of the Golden Cockrel" by Pushkin

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Alexander Pushkin (1799–1837) is Russia's most celebrated and beloved writer, widely considered the father of modern Russian literature. His poetry, novels, and stories established the literary tradition that nearly every Russian writer after him would build upon. Written in 1834, "The Tale of the Golden Cockrel" is one of his narrative poems written in the style of a Russian folktale. The story reads like a fairy tale but carries the sharp edge of a fable. As you read, ask yourself who holds the real power in this story?

Term 3

"How Much Land Does a Man Need?" by Leo Tolstoy

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Leo Tolstoy (1828–1910) is best known for lengthy novels like War and Peace and Anna Karenina. But Tolstoy was also a master of the short story, and late in his life he turned increasingly toward simple, moral tales. Published in 1886, "How Much Land Does a Man Need?" is one of those tales. As you read, watch for how Tolstoy uses one man's desires to build suspense and make his argument.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Read (Or Listen): p.57-68 "How Much Land Does a Man Need?" by Leo Tolstoy

"The Kingdom of Cards" by Rabindranath Tagore

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Rabindranath Tagore (1861–1941) was a Bengali poet, writer, and philosopher from India who became the first non-European writer to win the Nobel Prize in Literature, receiving it in 1913. He was a prolific writer of poetry, short stories, novels, and plays, and is still considered one of the greatest literary figures of the modern era. His short story "The Kingdom of Cards" is written in the style of a fairy tale and uses an imaginary world to say something true about the real one.

- How does Nancy's reaction to Godfrey's confession reveal her moral character?

WEEK 10 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 67

"The Adventure of the Speckled Band" by Arthur Conan Doyle

Materials: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

→ INTRO

Arthur Conan Doyle (1859–1930) was a British writer (born in Edinburgh, Scotland) and best known as the creator of Sherlock Holmes, arguably the most famous fictional detective in the world. He was knighted by King Edward VII in 1902. The Holmes stories defined the modern detective story and have never gone out of print. "The Adventure of the Speckled Band" is widely considered one of the finest Holmes stories ever written. As you read, pay attention to the clues Doyle plants along the way, and see how much you can figure out before he reveals the answer.

→ READ, NARRATE, & DISCUSS

Read (Or Listen): p.75-85 "The Adventure of the Speckled Band" by Arthur Conan Doyle

∞ Link: Short Stories and Folk Tales PDF

• COMPOSITION

Holmes asks Watson to come along to Stoke Moran, warning him there will be danger. Why do you think Watson agrees to come? Is Watson, loyal, brave, or does he simply trust Holmes?

Term 3

- Julia's mysterious dying words are "the speckled band"! Why do you think a dying clue is such a common device in detective fiction?
- Helen has been moved into her dead sister's room because of renovations and this makes Holmes suspicious. Why do you think Helen herself didn't question it more?

WEEK 12 30m General Lit.: Grades 9-10 - Lesson 72

General Lit.: Grades 9-10

Examination

Term 1

- (Frankenstein) How are the feelings Walton describes having toward Frankenstein—such as sympathy, compassion, admiration, and pity—significant to other relationships in the novel? OR Discuss the role nature plays in the novel so far, and how it is connected to various characters' internal states.
- (Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass): Explain why reading and literacy were such an important first step in Douglass's path from slavery to freedom. OR Describe some of the ways Douglass's Narrative is such a powerful argument against slavery.
- (Up from Slavery & Souls of Black Folk): Describe Washington's and Du Bois's differing views on the purpose of education. OR Tell all you know about Washington's early life and how it impacted his future leadership at the Tuskegee school.

Term 2

- (Frankenstein) One of the components in the classical definition of tragedy is that a great hero is brought down by a fatal flaw in his character. If we read the novel as the tragedy of Victor Frankenstein, what is his fatal flaw? Or would you read it as a tragedy of another character instead? OR
- (Frankenstein) From Karen Swallow Prior: How do the lines spoken by the creature to Victor upon their first meeting encapsulate the entire novel? "Remember, that I am they creature: I ought to be thy Adam; but I am rather the fallen angel, whom thou drivest from joy for no misdeed. Every where I see bliss, from which I alone am irrevocably excluded. I was benevolent and good; misery made me a fiend. Make me happy, and I shall again be virtuous."
- (Silas Marner) What does the gold symbolize to Marner in the beginning of the story, and how does its loss begin to change him? OR By placing characters into situations requiring moral actions, how does Eliot shape the ethical imagination of her readers?

Term 3

- (Folk Tales) Choose one story from this term that ends with a "twist" and explain how its ending works. What does it reveals? Why it is effective? What you think the author most wanted you to take away? OR Poe's Legrand and Doyle's Sherlock Holmes both solve mysteries through observation and logic, but they are very different kinds of characters. Compare and contrast the two. Which one did you find more compelling and why?
- (Silas Marner) Do you think that Silas Marner is more of a fairy tale or a realistic novel? Give some specific examples from the novel that support your argument. OR Provide a detailed character sketch of one of the characters from the novel. What are they like? How do they change in response to what happens to them?
